PARISH LIFE

MASKS REQUIRED AT MASSES

Vaccinated or not, please wear a mask

A reminder...due to the surge in COVID infections sweeping across our state and nation, we will abide by Multnomah County, State of Oregon and Archdiocese directives that require facemasks in all public indoor settings. This includes all Masses and other events in The Madeleine buildings, and is required regardless of vaccination status. We know it's an inconvenience; we thank you for your adherence to this request.

FAITH FORMATION

INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC?

Via Zoom • October 19, 26 & October 10, 17, 24

This fall we are offering a series of opportunities to explore Catholicism. These guided discussions are intended for those who are curious about the Catholic faith and/or for those thinking about becoming Catholic. We will be looking at the treasures and gifts of our Catholic faith through prayer, discussion, and response to questions. Some of the topics we will explore are the person and teaching of Jesus, the Mass, how Catholics read the Bible, Catholic Social Teaching, Mary, and the Saints.

Time and Place: Sunday, September

19, 26 and October 10, 17, and 24. We are moving our meetings to Zoom for the time being, so contact Christi for details. While there is no obligation beyond these September/October discussions, this serves as a foundation for those wishing to continue the process toward becoming Catholic. Bring an open heart and your questions.

Contact Christi Bohmbach at rcia@themadeleine.edu to learn more, or register at www.themadeleine.edu/faithformation (scroll to the bottom of the page for RCIA).

being, we are moving the classes to a virtual format via Zoom.

For more information, to receive our schedule or to register...and to receive the Zoom link...contact Trisha Mumm at sac-prep@themadeleine.edu.

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

FAITH IS A GIFT, But it is also a choice. Do we make God the center of our lives, or are we distracted by the material things that have become “other gods”? Do we live in such a way that our daily decisions and choices bear witness to our relationship with the Lord? Do we live in mutual faithfulness and service to spouses and family? Do we accept and follow the wisdom of the Spirit who Jesus promised would serve as our guide on this earth? In other words, does faith permeate all that we do?

PARISH LIFE

CARING FOR THE CAREGIVER

Virtually every one of us will care for a loved one at some time in our life. Though rewarding, it's not always easy. Nourish for Caregivers is for anyone juggling the challenges of everyday life, health, career and caring for an aging parent, spouse or grandparent, in town or at a distance. Nourish provides caregivers a faith perspective, as well as practical and emotional support, useful tools, and shared experience.

Nourish for Caregivers gives parishes the tools to establish a monthly caregiver ministry. Nourish for Caregivers is a complete, turn-key program which enables a lay-led team to minister to caregivers. With its faith component, Nourish for Caregivers is a pastoral and evangelization tool, bringing family caregivers into the Church and deeper into a relationship with Jesus.

The materials are available in both Spanish and English. If this sounds like something your parish would benefit from, or for more information, please contact Kelsey Bell at kbell@archdpx.org or 503-233-8399.

LOOKING FOR WAYS TO SERVE OUR COMMUNITY?

Jesuit Volunteer EnCorps, a program of JVC Northwest, facilitates fulfilling opportunities for service, community, and spiritual formation for adults 50+ who are committed to social and ecological justice. In addition to part-time volunteer service, members meet monthly online or in-person, creating spiritual community through shared reflection. Our values are rooted in the Catholic Ignatian tradition, and JV EnCorps is an inclusive and welcoming community of folks from all faith perspectives.

Learn more about what JV EnCorps service is like:

- ▶ JV EnCorps Spotlight: Patty Christopher (Bend, OR)
- ▶ JV EnCorps Letter: Jay Lyman (Portland, OR)

Program begins in September. Applications accepted throughout the year. For more info and to apply, visit www.jvencorps.org

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks "Do you also want to leave?" We must ask ourselves if we really want to hear the good news of his love for us and for others. Is the word of God able to break into our consciousness, change us and call us to hear the cries of the poor? Through your gifts St. Vincent de Paul is able to hear the cries of the poor, by assisting families, providing: food, utility, rent and other bills. God Bless You!!

MADELEINE BOOK CLUB

Summer is the perfect time for reading and relaxing! The first book scheduled for our 2021-22 reading season is Fr. Mike's choice, A Pilgrimage to Eternity, by Timothy Egan. You are invited to join us for discussion of this interesting book at our first meeting in September. For more information and/or to be added to our email list, please contact our MBC coordinator: Gretchen Stevenson, gypsyfrau47@yahoo.com or 503-312-6834.

PARISH BULLETIN ADS

It's one of the best kept secrets and biggest bargains in the area...Madeleine Parish Bulletin Advertising. The back page of your weekly bulletin is a great place to get the word out to our parish community of your goods or services. This year has been tough on some of our local businesses, so we unexpectedly have some advertising spots available.

▶ Affordable—Starting at just $110 for the 6 months July through December ($220 per calendar year). We usually bill 12 months January to December, but will gladly accept your ad July through December this year.

▶ Versatile—Many sizes available...based on our "single" size module, you can stack it two or three high, stretch it two or three wide...whatever size you need to get your brand's message across to our readers.

▶ Relatable—Members of The Madeleine community tend to be very local to their fellow parishioners. By advertising in the bulletin, you're demonstrating that you're an integral part of our parish community.

▶ Good Company—On the back of our bulletin are some of the stalwart companies in our parish and community. Several familiar names have been with us for decades... isn't it time you joined them?

To advertise, contact Rich Hammons, Director of Communications, at bulletin@themadeleine.edu

SCAM ALERT

Another email fraudulently claiming to be from Father Mike has been received by some parishioners and staff asking them to get in touch with him.

Email and text message scams such as this are proliferating not only in our Archdiocese, but nationwide.

First, the victim receives a fake email or text from a fraudster impersonating Fr. Mike saying, "I need a favor from you," or similar.

If the victim replies to the email, the fraudster sends a response asking for iTunes or Google Play gift cards or other difficult to trace/easy to redeem methods.

Each time the victim replies, the fraudster responds with even more sympathetic and urgent requests.

A few ways to know it's fraud:

- ▶ The email address is wrong. Fr. Mike's email is fathermike@themadeleine.edu. The fraud emails generally come from a gmail.com or yahoo.com address.
- ▶ The email may use bad grammar.
- ▶ Father Mike—or anyone on your parish or school staffs—will never ask you to purchase gift cards and send them the numbers.
- ▶ Also note: sometimes these emails are faked to be from other people you may know...parishioners, friends, etc.

If you are ever in doubt as to whether a request for money or assistance is legitimate, call the School or Parish office during work hours.

A versatile and historic event oasis in the heart of Historic Irvington

The Old Church

The Madeleine Hall

If you have events in the planning stages, we invite you to consider The Madeleine as your venue.

THE MADELEINE HALL

Whether dressed up for a formal gala, decorated for a dance, or setup for a professional dinner, The Madeleine Hall is our largest and most versatile space. The high, gabled ceiling adds a majestic air, but the unique configuration retains an intimate feel. The fully equipped commercial kitchen is directly adjacent for event food that needs warm up or assembly, or to cook an entire meal.

THE FIRESIDE ROOM

On its own, The Fireside Room is a warm, cozy space for meetings, talks, recitals and small banquets. It seamlessly pairs with The Madeleine Hall for larger events or as a social area or silent auction space.

THE OLD CHURCH

After undergoing a thoughtfully spectacular $4.1 million renovation, The Old Church is available for events from 20 to 200 people in a breathtaking, historic setting. This beautiful space offers modern convenience and comfort with an historic aesthetic.

ST. CATHERINE ROOM

This beautiful fellowship room, regaled with historically restored stained glass, is ideal for meetings, seminars or combined with The Old Church for larger events. Includes a sink, long counter space and refrigerator/freezer with ice maker.

From wedding receptions and retreats to auctions, recitals and fundraisers, our versatile spaces—all air conditioned—are beautiful, cost effective and include ample amenities to make your event truly special.

In Memoriam

THE MADELEINE FAMILY REMEMBERS

SYLVIA MANZO

A Funeral Mass was held for Sylvia Manzo, sister of Madeleine Music Director Maria Manzo, on Saturday, August 21 at The Madeleine.

Sylvia Nancy Manzo was born on April 29, 1948 in Bremerton, Washington. As a baby she affectionately earned the nickname “Punkie” since she was reportedly round, like a “pumpkin”—a name that she was called her entire life by close friends and family. Sylvia spent her childhood in Bremerton, Washington, where her years were filled with twirling her baton (she was the youngest Majorette to march with the High School and Olympic College Bands) and spending time with her extended family. As a second-generation of Croatian and Italian descent, Sylvia was the only grandchild for seven years—a place of honor she enjoyed. After a slew of cousins and her sister, Maria, were born, she would often exclaim jokingly, “they really rained on my parade”! Nevertheless, those years were filled with exuberant family get-togethers and Sylvia soon adapted to her role as the “matriarch” of the cousins—a bond that remained important to her throughout her life.

As a young teenager, Sylvia moved with her family to Cheney, Washington when her dad took a job at Eastern Washington University. Although she was reticent to leave her friends and extended family (mistakenly referring to it as “Chile” instead of “Cheney”), with her natural beauty, talent, and vivacious personality, Sylvia soon found her way. During these years, she amassed several beauty pageant titles and excelled as a gifted singer and actress—easily capturing the lead roles in all the high school musicals and later, in College and Community Theatre.

After graduating in Music Education from Eastern, Sylvia married Barry Buth in 1969 and had two sons, Brandon and Ryan. Sylvia always remarked that “having her sons was the best thing that she ever did”—and they were the light of her life. As the boys grew up, she was their biggest “cheerleader” and never missed a football game or a wrestling match—at times running down the sidelines or hiding under the bleachers when things got tense! Sylvia’s home was the neighborhood “hangout”, and was often filled with the boys’ friends. To this day, they think of her as their second mom!

With a zeal for teaching and a passion for kids, Sylvia’s professional career spanned 44 years. As an educator, she began in the elementary classroom, but soon found her “niche” teaching Middle School music in Spokane. A consummate perfectionist, Sylvia’s music programs were always “first class” and her choirs outstanding. Years later, Sylvia embarked on a career shift, pursued a Masters in Counseling and moved to Vancouver, Washington, where she enjoyed 19 years at Skyridge Middle School in Camas, Washington, as a Guidance Counselor. Her love of music and theatre never left, and soon Sylvia found herself as the sole director, stage and costume designer, for the annual middle school musicals at Skyridge. Because of her tutelage, many of her students were inspired to pursue music well beyond their middle school years. Upon her retirement, she was considered a “gem who leaves very large shoes to fill” by her colleagues.

Speaking of shoes... outside of music, Sylvia’s passion was undoubtedly fashion and shopping. She would dress up to go to the grocery store, and her shoe collection rivaled that of Imelda Marcos! Sylvia loved to organize her own—and others closets and never hesitated to get rid of her slightly used clothing to make room for the newest trends. She regularly became personal friends with many of the owners and managers of the stores she frequented.

As a friend, Sylvia was a “BFF” to many—she lit up the room with her smile—and was always the life of a party! She was fiercely loyal to her friends, and quick to show her thoughtfulness with an unexpected gift. To Sylvia, shopping for and wrapping the perfect gift was a special occasion—and she quite often became more excited about giving it than the person who was receiving it! And she ALWAYS responded in kind to every act of kindness with a hand-written thank you note.

Above all, Sylvia’s greatest pleasure was being “nana” to five beautiful grandchildren. She was incredibly proud of their accomplishments and would happily travel coast to coast to spend time with her grandchildren at every opportunity. In spite of her illness, she recently realized two of her biggest dreams—moving to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida to be closer to the “Florida Buths,” and being present at her first grandchild’s high school graduation in Spokane.

Sylvia will always be remembered for her beautiful smile, tenacious spirit, an unparalleled will to live, and a faith that was grounded in traditional values, respect and love. She is survived by her sons Brandon Buth (Nicole), Ryan Buth (Annie), five beautiful grandchildren (Riley, Hudson, Brooklyn, Maddox, and Grayson), her mother, Sylvia, sister Maria (Michael) and numerous cousins and extended family.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Sylvia’s name to the Ray Hickey Hospice House, 2112 E. Mill Plain Blvd, Vancouver, WA 98661.

Please pray for Sylvia, her family, and all the faithfully departed from The Madeleine
