First Eucharist

2020 First Communicants

This year, instead of a single Mass, our young Catholics received their First Communion in Masses throughout the summer and into the fall. This weekend, the last of this group will receive the sacrament. As with our Confirmation class, this was not the experience they expected, but it was the experience they received. We thank catechists, Catherine Glavan, Trisha Mumm and Mary Witka, who have done such a wonderful job preparing the children for their First Communion.

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

IN OUR MODERN WORLD, there is a temptation to believe that what we have we have earned. Our possessions are a result of hard work. Any resources we have are truly not our own. Today's Gospel is a good reminder that all we have is from God and that we should not be hoarders of God's good gifts. Let us die to the notion of possessions and let us instead engage in a lifestyle of discipleship which shares what we have with the least among us. In that way, we will be living the paschal mystery.

PARISH LIFE

PRAYER FROM USCCB FOR OUR UPCOMING ELECTION

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty. We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender. We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

REMEMBERING OUR BELOVED DEAD

Please bring photos of deceased loved ones

The month of November is traditionally the time in the Catholic Church when we remember those who have passed, both in the previous year and before.

Photos or Memorial Cards

Please bring photos or memorial cards of your deceased family members and friends to place on the Altar of the Dead. Drop them off at the Parish Office, or bring them with you if you attend Mass.

Please make sure all photos are clearly marked on the back with name and phone number so they can be returned.

Also, keep an eye out for announcement of our annual All Souls Service of Light.

VIRTUAL INFORMATION TABLE

If we were meeting together, we would have many printed flyers on our Information Table for you to pick up. Since we're not meeting as an entire parish, we have several flyers available relevant to this weekend for download at www.themadeleine.edu/bulletin.

NEW MASS SETTING IN HONOR OF ST. MARY MAGDALENE

The Catacombs

Several years ago, I had the experience of participating in a Mass at Priscilla's Catacombs in Rome, Italy on a pilgrimage with my choir. The Catacombs, tunnels which are located underneath the city, are filled with thousands of graves including early Christian martyrs and even some popes. Somewhere in the middle was a small cave with an altar in the center—and that is where we had Mass. It was a once in a lifetime opportunity to worship in the very place that the Early Christians worshipped so many centuries ago—and it has given me great perspective that we celebrate that same ritual today.

History of the Sanctus

Of all the parts of the Mass, the Sanctus (Holy) is the most important acclamation that the congregation sings. It is one of the earliest known parts, first referenced by St. Clement of Rome (d. about 104 A.D.) and became an integral part of the Eucharistic Prayer from before the year 400 A.D.

The Sanctus is located at the end of the Preface (Prayer of Thanksgiving), which is the prayer where the priest gives all praise and thanksgiving to God. Although the text varies, I always listen for the word "angel" as my cue to begin the singing! At that point, the congregation becomes the punctuation—echoing our praise with that of the angels as together we sing, "holy, holy, holy." This is certainly one of the most joyful parts of the Mass, and provides a musical "bridge" to the Eucharistic Prayer. I liken it to that of the ancient Greek Chorus, who reinforce (in this case) the prayer of praise and thanksgiving to God proclaimed by the Priest.

The text of the Sanctus (Holy) has two parts, referred to as the Sanctus (Holy) and the Benedictus (Blessed)—both of which are inspired by scripture. At the beginning, they were sung in two parts—before and after the elevation of the host and chalice at the time of the consecration. As the Mass evolved, however, they became one acclamation that juxtapose a text of both God in awe and majesty, and the humility of Jesus as Man.

Musicam Sacrum

Along the way, the Church gives us some uniform guidelines with regard to the Mass. That is probably a good thing, as it is a pretty ancient liturgy, and things do change over the centuries! One of the important documents regarding sacred music is called Musicam Sacram; Instruction on Music in the Liturgy, published by the Second Vatican Ecumenical Council in 1967. The document talks about the importance of singing in the liturgy, and that it should promote "active and conscious" participation from the congregation. (Where have you heard that line before?) As if things aren't complicated enough, it goes a step further and actually spells out, in a logical order, which parts of the Mass should be given priority to sing. (Remember—as Catholics, we can literally sing the entire Mass!) In a nutshell, it says that those parts that are sung by the priest with the people replying (re: "the Lord be with you—and with your spirit") or with the priest and the people singing together are the most important. That, of course, includes the Preface and the Sanctus—therefore it should always be sung.

Mass of St. Mary Magdalene

With that in mind, this week we will practice the Holy from the Mass of St. Mary Magdalene. You will find the music in the Worship Aid. It is my hope that by Advent, the entire Mass will be learned and you will be able to sing all parts with "full and active conscious" participation!

PILGRIMAGE TO SOUL PLACE: MODERN CANTERBURY TALES

Dr. Cecilia A. Ranger, SNJM, Ph.D worked on behalf of our parish for several years. She is an absolute treasure and our parish is better for it. She has written three books, including this one, just published. It is available on Amazon, in both paperback and Kindle e-book editions, at www.tinyurl.com/yxg2y3d5. The following is from Sister Cecilia...

My third book is about religions of the world. It tells stories of 'searchers' who sit around a rustic table, with a glass of wine or beer, sharing stories about their spiritual journeys - much like the pilgrims of the Canterbury Tales. Questers, Agnostics, and others seeking to find a soul place that fits their personality types. You'll find these reflections enlightening and reassuring. Those of us who work with and live beside persons of many spiritual traditions will find that this book deepens our understanding of various traditions, and facilitates dialogue among them.

HOMEBOUND MINISTRY NEWS

The Homebound Ministry of The Madeleine strives to maintain a special connection with parishioners who are either temporarily or permanently unable to attend Mass and receive the Eucharist with the parish community. Parishioners in this ministry provide the Holy Eucharist, normally when requested, share parish news, Father Mike's homilies and the gospel with the homebound. Visits are prearranged between the parishioner and the Homebound Minister. During this very unusual time with COVID-19 we have not been able to provide the Holy Eucharist and/or home visits to our parish homebound.

If you are in need of this ministry or know of a parishioner who is in need, please let us know. Arrangements will be made for a phone call, note or other support in a socially distanced and protected protocol until it is safe to come together once again.

If a parishioner desires Anointing of the Sick, Confession or the Eucharist, contact the parish office and Father Mike will be notified.

Please call the parish office for more information at 503-281-5777 or email to homebound@themadeleine.edu.

The Homebound Ministry is available to all parishioners in need of support.

VIRTUAL FAMILY GATHERING

October 25 • 11:15 am • Zoom

Dear Madeleine Parish Families,

I had hoped that by this time I would be able to host a monthly family gathering for you and your children onsite. However, the actual time at which this can happen is uncertain. So I am inviting you to join me on Zoom...you and your children...on October 25, 2020 at 11:15am. It will last about 30 minutes. I want to provide a time for us to meet one another and introduce ourselves.

Since it is the month of the rosary, we will spend part of our time sharing intentions and praying 1 decade of the rosary together. I will need to send you the Zoom link, so I am asking you to email me your email address and names of family members. My email address is tfenzl@themadeleine.edu

This is for ALL families in the parish whether you attend the school or not. My plan is to share some simple ideas each month for ways to create ritual and share prayer times at home. If you and your family would like to have a Zoom meeting, I would also be happy to do that. Just let me know and I will arrange a time that works for us.

I pray for you and look forward to the day we can meet in person.

Much peace to you,

—Ms. Therese Fenzl

WILDFIRE RESPONSE

Many of you have asked how to help those affected by the wildfires that have ravaged our state. These fires, combined with the hardships of the coronavirus pandemic, continue to pose grave threats to those who are vulnerable to poverty and homelessness—and to the stability and self-sufficiency they have fought so hard to achieve. There are many options to respond financially, Two are listed here:

SERVING MOMS IN NEED LIVING THE GOSPEL OF LIFE

On March 25, 2020, the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord, the Church celebrated the 25th anniversary of the papal encyclical Evangelium vitae (The Gospel of Life). This prophetic document, written by a great saint of our time, Pope John Paul II, reaffirmed the Church's constant teaching on the value and inviolability of every human life.

In this encyclical, the Holy Father explains that the Gospel of Life is at the heart of Jesus' saving message to the world. Through the Incarnation of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, reflecting his glory and his imprint. We are therefore called to "respect, defend and promote the dignity of every human person, at every moment and in every condition of that person's life."¹

Evangelium vitae highlights the special and particular role of women in bearing the gift of life to the world. Pope John Paul II offers heartfelt thanks to these "heroic mothers," who, placing their trust in God, "devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves."²

Pope John Paul II also outlines the many challenges that expectant mothers may face, including lack of support from the father, financial strains, concerns about her own health or that of her child, and pressures from family and friends. The Holy Father recognizes that an "unborn child is totally entrusted to the protection and care of the woman carrying him or her in the womb."³ For this reason, it is particularly important that the Church come alongside mothers, offering them encouragement, assistance, and support.

Through Christ, we have received the gift of the Gospel of Life in its fullness. As members of the Church, we are the people of life and for life. It is our duty to proclaim the truth of the Gospel of Life to the world, for "to proclaim Jesus is itself to proclaim life."⁴ Pope John Paul II tasked us with building a culture of life to combat the forces at work in the culture of death. He challenged us:

With great openness and courage, we need to question how widespread is the culture of life today among individual Christians, families, groups and communities in our Dioceses. With equal clarity and determination we must identify the steps we are called to take in order to serve life in all its truth.⁵

In honor of Evangelium vitae's 25th anniversary and in answer to Pope John Paul II's call, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Committee on Pro-Life Activities launched a nationwide effort beginning March 25, 2020 entitled, Walking with Moms in Need: A Year of Service. Parishes, through the support of their bishops and pastors, are invited to join this effort to increase the Church's outreach and support to pregnant women facing difficult or unexpected pregnancies. This special anniversary year provides the Church with an opportunity to assess, expand, and better communicate resources to pregnant moms and families in need.

Pregnant and parenting moms in need are in our parishes and our neighborhoods, but in desperation, they are turning to other places for help. We know the needs and challenges can be immense for women in difficult pregnancies, especially women in poverty, and the sources for help may not be apparent to those most needing support. Women facing challenging pregnancies should see the Church as a place where they can find help, especially with its extensive social services dedicated to meeting the needs of people in crisis.

Through the Year of Service the Church is being asked to respond to Pope John Paul II's call and honestly assess the pastoral and practical assistance that it currently provides to pregnant moms and families in need and how effective it is in communicating such help.

Pope John Paul II wrote that,

"gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of man impel us to share [the Gospel of Life] with everyone."⁶

He said we need to bring this message "to the heart of every man and woman and to make it penetrate every part of society."⁷ By reaching out to lovingly support and care for pregnant women and their children, we witness to the sanctity of every human person, in every stage and every circumstance.

Evangelium vitae emphasizes that, "where life is involved, the service of charity must be profoundly consistent. It cannot tolerate bias and discrimination, for human life is sacred and inviolable... We need then to 'show care' for all life and for the life of everyone."⁸ Pope John Paul II highlights the incredible history of service and charity that the Church has provided throughout the centuries to those abandoned and forgotten by society. He urges that "every Christian community, with a renewed sense of responsibility, must continue to write this history."⁹

We are called to reverence and love every human person as ourselves. It is our responsibility to care for and protect human life, especially the lives of the most vulnerable among us. Evangelium vitae teaches us that "the task of accepting and serving life involves everyone; and this task must be fulfilled above all towards life when it is at its weakest."¹⁰

Pope John Paul II wrote, "the Gospel of God's love for man, the Gospel of the dignity of the person and the Gospel of life are a single and indivisible Gospel."¹¹ The Gospel of Jesus is the Gospel of Life, and to love Jesus is to love and serve life. As followers of Christ, may we strive to continually respond to the needs of the poor and vulnerable entrusted to us by God.

For this Year of Service, the USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities is providing educational, pastoral, and action-oriented resources to help parishes go to the peripheries and bring hope and help to mothers in need. Through the combined efforts of parishes nationwide, we hope to move closer to the day when every pregnant mother in need knows where to turn for help, and abortion is unthinkable. Visit WalkingWithMoms.com to learn more and to pledge to prayerfully walk with mothers in need.
