Prayer Of Remembrance Of His Holiness Pope Francis

Ground Zero Memorial, New York • 25 September 2015

O God of love, compassion, and healing, look on us, people of many different faiths and religious traditions, who gather today on this hallowed ground, the scene of unspeakable violence and pain.

We ask you in your goodness to give eternal light and peace to all who died here: the heroic first-responders: our fire fighters, police officers, emergency service workers and Port Authority personnel, along with all the innocent men and women who were victims of this tragedy simply because their work or service brought them here on September 11.

We ask you, in your compassion, to bring healing to those who, because of their presence here fourteen years ago, continue to suffer from injuries and illness.

Heal, too, the pain of still-grieving families and all who lost loved ones in this tragedy.

Give them strength to continue their lives with courage and hope.

We are mindful as well of those who suffered death, injury, and loss on the same day at the Pentagon and in Shanksville, Pennsylvania.

Our hearts are one with theirs as our prayer embraces their pain and suffering.

God of peace, bring your peace to our violent world: peace in the hearts of all men and women and peace among the nations of the earth.

Turn to your way of love those whose hearts and minds are consumed with hatred, and who justify killing in the name of religion.

God of understanding, overwhelmed by the magnitude of this tragedy, we seek your light and guidance as we confront such terrible events.

Grant that those whose lives were spared may live so that the lives lost here may not have been lost in vain.

Comfort and console us, strengthen us in hope, and give us the wisdom and courage to work tirelessly for a world where true peace and love reign among nations and in the hearts of all.

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

WITHIN OUR SCRIPTURE READINGS today are deep, and at times, controversial questions. Jesus asks his disciples: “Who do people say that I am?” Then he asks Peter, “But who do you say that I am?” Like Peter, all Christian faiths today proclaim that Jesus is the Christ, the anointed one. Does faith alone save or does faith combined with corporal and spiritual works save us? These questions invite us to delve more deeply into the mysteries of God.

SEASON OF CREATION—TURNING TO THE BEAUTY AND MYSTERY OF THE EARTH

A series: Part 3 of 4

In Part 1, we were introduced to the Season of Creation (Sept. 1-Oct. 4, 2021), and to the ecological conversions or “turnings” outlined in Creation at the Crossroads. The first “turning” is toward God (see the article in the Madeleine bulletin for August 28-29, 2021) and the second “turning” discussed in the Sept. 4-5 bulletin is toward other people. The third “turning” in our ecological conversion is “to the beauty and mystery of the earth around us” (Creation at the Crossroads p. 90). We are invited to slow down and listen to the rhythms of Nature and to embrace the sacred presence of God in the natural world.

Every morning, my cat Sunny goes over to the neighbors’ fishpond. He sits down and looks deeply into the water. Then he puts his paw in the water and dabbles a bit. Pretty soon the neighbors’ biggest goldfish, “Jaws,” swims over to where Sunny is looking at him from above. Sunny doesn’t try to catch the fish. Instead, Sunny and Jaws contemplate each other for a while. Maybe they are wondering what it is like to live in that other elemental realm, or maybe they just enjoy each other’s presence. In any case, Sunny teaches me to practice this third “turning.”

Pope Francis, in Laudato Si, writes that St. Francis “communed with all creation, even preaching to the flowers” and that to St. Francis, “each and every creature was a sister united to him by bonds of affection” (Laudato Si, paragraph 11). This communing with creation begins by paying attention to the divine presence in all creatures (see Laudato Si Chapter 2, pph 85).

When we meet the other creatures, we are called to remember that they have value in themselves and are not just “resources” to be exploited (Laudato Si pph 33). Members of other species are subjects in their own right. It is clear that Sunny considers Jaws to be an individual, like himself, and not just prey to be chased. It is in this subject-to-subject communion that we can enter into full conversation with the cosmos.

Practicing this third “turning,” we can pray with Pope Francis, “teach us to contemplate you in the beauty of the universe, for all things speak of you” (“A Christian Prayer” at the end of Laudato Si).

PARISH LIFE

SUNDAY EVENING MASS BEGINS SEPTEMBER 26

Contemplative, Care for Creation focus • 7:00 pm, Old Church

Father Mike has announced he will begin celebrating a Contemplative Mass at 7:00 pm on Sunday evenings in the Old Church. The Mass will be focused on Care for Creation, and will include quiet, soft music, and a shorter homily. In addition, this is an ideal Mass for families to attend who go out of town on a weekend or who have other conflicts earlier on Sundays. All are welcome!

In today’s Gospel Jesus says, “If a man wishes to come after me, he must deny his very self, take up his cross, and follow in my steps.” The cross of Jesus and the crosses of his members can evangelize us: the sick, who bear illness with courage; the grieving, who hope against hope; the dying, who clearly trust in the resurrection; the suffering of our poor brothers and sisters who are hungry and homeless, but who still trust in God’s love. Is there a neighbor or friend who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent dePaul...we want to help.

FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS—PET PHOTOS WANTED!

Upload photos to www.themadeleine.edu/pets by September 28

Monday, October 4, is the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. To help celebrate, we will be playing a slideshow of pets at our Masses of October 2-3 and 9-10.

So, to have your pet included, please submit ONE of your favorite pet photos to www.themadeleine.edu/pets no later than September 28. We are starting from scratch again this year, so even if you submitted a photo last year, please submit one again this year.

RECYCLING & ADOPT ONE BLOCK NOTES

- ▶ Recycling: We collect for recycling only #6 plastic such as Styrofoam, Polystyrene, and clear Clamshell. All items must be clean and dry. No dirty materials, please. Other items we collect for recycling are handled by our partner, Terracycle, who can accept recycling with minimal residual food waste, but materials must be dry for shipping.
- ▶ Adopt One Block: Please keep in mind we can recycle fully extinguished cigarette butts, ashes, and all associated packaging. Help us collect more of this waste for recycling when you perform your weekly clean up.

Finally, our collection bins are not trash cans. Please refrain from including items not specifically mentioned (see signs with bins for what we can accept).

FAITH FORMATION

INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC?

RCIA Begins Next Week (September 19) Via Zoom

This fall we are offering the opportunity to explore Catholicism. Our guided discussions are intended for those who are curious about the Catholic faith and/or for those thinking about becoming Catholic. We will be looking at the treasures and gifts of our Catholic faith through prayer, discussion, and response to questions. Some of the topics we will explore are the person and teaching of Jesus, the Mass, how Catholics read the Bible, Catholic Social Teaching, Mary, and the Saints.

We will begin the year with Zoom gatherings on Sundays from 9:00 am to 9:50 am on the following dates: September 19, 26 and October 10, 17, and 24. While there is no obligation beyond these September/October discussions, this serves as a foundation for those wishing to continue the process toward becoming Catholic. Bring an open heart and your questions.

Contact Christi Bohmbach at rcia@themadeleine.edu to receive our Zoom link. To register, see themadeleine.edu/faithformation (scroll to the bottom of the page for RCIA).

SACRAMENTAL PREP REGISTRATION IS OPEN

Registration for First Penance and First Eucharist is open for the 2021-22 school year. Our fun and informative class series is based on concepts from the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program. Classes will begin at 9:00 am on Sundays. For the time being, we are moving the classes to a virtual format via Zoom.

For more information, to receive our schedule or to register...and to receive the Zoom link...contact Trisha Mumm at sac-prep@themadeleine.edu

CONFIRMATION REGISTRATION IS OPEN

Register before September 12

All Catholic youth registered at The Madeleine Parish or attending Central Catholic High School who wish to be confirmed in 2022 are invited to join our Confirmation Class.

Catechists Therese Fenzl, Stephanie Fernandes, Trieu Nguyen and Father Mike

will be happy to present the upcoming sacrament preparation program and answer questions. Parents and families are welcome! Registration forms and information at www.themadeleine.edu/faithformation

MADELEINE BOOK CLUB

We are sad to report that we have found it necessary to postpone our in-person meetings yet again due to the new pandemic guidelines. Fr. Mike has made the decision to move his book discussion to spring when hopefully we will all be safer gathering together as a group.

Therefore it is necessary for us to make a last minute change to reschedule Fr. Mike's gathering for March and instead read Tightrope, Americans Reaching for Hope, by Kristof and Wudunn for review via Zoom this month.

For further information or to be added to our email list, please contact our MBC ministry coordinator: Gretchen Stevenson, gypsyfrau47@yahoo.com or 503-312-6834.

CARING FOR THE CAREGIVER

Virtually every one of us will care for a loved one at some time in our life. Though rewarding, it's not always easy. Nourish for Caregivers is for anyone juggling the challenges of everyday life, health, career and caring for an aging parent, spouse or grandparent, in town or at a distance. Nourish provides caregivers a faith perspective, as well as practical and emotional support, useful tools, and shared experience.

Nourish for Caregivers gives parishes the tools to establish a monthly caregiver ministry. Nourish for Caregivers is a complete, turn-key program which enables a lay-led team to minister to caregivers. With its faith component, Nourish for Caregivers is a pastoral and evangelization tool, bringing family caregivers into the Church and deeper into a relationship with Jesus.

The materials are available in both Spanish and English. If this sounds like something your parish would benefit from, or for more information, please contact Kelsey Bell at kbell@archdpdx.org or 503-233-8399.

TRANSPORTATION HELP NEEDED

Longtime parishioners Kitt and Corrine Jordan have moved out of the neighborhood. They would love to continue coming to The Madeleine for Mass, but are in need of transportation help. If you are able to help them get here from their home near I-205 and Sunnyside Road, please contact Fr. Mike, fathermike@themadeleine.edu

SEASON OF CREATION INVITATIONS

The Spirit of God has filled the universe with possibilities, and therefore, from the very Heart of things, NEW can always emerge. —Pope Francis

During this season of creation we invite you to join us in some special time for prayer and continuing focus on care for our common home.

► Taize Prayer for Intention of Healing and Renewal of Creation • Tuesday, September 14, 6:30 pm; Old Church—Taize prayer is a form of worship involving sung chants, periods of silence, liturgical readings, and icons. We will share this prayer in the Old Church for the above intention and all intentions you are holding.

► Laudato Si' Faith Gatherings • Biweekly, Sundays at Noon beginning September 19, or Mondays at 6:30 pm beginning September 20; Zoom—After facilitating the "Creation at the Crossroads Group" I realized what support it had been to all those who shared in this weekly gathering. It became a time to support one another and grow in understanding, prayer, and action for all creation. Father Mike has made Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato Si' available to all in our parish community. I extend an invitation to join in a series focused on this encyclical. We will meet every two weeks and focus on one chapter each time we meet. There will be time for a Scripture reading, prayer, and faith sharing around the theme of that week's chapter. Email Therese for the Zoom link.

► Contemplative Mass • Sunday, September 26, 7:00 pm; Old Church—focused on Care for Creation.

► Care for Creation Rosary • Wednesday, October 7, 6:00 pm; Courtyard

We also invite you to join our parish Laudato Si' Group which meets monthly for prayer, faith sharing, action for Care for Creation. Our next meeting is on Sunday, September 29, 11:30 am. The meeting will be on Zoom; email to tfenzl@themadeleine.edu for the link.

The Old Church

The Madeleine Hall

St. Catherine Room

Fireside Room

If you have events in the planning stages, we invite you to consider The Madeleine as your venue.

The Madeleine Hall

Whether dressed up for a formal gala, decorated for a dance, or setup for a professional dinner, The Madeleine Hall is our largest and most versatile space. The high, gabled ceiling adds a majestic air, but the unique configuration retains an intimate feel. The fully equipped commercial kitchen is directly adjacent for event food that needs warm up or assembly, or to cook an entire meal.

The Fireside Room

On its own, The Fireside Room is a warm, cozy space for meetings, talks, recitals and small banquets. It seamlessly pairs with The Madeleine Hall for larger events or as a social area or silent auction space.

The Old Church

After undergoing a thoughtfully spectacular $4.1 million renovation, The Old Church at The Madeleine is available for events from 20 to 200 people in a breathtaking, historic setting. This beautiful space offers brand-new convenience and comfort with an historic 1911 aesthetic.

St. Catherine Room

This beautiful fellowship room, regaled with historically restored stained glass, is ideal for meetings, seminars or combined with The Old Church for larger events. Includes a sink, long counter space and refrigerator/freezer with ice maker.

From wedding receptions and retreats to auctions, recitals and fundraisers, our versatile spaces—all air conditioned—are beautiful, cost effective and include ample amenities to make your event truly special.
