

EARTH IS CALLING: TO BLESS AND BE BLESSED

Earth Day/Earth Month events and activities with Therese Fenzl

What does it mean to be blessed by the earth and to bless the earth? One of the focuses I have very much appreciated since coming to The Madeleine is the community's strong commitment to care for our earth. I am in awe of the beauty of this part of our earth, Portland, Oregon.

I have grown in understanding, awareness of so many ways I can make a difference in healing and preserving this beautiful planet. As we celebrate Earth Day I invite us as a community to take some time to reflect, pray, plan concrete actions that arise from our concern for our planet and every living thing that dwells on it, especially the poorest and most vulnerable.

I will be offering three activities to help empower us to support each other as a community who cares about our earth:

- ▶ Signing of the St. Francis Pledge at 10:00 am Mass on Sunday, April 25. We will also enjoy the beautiful Litany for the Earth. The St. Francis Pledge is so simple and yet so all encompassing of what earth is asking of us.

- ▶ I will lead 12 weekly group faith sharing experiences (approx. 30 minutes each) for adults beginning April 25. Intended to be in-person outdoors on The Madeleine campus or in the Old Church.

- ▶ I'll also lead 12 weekly opportunities for families (approx. 30 minutes each) to gather during which we will focus on the above themes and presented in an engaging and appropriate way for children and parents.

Let us come together to continue deepening our commitment. We will be announcing final locations and meeting times soon. Email to tfenzl@themadeleine.edu for more information.

HELP BEAUTIFY OUR CITY ... ONE BLOCK AT A TIME

Adopt One Block is a local nonprofit encouraging City of Portland residents to adopt and care for our environment one block at a time. Participants choose a location and commit to weekly walking the public portion of the block, picking up litter and debris, and properly recycling or disposing of the trash. Anyone, any age, can participate (when and how you do this is your choice). Here's how to become a Block Ambassador:

- ▶ Select a block anywhere in the City of Portland you would like to adopt.
- ▶ Submit the block to the organizer at www.adoptoneblock.org

- ▶ Request collection supplies you may need – trash grabber, gloves, trash bag.
- ▶ Begin weekly walks of your adopted block.
- ▶ Let us know what block you have adopted, and share your stories and photos with us at bulletin@themadeleine.edu with subject line "Adopt One Block."
- ▶ Spread the word with friends and family about how they can become Block Ambassadors too.

Divine Mercy Sunday

AS CHRISTIANS, WE BELIEVE in life that is stronger than death, in love that is stronger than evil, in light that is stronger than darkness. This faith in the redeeming grace of God's mercy allows us to continue on in hope even in the face of adversity and seeming defeat. Before his passion, the disciples had come to believe in Jesus the wonder worker, the teacher, the Son of God. Now, they find themselves face-to-face with Jesus, the one who died and rose again, the Lord of life. Jesus desires to share this life that is stronger than death with all people of all times and places. When did this good news first come to you and how have you passed it on to others?

Hymns Of Kassianí, an album by Cappella Romana, recorded in our Old Church in May of 2020, will be released on April 16. The album features the world’s earliest music by a female composer: 9th-century nun, poet, and hymnographer Kassianí (Kassía).

Cappella Romana is the world’s leading ensemble in the field of medieval Byzantine chant. Performed by an ensemble of female and male singers, this is the first of a planned series to record all of Kassianí’s surviving works. For more information or to pre-order, visit www.cappellaromana.org/kassiani/

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Now that Holy Week is over and we have celebrated Easter Sunday, the Church plunges headlong for the next 50 days into the Season of Easter. Yes, the celebration of Christ's Resurrection is just getting started! This Sunday is known as "Divine Mercy Sunday." It always occurs on the Octave of Easter (that is, the eighth day of Easter).

In today's Gospel, Christ appeared to His disciples and revealed his wounds in his hands and feet—erasing the doubt of even Thomas, who declared He would not believe Christ had risen from the dead until he could personally see and feel Christ's wounds. (Incidentally, this is where the phrase "doubting Thomas" comes from.) It is quite remarkable that, although inwardly Christ was fully healed and whole again, he chose to keep those physical scars as further proof of his suffering and dying on the cross for our sins.

Thankfully for us, Christ never gives up on his promises! Fast forward nineteen centuries when Christ appeared to Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska and revealed to Sr. Faustina that divine mercy is the love that he has for mankind, despite our sins that separate us from him and asked for a Novena, or nine days of prayer from Good Friday through the octave of Easter to pray for these intentions. Thus, "Divine Mercy Sunday" was born. This feast day was officially instituted by Pope John Paul on April 30, 2000, on the day Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska was canonized. Unlike some other devotions, the main prayer is short and repetitive—"Merciful Jesus, I trust in you"—so thankfully there is not much to remember! The directive says that the Mercy should be said at the 3:00 pm hour—which coincides with the crucifixion of Christ on Good Friday. Special "plenary indulgences" (extra forgiveness from temporal sin) are said to be granted to those who recite the Divine Mercy prayers, take part in Mass, confession or other suitable actions on Divine Mercy Sunday, although many devout Catholics also make these prayers a part of their daily devotions. For those who like to sing, one of the most popular Divine Mercy Chaplets is a contemporary version by Catholic singer, Donna Cora Gibson. Tune in to any Catholic radio station to hear it—especially at the 3 pm hour.

Suffice to say, any commemoration of Divine Mercy Sunday will go a long way towards healing the "scars" of sin in our life—and draw us closer to the divine healer—Jesus Christ. Yes, the season of Easter has just begun!

—Maria Manzo

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

GOD'S MERCY IS FOR EVERYONE, ALWAYS

As we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, Pope Francis reminds us that “Jesus said to St. Faustina, ‘be merciful to everyone always’ (December 24, 1937). To everyone: let us not think only of our interests, our vested interests. Now, while we are looking forward to a slow and arduous recovery from the pandemic, there is a danger that we will forget those who are left behind. The risk is that then we may be struck by an even worse virus, that of selfish indifference—a virus spread by the thought that life is better if it is better for me, and that everything will be fine if it is fine for me. It begins there and ends up selecting one person over another, discarding the poor, and sacrificing those left behind on the altar of progress.

“The present pandemic reminds us that there are no differences or borders between those who suffer. We are all frail, all equal, all precious. May we be profoundly shaken by what is happening all around us: the time has come to eliminate inequalities, to heal the injustice that is undermining the health of the entire human family! Let us learn from the early Christian community described in the Acts of the Apostles. It received mercy and lived with mercy: ‘All who believed were together and had all things in common; and they sold their possessions and goods and distributed them to all, as any had need’ (Acts 2:44-45). This is not some ideology: it is Christianity.

“In mercy, we find proof of how God loves us. God gives his entire self, always, freely, asking nothing in return. The salvation God offers us is the work of God’s mercy and is for everyone. No human efforts, however good they may be, can enable us to merit so great a gift. God draws us to himself and makes us one with him. We too can love others as God has loved us, giving our lives for one another. Whoever experiences divine mercy, is impelled to be an architect of mercy among the least and the poor. Let us receive mercy and let us give mercy.”

St. Faustina's Mission

Polish born Helena Kowalska (1905–1938), was the third of ten children. When almost twenty, she entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy, became Sr. Maria Faustina and devoted her life to the message of God's mercy. She traced her spiritual experiences with Christ in her diary, Divine Mercy in My Soul. She was canonized in 2000.

St. Faustina's life-long dedication to God's mercy was the direct result of her mystic encounter with Jesus, who gave her this mission. "Today I am sending you with my mercy to the people of the whole world. Speak to the world about my mercy. Let all mankind recognize my unfathomable mercy. Let them have recourse to the fount of my mercy. Let them profit from the blood and water which gushed forth for them. Before I come as a just judge, I first open wide the doors of my mercy. One who refuses to pass through the doors of my mercy must pass through the doors of my justice. Mankind will not have peace until it turns with trust to my mercy."

St. Faustina's Prayer

I want to be completely transformed into your mercy and to be your living reflection, O Lord.
Help me, that my eyes may be merciful,
so I may never suspect
or judge from appearances,
but look for what is beautiful in my neighbors' souls
and come to their rescue.
Help me, that my ears may be merciful,
so I may heed my neighbors' needs
and not be indifferent to their pains.
Help me, that my tongue may be merciful,
so I should never
speak negatively of my neighbor,
but have a word
of comfort and forgiveness.
Help me, that my hands may be merciful
and filled with good deeds,
so I may do only good to my neighbors
by doing the difficult tasks.
Help me, that my heart may be merciful
so I may feel all the sufferings of my neighbor.
Jesus, I trust in you!

OUR MISSION TODAY: WITNESSING TO GOD'S MERCY

In The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis reminded us that the Church, which means each of us its members, is called to witness to the power of God's mercy to transform us and our world.

"The Church is a community of missionary disciples who take the first step, who are involved and supportive, who bear fruit and rejoice. An evangelizing community knows that the Lord has taken the initiative and has loved us first (1 John 4:19). Therefore we can move forward, boldly taking the initiative, going out to others, seeking those who have fallen away, standing at the crossroads and welcoming the outcast. Such a community has an endless desire to show mercy, the fruit of its own experience of the power of God's infinite mercy. Let us try a little harder to take the first step and to become involved by word and deed in people's daily lives, to bridge distances, to embrace human life and to touch the suffering flesh of Christ in others."

"Today there is need for people to be witnesses to God's mercy and tenderness. So many situations require our comforting witness. I am thinking of those burdened by suffering, injustice and tyranny; of those enslaved to money, to power, to success, to worldliness. We are all called to comfort our brothers and sisters, to testify that God alone can eliminate the causes of existential and spiritual tragedies. Any environment, even the furthest and most impractical, can become a place where our witness can bear fruit. There are no situations or places precluded from our Christian presence and witness. The witness that Jesus asks of us is not closed, but is open. It is in our hands."

What can each of us do today to be more merciful as Jesus was?

- Whom have I 'infected' with my faith and trust in God?
- How many people have I encouraged with my hope for a better life for all?
- How much love have I shared with those in my life?
- How might I take the first step to heal some broken relationship?
- How might I act to change in some small way the injustice I see around me?
