

THE MADELEINE SCHOOL ENROLLING FOR 2021-22 SCHOOL YEAR

Priority registration for parishioners through January 28, 4:00 pm

It's that time of year again...time to start thinking about school enrollment for Fall 2021. We invite all interested parents and guardians to learn more about our commitment to providing an academically excellent and faith-filled education for the children of our community. In case you did not know, we have 5 additional openings in 1st Grade each year, so spread the word to your friends and neighbors and tell them to give our principal, Carol Glasgow, a call.

- ▶ Priority registration is offered for all registered parishioners at The Madeleine until January 28, 4:00 pm.
- ▶ Virtual Parent Information Night will be held on Tuesday, January 26 at 6:00 pm.
- ▶ Family Tours are available by request.

To receive in-parish tuition rates, families must be registered and active in the parish for at least 6 months prior to enrollment.

For more information, visit www.themadeleine.edu/admissions, or contact Carol Glasgow, cglasgow@themadeleine.edu or 503-288-9197.

Above: COVID-19 protocols require extra space for students...in some cases more than is available in their classrooms...so Kindergarten will be setting up in the Fireside Room when they return to class on Monday, January 25. Father Mike and Carol Glasgow on Thursday announced that in-person learning for other grades will commence after all teachers and staff have become fully vaccinated. Governor Brown has set January 25 as the day K-12 teachers and staff can begin receiving vaccinations statewide.

Below: While still creating exceptional virtual learning experiences for students, The Madeleine School teachers such as Mrs. Hognlund (5th Grade) are working hard to prepare for in-person learning. Technology Specialist Jenn Langhus is deploying a fleet of Swivl cameras, which follow the teacher during synchronous learning... that is, when some students are in the classroom and others are attending virtually.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

WITHIN THE GOSPEL, Jesus chooses ordinary people with everyday occupations to be his closest collaborators. Though they were not the obvious choices for founding his church, the disciples gained knowledge, wisdom, and understanding to carry forth Jesus' mission after his death and resurrection. Today, Jesus continues to call ordinary, everyday people to be "fishers of men." How will we respond?

PARISH LIFE

WALKING THE SACRED PATH A VIRTUAL RETREAT WITH DAN SCHUTTE

3 sessions beginning January 26

More than 90 people are already signed up...don't wait too long! Join us for a special Virtual Retreat featuring legendary Catholic musician Dan Schutte—one of the best-known and most influential composers of Catholic music for liturgy in the English-speaking world.

This unique retreat opportunity is a synthesis of Dan's knowledge of Sacred Scripture, exquisite videography, and beautiful music. You can experience this retreat virtually with Dan in three consecutive one-hour sessions. As a bonus, Dan will join us for a 30-minute conversation after our final session.

Registration is open through Sunday night. Space is limited and preference is given to Madeleine parishioners. You will be sent information with a video link and downloadable workbook prior to the first session. Questions? Please email Maria Manzo, Director of Music at mmanzo@themadeleine.edu

- ▶ Session 1: January 26, 6:30–7:30 pm • Paying Attention to God
- ▶ Session 2: February 2, 6:30–7:30 pm • Staking our Lives on Jesus
- ▶ Session 3: February 9, 6:30–8:00 pm • Sent as Disciples of Hope (with LIVE 30-minute virtual conversation with Dan).

This retreat is made possible by a generous anonymous donor.

Register at www.themadeleine.edu/dan

PARISH YOUTH MUSIC ENRICHMENT

Wednesdays 2:30-3:00 pm via Zoom

If you like to sing and would like to learn more about music, then sign up to be part of our Virtual Youth Music Enrichment ministry!

Although we are not able to sing together yet, there are things that we can do virtually to learn about music and to sing "together."

Each 30 minute rehearsal will focus on learning how to read music, followed by some virtual singing. We hope to be able to put a virtual choir together in the near future.

If you have any questions or would like to participate in this program, please contact Dr. Manzo directly at mmanzo@themadeleine.edu. Rehearsals have already started, but it is not too late to join!

Rehearsals are geared for grades 3–6, but ALL youth are welcome!

Let us sing joyfully to the Lord any way we can!

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus says: "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." As disciples, we are called to continue God's work on earth. Taking care of God's poor is indeed living gospel values. Have you considered answering the call to serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

—Mary Clare O'Brien, 503-309-7639

FISHERMEN OF MEN

Our little rescue dog, Frankie, has struggled with learning the word, “come.” He will do it, eventually, but is always hesitant—his heart is willing but he has to think about it first.

Of course, this type of behavior is in stark contrast to the gospel this week when Jesus encounters Simon, Andrew, James and John fishing at the Sea of Galilee. Jesus said, “Come...., and I will make you fishers of men.” No hesitancy there—they immediately abandoned their nets and followed him.

Throughout the gospels, Jesus chooses ordinary people with everyday occupations to be his closest allies. The imagery of the fishermen is easy to understand and to relate to. Just as the apostles were called to “drop their nets” and follow Jesus, today we are also called to be “fishers of men.”

This week’s gathering song, “Two Fishermen,” by Suzanne Toolan, is a descriptive example of this gospel reading. Much like Dan Schutte’s, “Here

I am, Lord,” the song offers two points of view. The first is that of the narrator, who tells the story of Jesus and the Fishermen through each verse of the song. The second is that of Christ, who reminds us in the refrain to “leave all things behind, and come and follow me.” Finally, in the last verse the narrator turns the attention toward us. We are summoned to “follow Jesus” and leave all things that bind us to “trappings” of today.

How do you answer God’s call? Are you hesitant, like our little dog Frankie? Or do you “drop your nets” and follow Christ with certainty and abandon.

One tangible way to answer God’s call is to participate in the upcoming Dan Schutte Virtual Retreat which begins on Tuesday, January 26. Through scripture and song, Dan will help you navigate the road to discipleship in an inspiring way. There is still time to register at www.themadeleine.edu/dan

MADELEINE BOOK CLUB

Would you enjoy opportunities to discuss some very excellent books with friends? We invite you to start the year off right by joining our genial group! We will be meeting to discuss The Immortal Irishman, by Timothy Egan via Zoom on the evening of January 27 and the morning of January 28. For information, please contact our MBC Ministry Coordinator: Gretchen Stevenson, gypsyfrau47@yahoo.com or 503-312-6834.

DON'T STOP EATING CHOCOLATE

Which one do you think will help you become a-better-version-of-yourself:

A. Stop eating chocolate for 40 days

B. Praying every day for 40 days

Join Matthew Kelly for BEST LENT EVER this year as we take a 40-day journey through his new book I Heard God Laugh: A Practical Guide to Life's Essential Daily Habit.

Giving up chocolate could be helpful. Learning how to pray will be life changing!

YOU CAN HELP YOUR MARRIAGE

Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue ... or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse? Retrouvaille helps couples through difficult times in their marriages. This program has helped 10's of 1000's of couples experiencing difficulties in their marriage. For confidential information about or to register for the program beginning with a weekend on March 5-7, 2021 call 1-503-225-9191 or email: portland@retrouvaille.org or visit www.helpourmarriage.org

#ShareYourFaith: Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America at Mass (January 23-24)

For over 50 years, Catholics in the United States have participated in the Collection for the Church in Latin America as a concrete expression of solidarity with our brothers and sisters in Central and South American and the Caribbean. This year the needs of the Church in Latin America are even greater in the wake of the COVID pandemic. Your contribution to the collection on the weekend of January 23-24, no matter how small, is a chance for you to support religious education, evangelization, and formation of priests and religious sisters and brothers throughout the Americas. Join the conversation on Twitter #1church1mission and connect with us on Facebook and Instagram. Learn more visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Poverty Awareness Month

As Poverty Awareness Month continues, take time to learn more about poverty in the United States, understand the root causes, and how people are helping themselves and others out of Poverty USA. <http://www.povertyusa.org/learn>

To support the the Church in Latin America, visit www.themadeleine.edu/giving

Be sure to designate "Church in Latin America," as the Second Collection recipient
