Furthering the Reign of God, Where All Are Welcome • April 24–25, 2021

2021 First Communicants

Instead of a single Mass, this year our young Catholics received their First Communions in three Masses, finishing this weekend. We thank catechists, Catherine Glavan, Trisha Mumm and Mary Witka, who have done such a wonderful job preparing the children for their First Communion.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

IN TODAY'S PARABLE of the Good Shepherd, we find another insight into Jesus' dream of how the world might be. Jesus is the shepherd who leads not only the flock he is currently tending, but also "other sheep that do not belong to this fold." In gathering the lost and searching for the scattered, Jesus does the work of his Father who desires that all should be found, welcomed, loved, and cherished in the family of God.

EARTH IS CALLING: TO BLESS AND BE BLESSED

Earth Day/Earth Month events and activities with Therese Fenzl

As we celebrate Earth Day you are invited to take some time to reflect, pray, plan concrete actions that arise from our concern for our planet and every living thing that dwells on it, especially the poorest and most vulnerable.

Therese Fenzl will be offering three activities beginning this weekend:

Adult faith sharing groups: 12 weekly group faith sharing experiences (approx. 30 minutes each) for adults beginning April 25. We will be basing these activities off the book, Creation at the Crossroads, which you can pick up at the Parish Office. Meetings will be held virtually via Zoom, so email Therese at tfenzl@themadeleine.edu for the link and meeting times.

More information is on our website at www.themadeleine.edu/earth-is-calling

Signing of the St. Francis Pledge at 10:00 am Mass on Sunday, April 25. We will also enjoy the beautiful Litany for the Earth. The St. Francis Pledge is so simple and yet so all encompassing.

RCIA NEWS—MYSTAGOGY

Easter Vigil was joyous! Alex and Olivia received the sacraments of initiation and are now full members of the Catholic Church. Thank you to everyone who celebrated along with us, either in person or via livestream.

During the Season of Easter, the 50 days from Easter to Pentecost, Alex and Olivia, along with their sponsors and catechists continue to gather. This period is known as Mystagogy, and as the word implies, is about the ‘mysteries’ of our faith. Our focus is on living the Paschal Mystery, the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus. This is one of my favorite times of the RCIA process since we are encouraged to discuss things like ‘Living the Beatitudes’ and ‘Catholic Social Teaching’. The conversation can get quite lively! Living as disciples of Christ was radical 2000 years ago and remains so today.

As a group, we are experiencing a transition from Zoom to in-person gatherings. It certainly seems like conversations flow much easier. I am grateful that the Old Church is available to us.

The picture shows Alex and Olivia with their sponsors. From left to right, Ashley Gjerwold (Alex’s sponsor), Alex Hows, Olivia Farnsworth, and Nancy Bowen-Hicks (Olivia’s sponsor). Thank you to Ashley and Nancy for their guidance and support this year.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we continue to learn together what it means to be the Body of Christ.

—Christi Bohmbach, RCIA Director

CELEBRATE MOTHERS IN MAY!

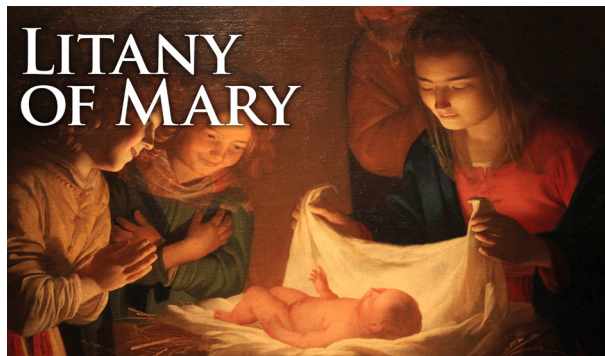

Upload mother & child photos to www.themadeleine.edu/mothers

A May tradition at The Madeleine: celebrating the Month of Mary and Mother’s Day in a special way!

Each weekend beginning May 2, we will show a slideshow of mothers and children sent in from The Madeleine Community. The photos will show both in the church at 10:00 am Sunday Mass and on our livestream.

We are starting over—all new photos!

This year, we’re making a fresh start, a blank canvas. So even if you’ve sent us a photo before, please send a new one this year. Submissions can be either a photo of mother and child (children), or a photo of mothers and their mothers. Please send us just one photo of a mother/child combo as we want to have time to show all our photos.

Please send photos by April 29

Upload your photos to our website at www.themadeleine.edu/mothers. If you have only a photo print, bring it to the Parish Office during work hours (label it with your name and phone). We will scan it and leave it for you to pick up.

Help us to honor all mothers and those from our community, as well as Mary, the Mother of God, in this very special way!

Today, we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday, where we reflect on Jesus’ care and love of us. Your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will show that you are indeed the disciples of Jesus as it will bring your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

—Mary Clare O’Brien, 503-309-7639

THIS IS MY FATHER'S WORLD

This Sunday is called, “Good Shepherd Sunday”—and is a liturgical backdrop for World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Because of its importance, the Church has designated this as an intentional time to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life. With Jesus as the model, our “Good Shepherds” are our priests.

So while our usual image of Jesus the Good Shepherd usually involves looking for that one lost sheep (something our priests do on a regular basis), this week Jesus takes it a step further—saying that the Good Shepherd also protects the flock from wolves, even if that means laying down his life to do so. In other words, at the same time our beloved Good Shepherds are looking around for the lost, they are still trying to welcome, love and cherish those left in the flock! I should mention that those of us who are not ordained and lead a ministry are considered “miniature” versions of the Good Shepherd—that nonetheless work to bring the “lost” sheep back to our own ministries, and provide spiritual nourishment and community to those within our fold.

This week we also celebrate Earth Day. While many Catholics inadvertently associate Earth Day with Pope Francis’s encyclical, Laudato Si’, Earth Day was actually begun by a US Senator in 1970 to raise environmental awareness in the United States. In the past 50 years, Earth Day has grown from 20 million to over a billion people who participate in environmental causes throughout the world on this particular day—now considered the largest secular civic event in the world.

Inspired by Pope Francis, Earth Day takes on a different meaning to us as Catholics; a day to celebrate God’s creation and an awareness that it is our responsibility to preserve it. One of the most sublime hymns that depict God’s creation is Maltbie Davenport Babcock’s “This is My Father’s World.” Babcock wrote the poem describing his frequent nature walks, telling his wife he was “going out to see the Father’s world.” His poem, which references scriptures from the books of Genesis, Kings and the Psalms, was set to music by Franklin Sheppard in 1915—the music adapted from a traditional English melody Sheppard learned as a child. The tune name “Terra Beata” means “blessed earth” in Latin—and serves as a reminder that we are blessed indeed to be living in our Father’s world!

*This is my Father’s world.
O let me ne’er forget
That though the wrong seems oft so strong,
God is the ruler yet.
This is my Father’s world:
why should my heart be sad?
The Lord is King; let the heavens ring!
God reigns; let the earth be glad!*

—Maria Manzo

NO DAILY MASS MAY 5-7

With Father Mike away at an upcoming Priests' convocation, there will be no Daily Mass at The Madeleine May 5-7.

RECYCLE YOUR TEVA SANDALS!

Your Teva sandals and flip flops have a soul of their own, and when they're well-worn and ready to retire, bring them to the parish (in the breezeway on 23rd Avenue) where—in partnership with Terracycle—we will ensure they are recycled and reborn into new things. The only caveats: Teva brand only, no shoes or boots, and please remove as much mud, dirt, and debris as you can. In honor of Earth Day, let's give new life to our old and tired friends.

HELP BEAUTIFY OUR CITY ... ONE BLOCK AT A TIME

Adopt One Block is a local nonprofit encouraging local residents to adopt and care for our environment one block at a time. Participants choose a location and commit to weekly walking the public portion of the block, picking up litter and debris, and properly recycling or disposing of the trash. Anyone, any age, can participate (when and how you do this is your choice). Here's how to become a Block Ambassador:

- ▶ Select a block anywhere in the local area you would like to adopt.
- ▶ Submit the block to the organizer at www.adoptoneblock.org
- ▶ Request collection supplies you may need
 - ▶ – trash grabber, gloves, trash bag.
- ▶ Begin weekly walks of your adopted block.
- ▶ Let us know what block you have adopted, and share your stories and photos with us at bulletin@themadeleine.edu with subject line "Adopt One Block."
- ▶ Spread the word with friends and family about how they can become Block Ambassadors too.

In Memoriam

THE MADELEINE FAMILY REMEMBERS

NANETTE KULLBERG

A Funeral Mass was celebrated for parishioner Nanette Kullberg last week at The Madeleine.

Nanette Theresa Kullberg was born July 22, 1932 in Huron, South Dakota. She passed away April 17, 2021 after a brief but brave battle with lymphoma.

If there's a single word to describe Nan, it would be "beloved." Everyone who knew her was drawn to her warmth, charm, happy disposition, intellect and humor. This was especially true of her family: her husband of 65 years, Don; her seven children, Kathy, Michael, David, Cindy, John, Tracy and Jim; and her many adoring grandchildren and great grandchildren. After growing up in South Dakota with her parents and two older sisters, Nan's family moved to Portland, where she attended the University of Portland. There she met the love of her life, Don Kullberg, two years (and one foot) her senior. After her graduation the two were married in 1956. They moved to NE Portland, The Madeleine Parish, and have lived together in the same home for over 50 years, which is still the center of family activity.

That Nan's life was filled with family is no surprise with seven children and the eventual herd of grandchildren and great grands. She was the family's heart and soul. Holidays celebrated at home were large and boisterous. She was a fabulous cook. Famous among the grandchildren for her "cheesy eggs" (which, ironically, contained no cheese). "Friday night soup" and cocktails with the grown "kids" which became a long-time tradition. Gatherings to cheer the Seahawks,

Trailblazers and U of O football. (She could yell with the best of them.)

Her other joys included: bridge club, bowling league, beach trips with the girlfriends, and volunteering at The Madeleine. Travel with her dear Don and their friends, trips to Reno, annual stays in Hawaii, winter escapes to La Quinta, a lifetime trip to Paris. Rockaway Beach, a decades-long favorite, became a second home and another favored gathering place for the generations.

Nan's faith was her core, and helped her through this difficult year of more limited time with family. Her 5'2" height belied the size of her heart. She was an unbounded fount of love. As the number of her descendants kept growing, the love and kindness she had for each and every one of them somehow managed to keep growing too. All of them held a very special place in Nan's heart. And she in all of theirs..

Please pray for Nan, her family and all the faithfully departed from The Madeleine
