This week we begin celebrating our Contemplative Mass at 7:00 pm on Sunday evenings in the Old Church. The Mass will be focused on Care for Creation, and will include quiet, soft music, and a shorter homily.

In addition, this is an ideal Mass for families to attend who go out of town on a weekend or who have other conflicts earlier on Sundays.

OLD CHURCH PROJECT RECEIVES AWARD

As mentioned last week, The Old Church at The Madeleine has been awarded the 2021 DeMuro Award for Excellence in Historic Preservation, Reuse and Revitalization by Restore Oregon, the state's most prestigious such recognition.

This project was a huge effort by the entire Madeleine Community, bringing forward more than 550 donors and supporters raising $3.9 million to resurrect the original 1911 church on our campus, which had fallen into disrepair. Construction was completed in summer of 2019, transforming the formerly dilapidated Old Church into a thoughtfully restored sacred space for prayer, learning, performing and community use.

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

WHAT IF ALL OF US HERE TODAY embraced the role of prophet! What if all of us listened to the cries of the poor and realized how our sins of gluttony and greed contribute to global problems! How would our world, our community, our lives be changed? These are the challenges today's readings place before us. May our minds and hearts be open to seeing ourselves in them.

Baptism

Congratulations and welcome to Alexandra Marie Plance daughter of Jeremiah and Veronica Plance, who is joining the Church through the sacrament of baptism this weekend!

In today's gospel Jesus tells his disciples: "Anyone who gives you a drink of water because you belong to Christ will not, I assure you, go without his reward." On September 27, the Church will celebrate the feast of St. Vincent de Paul. The members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul are on the front line in laboring for the poor, they are among the first to know their real needs. Have you considered answering the call to help the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

GOD'S PROPHETS AMONG US

Recently, I attended the funeral of Michael's brother-in-law in North Carolina. On the heels of losing my sister, Richard's untimely death threw us for an emotional loop. He was the Creative Director of a large Pentecostal Church in Goldsboro—and a fabulous artist. During the service, Richard's art was on full display—a series of biblical prophets painted on oversized pieces of plywood. But it was the words of an unlikely prophet that day that gave me the most comfort—that of my sister-in-law, Angie. Admittedly, when Angie declared the night before that she might want to speak at Richard's funeral, we were in disbelief. How could someone who just lost their soulmate be able to speak coherently to a crowd of people? To our surprise and surrounded by those larger than life paintings, Angie approached the podium armed with her Bible, a few notes scribbled on a piece of paper and spoke—not as a grieving widow—but as a confident prophet of Christ.

Music Notes

In Mark's gospel, the disciples are quick to pass judgement on those prophets who don't fit the mold in their eyes. Jesus reminds them that "whoever is not against us is for us," encouraging them to acknowledge and seek the unlikely prophets in their midst. Metaphorically, I am reminded of one of my favorite choruses found in the Oratorio, "Elijah" by

Felix Mendelssohn (coincidentally, one of the larger than life prophets painted by Richard). In the chorus, an angel speaks to Elijah, and directs him to come out of the cave and look for the Lord. In dramatic fashion, the chorus (Elijah) "looks" for the Lord in the most obvious places—the wind, in an earthquake, and in a fire. Finally, Elijah finds the Lord in a still, small voice—the most unlikely place of all.

By virtue of baptism, we are called by Christ to be preachers, teachers, and healers—at times considered unlikely prophets in the Church and even our world. But, just as Elijah found the Lord in that unexpected whisper, we often find our most likely prophets among us—as I did with my sister-in-law, Angie on that day.

Whether it is a blessed crucifix, a beautiful Gospel song, or a kind and compassionate heart, as Christians we are the conduit—the healing touch of Christ in today's world. And so it goes... Something happened and now I know He touched me and made me whole.

In Memoriam

THE MADELEINE FAMILY REMEMBERS

KAMI BEAULIEU

A Funeral Mass was held for Parishioner and Madeleine School parent Kami Beaulieu Saturday, September 25 at The Madeleine.

Kameron (Kami) Brief Beaulieu passed away on Sunday, March 22, 2020. She was 50.

She and her twin brother Garrett were born in Orange, California to Michael Brief and Michele Howard.

As a young girl, Kami would help out at her dad's record store in downtown Seal Beach and hang out with her friends in nearby Naples Long Beach.

She attended Wilson High School in Long Beach and focused on her education and cheerleading. She also enjoyed many boat trips to Catalina with her friends.

During her college years Kami began as an art major and then changed majors to speech communication. She attended Long Beach City College and San Diego State University.

During the summers she worked for a nursery selling plants all over the Los Angeles county area to various businesses.

After graduating from college, Kami and a friend backpacked in Europe. She also managed to secure a job as a nanny in Greece for two summers.

In 1992 she moved to Portland Oregon and continued working and making friends as well as pursuing the English style of horseback riding.

In February 1995, Kami and Mike met while volunteering at the Saint Ignatius Spaghetti Dinner. Afterward, Kami's friend told Mike that Kami was expecting his call, but this was untrue. An awkward phone call led to a first date and 2½ years later, they were married by the water in San Diego.

Kami earned her Master of Science in speech and hearing sciences from Portland State University in 2001. She specialized in the evaluation and treatment of children with cleft palate/craniofacial disorders, and pediatric and adolescent speech language development. She was part of the Cleft Palate Craniofacial Team and LEND Diagnostic Clinic at OHSU. Her educational training focused on the recruitment, placement and clinical teaching of graduate students and clinical fellows. She supervised and mentored students and clinical fellows and was passionate about fostering a legacy of child and family-centered providers. She also served as adjunct faculty at Pacific University and Portland State University.

Kami became a mother to Gillian in September 2005. Gillian later attended The Madeleine grade school and Kami served as room parent and assistant volleyball coach from third through eighth grade.

Kami enjoyed book clubs, trying out new recipes and restaurants, coffee shops, trips to Las Vegas, dance clubs, dancing at weddings, concerts, being politically informed and active, snowboarding, the ocean, but only if the water was warm, and most of all, quality time with family and friends.

Kami was predeceased by her father Michael Brief. She is survived by her husband Mike, daughter Gillian, brother Garrett Brief, mother Michele Kargman (Howard) and step father Tom Kargman.

The family has requested gifts in Kami's memory to Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America (CCFA), www.crohnscolitisfoundation.org/donate.

Please pray for Kami, her family, and all the faithfully departed from The Madeleine

A Prayer for Refugees

God of our Wandering Ancestors,
Long have we known
That your heart is with the refugee:
That you were born into time
In a family of refugees
Fleeing violence in their homeland,
Who then gathered up their hungry child
And fled into alien country.
Their cry, your cry, resounds through the ages:
“Will you let me in?”
Give us hearts that break open
When our brothers and sisters turn to us with that same cry.
Then surely all these things will follow:
Ears will no longer turn deaf to their voices.
Eyes will see a moment for grace instead of a threat.
Tongues will not be silenced but will instead advocate.
And hands will reach out—
working for peace in their homeland, working for justice in the lands where they seek safe haven.
Lord, protect all refugees in their travels.
May they find a friend in me
And so make me worthy
Of the refuge I have found in you. AMEN

The Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

SEPTEMBER 26, 2021

In encountering the diversity of foreigners, migrants and refugees, and in the intercultural dialogue that can emerge from this encounter, we have an opportunity to grow as Church and to enrich one another.

World Day for Migrants and Refugees

Today we celebrate World Day for Migrants and Refugees!

We pray for migrants, refugees, and all other strangers in our midst, that they may find strength in our concern for justice and feel the warmth of our love.

October is Respect Life Month!

Every October the Catholic Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning to the end of their lives, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life.
