Furthering the Reign of God, Where All Are Welcome • July 10–11, 2021

THE HAITIAN PROJECT GARAGE SALE IS BACK! JULY 30–AUGUST 1

Scour your garage, closets and attic! After a year's absence, The Haitian Project Garage Sale at The Madeleine is back!

The Garage Sale benefits the Louverture Cleary School in Haiti, which offers a Catholic education to children who otherwise would not be able to afford an education.

The Garage Sale is July 30–August 1, with collections in the Parish Hall accepted July 19–27.

The sale always needs volunteers, so if you want to help, contact Steve Holmes, stevholmes@shtrucking.com or 503-706-7937. More information, including detailed dates and hours will be posted in the bulletin and on our website

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

WE ARE ALL CREATED in the image and likeness of God and we are chosen by God to fulfill the purpose of the “One who accomplishes all things.” We are sent as missionaries and prophets to preach the good news by the witness of our lives. The path will not always be straight, nor will the message always be heard or welcome. But the Lord promises that as we go forth into the world, his grace is sufficient to do the work of discipleship: to preach and to heal those we encounter.

REVISED COVID-19 PARISH GUIDANCE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE

These new guidelines, approved by Archbishop Sample and effective June 30, 2021, replace all previous pandemic protocols established by the Archdiocese.

Dispensation from the Obligation to attend Mass

Effective Friday, July 16, 2021 Archbishop Sample rescinds the dispensation from the obligation to attend Holy Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation. Canon Law still allows those who are vulnerable, sick, or who have other grave reasons, to miss Holy Mass if necessary. Those unable to attend the Sunday Eucharist for such reasons are asked to honor the Lord in another way that day by watching a livestreamed Mass, praying the rosary, reading sacred Scripture, or otherwise setting aside time to be with the Lord.

General Principles—All indoor liturgical celebrations and faith gatherings are allowed to take place without capacity limitations, social distancing, sign-up systems, or segregation between those vaccinated and those unvaccinated.

- ▶ Masks may be worn but are not required.
- ▶ Implementation of these guidelines is left to the prudential judgment of the pastor.

Parish Ministry—Pastors and their staff and volunteers are encouraged to foster the life and activities of the parish with renewed enthusiasm. This applies to all faith gatherings and parish activities, including sacramental preparation programs, faith formation, bible studies and vacation bible schools.

Liturgical Practices—All previous liturgical restrictions are lifted, except for the following:

- ▶ The Precious Blood will not be offered to the faithful.
- ▶ The Sign of Peace will not be exchanged through physical contact.
- ▶ It is up to the pastor to determine if there will be a presentation of the gifts. It is up to the pastor to determine how the collection will be taken.
- ▶ Holy water may return to fonts.

Cleaning—Cleaning after Masses and gatherings is no longer required.

Ventilation—Good ventilation in churches and gathering spaces is encouraged.

Social Gatherings—Social gatherings such as coffee and donuts and wedding and funeral receptions may take place so long as sensible health precautions are taken. This is left to the discretion of the pastor, in consultation with his leadership team.

Livestreaming—Livestreaming of Masses continues to be encouraged.

PARISH LIFE

INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC?

This fall we are offering a series of opportunities to explore Catholicism. These guided discussions are intended for those who are curious about the Catholic faith and/or for those thinking about becoming Catholic. We will be looking at the treasures and gifts of our Catholic faith through prayer, discussion, and response to questions. Some of the topics we will explore are the person and teaching of Jesus, the Mass, how Catholics read the Bible, Catholic Social Teaching, Mary, and the Saints.

Time and Place: Sundays in September and October (with our first gathering on Sept. 19) at 9 am in the Old Church. While there is no obligation beyond these September/October discussions, this serves as a foundation for those wishing to continue the process toward becoming Catholic. Bring an open heart and your questions.

Want to begin now? We are happy to have you join us for our weekend Masses during the summer months (5:00 pm on Saturday, 8:00 am or 10:00 am on Sunday).

Will you join us? Let us know of your interest. Contact Christi Bohmbach at rcia@themadeleine.edu

MADELEINE BOOK CLUB

Summer is the perfect time to read a good book!

Would you enjoy opportunities to meet with others to share in genial discussion/debate over the contents of some very excellent books? If so, you are most cordially invited to join our group!

To find out what is on our agenda for the coming season and/or to be added to our email list, please contact our MBC coordinator: Gretchen Stevenson, gypsyfrau47@yahoo.com or 503-312-6834.

CATHOLIC CLIMATE COVENANT

Be the first in your family to check out Conference Information/Creighton University this week. There you will learn that Creighton and Catholic Climate Covenant are offering a FREE, virtual conference from July 13–15, 2021 for all who desire to be more effective in caring for our Common Home. Registration is required at www.creighton.edu/catholicclimate

The conference will include interactive sessions with ministry leaders in the areas of education, advocacy, creation care teams, environmental justice, youth and young adults, etc.

ADVERTISE IN THE PARISH BULLETIN

It's one of the best kept secrets and biggest bargains in the area...Madeleine Parish Bulletin Advertising. The back page of your weekly bulletin is a great place to get the word out to our parish community of your goods or services. This year has been tough on some of our local businesses, so we unexpectedly have some advertising spots available.

▶ Affordable—Starting at just $110 for the 6 months July through December ($220 per calendar year). We usually bill 12 months January to December, but will gladly accept your ad July through December this year.

▶ Versatile—Many sizes available...based on our “single” size module, you can stack it two or three high, stretch it two or three wide...whatever size you need to get your brand's message across to our readers.

▶ Relatable—Members of The Madeleine community tend to be very local to their fellow parishioners. By advertising in the bulletin, you're demonstrating that you're an integral part of our parish community.

▶ Good Company—On the back of our bulletin are some of the stalwart companies in our parish and community. Several familiar names have been with us for decades... isn't it time you joined them?

To advertise, contact Rich Hammons, Director of Communications, at bulletin@themadeleine.edu

HELP YOUR MARRIAGE

Not willing to let go of your marriage? Many couples continue to struggle in a marriage, but are not willing to give up on each other. There is hope.

Retrouvaille is a program designed to help struggling marriages regain their health. It helps a husband and a wife rediscover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. Retrouvaille is a peer ministry of volunteer couples that can help you learn the tools of healthy communication, build intimacy and heal, just as they have done in their own marriages.

For confidential information about or to register for the program beginning with a weekend on August 6-8, 2021, call 1-503-225-9191 or email: portland@retrouvaille.org or visit www.helpourmarriage.org

JOIN OUR NEW CHIME CHOIR

Do you love music? Consider joining our new “Chime Choir” at The Madeleine.

Hand chimes are...

- ▶ Accessible to play. Chimes are set up like a musical keyboard. A basic knowledge in musical rhythm or note reading is helpful, but not required.
- ▶ “Chimers” are assigned one or two individual chimes, which are not shared with one another. Because of this, it is easy to be socially distanced. Masks are optional.

- ▶ A great family music ministry—which will bring much joy and beauty to our liturgies!

For more information on rehearsals and liturgies, please contact Maria Manzo, Director of Music at mmanzo@themadeleine.edu

DOORS—THE GATEWAY TO HEAVEN

The front door of our house is oversized, painted blue and surrounded by a half circle of stained glass on either side. When you open the door, we have the words from St. Francis, “make me a channel of your peace,” surrounding the arched entrance—welcoming all who enter. And taped on the inside of door we have the following excerpt from this week’s Gospel; Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet—a reminder to us as we leave each day to do His work in our lives.

space in relief, this bronze masterpiece is considered one of the most famous works of art in the world. Moreover, through the Porta del Paradiso, some biblical stories were told to the public for the first time after many centuries. These doors have survived wars, floods, vandalism and pollution. After being dismantled in 1990 for total restoration, they were replaced with a copy. In 2012, 26 years later, the restored doors were encased in plate-glass and displayed in the city’s Museo dell’Opera dell’Duomo where they currently remain.

While you don’t need an oversized blue front door, or the magnificence of Ghiberti’s bronze doors to remind us, as Catholics we enter the gateway to heaven every time we go through the front doors of the church. It is there that we are fed by the word of God, nourished by the Eucharist, and then sent out by way of those same doors to proclaim the good news of Christ. Perhaps the song, “As Christ Is For Us,” composed by Janet Sullivan Whitaker, says it best: In the bread we share with the hungry, in the help we give to the poor, in the kindness we show to the stranger we find Christ the open door.

—Maria Manzo

In Church architecture, doors often figure prominently. Often referred to as the gateway to heaven, they symbolize Christ as THE door. The most magnificent doors I have ever seen are the bronze doors to the Baptistry of Florence (Battistero di San Giovanni), located in front of the Duomo (Santa Maria del Fiore). Called The Gates of Paradise (Porta del Paradiso in Italian), they were created by Florentine goldsmith and sculptor Lorenzo Ghiberti between 1425 and 1452. The doors portray scenes from the Old Testament, from Creation to Solomon—and are massive—measuring over 17 feet tall and weigh a total of 3 tons. Known for their vivid illusion of deep

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. From the beginning of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, members visit in pairs “two by two,” those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance. ## PARISH OFFICE COMINGS AND GOINGS

We published these announcements last week, but given the holiday weekend are reprising it this week:

Departing

James Wurzer, Business Manager

After 7 years as Business Manager at The Madeleine, James Wurzer has accepted a similar role at a parish nearer his home in Southwest Washington. During his tenure here, James has managed a wide variety of duties, chief among them as the project- and budget-management brains behind our $3.9 million restoration of The Old Church. On a day-to-day basis he has managed to bring a high degree of professionalism to all aspects of our business office, and has become quite an expert at managing and getting the most out of our aging heating systems.

Father Mike says, “James’ ability to calmly and adeptly handle nearly any situation in his path...be it an aging boiler to repair, a computer network to upgrade or even a pandemic to navigate... has put our parish on a very strong footing for years to come. I am very grateful for his professionalism and the many gifts and talents he brought to The Madeleine.”

Nadia Stickney, Bookkeeper

Like James, Nadia leaves us after 7 years of dedicated service. But unlike James, Nadia is looking forward to retirement! “Nadia has always professionally managed all of the myriad financial transactions a parish of our size requires...and has always done so with a smile on her face,” Father Mike says. “We will miss her!”

Jackie Dooris, Events Manager

Jackie Dooris leaves us after 6 years as Events Manager for a position with REL. Says Fr. Mike, “Jackie has so cheerfully and creatively managed funerals, weddings, outside auctions and everything in between. We will miss her, and her distinctive, charming laugh!”

We are grateful to James, Nadia and Jackie for their faithful service to The Madeleine and wish them well in their future endeavors.

Contact information for John, Allison and Ann are in the staff listing of our bulletin and on our website.

Arriving

John Garrow, Business Manager

A familiar name in these parts, John has been a Madeleine parishioner and minister since the 1990s, and most recently served as principal of Central Catholic High School for 10 years before retiring from that position. Prior to that, John worked 27 years as a high school teacher, coach, and administrator.

A couple weeks back, John answered the call to serve again—literally—with a telephone call from Fr. Mike, asking him to join The Madeleine community formally as Business Manager. Says John, “I have some very big shoes to fill and look forward to the challenge of learning new systems and applying the many skills I’ve acquired over the years to this new role.”

Allison Blakemore, Bookkeeper

Allison brings a widely varied background, and a delightfully lively and animated personality to her new position. Her work history started with the US Army, and ranges from service as a helicopter based EMT, to aquatic center manager, legal assistant and accounts receivable clerk. Says Allison, “I am looking forward to learning all the systems required to keep this bustling parish running smoothly, and to meeting our wonderful parishioners!”

Ann Hart, Events Manager

Ann has served as an Event Coordinator for several years, so she is familiar with our community and is a natural to transition into this new role.

As Ann tells us, “There’s so much pent-up demand for weddings, funerals, auctions and other events in our beautiful spaces...it’s going to be busy!”
