WELCOME JULIE KUPERS, OUR NEW SPECIAL EVENTS COORDINATOR

After 12 years of organizing parish special events such as The Madeleine Marketplace, Crab Feed, Mardi Gras, Wine Tasting and Parish Picnic, Janeen Reilly is passing the baton to our newly hired Special Events Coordinator, Julie Kupers.

attended Niwot High School, then went on to attend The University of Colorado. After college, Julie became a flight attendant for Alaska Airlines. A job that eventually moved her to Portland, and where she met her husband Kyle. Once settled in Portland, Julie worked in hospitality and real estate until she had her kiddos. Julie has two boys Hank (2nd Grade) and Hudson (Kindergarten) at The Madeleine School.

We are excited to welcome Julie and her fresh ideas and enthusiasm. Please reach out to Julie and help her by volunteering, donating and attending the parish events, first of which will be The Madeleine Marketplace and Christmas Tree Lighting on Dec. 2. Now, more than ever we look forward to bringing our community back together to worship and celebrate together in a safe manner.

Julie has always enjoyed organizing people and events. She feels that her role on this earth is to be “a connector.” Julie tells us she is thrilled to be stepping into this role, and we’re thrilled to have her.

A little background on Julie: She was raised in Niwot, Colorado on a ten acre mini farm. She grew up riding horses, playing soccer and embracing the outdoors. She

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FAITH IS A LEAP into the unknown. It is a risk that requires trust in something beyond self. Each one of us entertains doubt on some occasion. We have moments when we feel abandoned, in exile or alone. Today’s Gospel provides a model for what we are to do in times of lonely uncertainty: Take courage, reach out and call to Jesus. Ask for what you need. Speak what is in your heart. The Lord hears and wants to do great things for us.

RCIA—COME AND SEE!

We invite you to explore the Catholic faith with us this fall. Our guided discussions are intended for those who are curious about the Catholic faith and/or for those thinking about becoming Catholic. In October we are looking at the life and teaching of Jesus, how Catholics read the Bible, and prayer. Open to all, including those who were not able to attend our earlier gatherings.

Dates, Time, and Place

Sundays from 9:00 am to 9:50 am on October 17 and 24 in the St. Catherine Room. Follow the signs to the Old Church.

Annual St. Vincent de Paul Christmas Food Drive

The Madeleine Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be conducting its annual Christmas Food Box Drive starting November 7, 2021, through December 17, 2021.

We expect to serve 50 families with Food Boxes, and gift items for families with young children. There will be lists available for needed items. Donations can be returned to the St. Vincent de Paul collection barrel in the back of the Church. As always our parishioners have generously supported this event and we are grateful for your participation in this ministry. Thank you so much.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus asks Bartimaeus: "What do you want me to do for you?" And he answers, "Master, I want to see." Let us ask Jesus for the grace to "see" our brothers and sisters who are poor and lonely. Through your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you can show your love for our Lord and your love of your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.

— Mary Clare O'Brien, 503-309-7639

WAS BLIND, BUT NOW I SEE

This week, we are challenged to look beyond what is visible with our own eyes to that which is unseen. In Mark's gospel, the blind man Bartimaeus, scoffed by others, asks Jesus to restore his sight. Jesus, recognizing that he already sees with "eyes of faith" replies, "go your way; your faith has saved you."

The well-known hymn, Amazing Grace mirrors this week's gospel message. It was written in 1772 by Englishman John Newton, a former slave trader. Blind from sin, Newton's conversion to Christianity was prompted at sea, when he called out for God's mercy during a particularly violent storm. Saved by God's "amazing grace," Newton gave up his former life, and eventually became a popular Anglican minister and prolific composer. Amazing Grace continues to have widespread crossover appeal in both the secular and sacred worlds. Estimated to be performed 10,000,000 times annually, it has been recorded by everyone from Gospel Singer Mahalia Jackson to Johnny Cash, Judi Collins and opera singer Jessye Norman, and is heard at funerals, rock concerts and in concert halls world-wide. The meaning behind the words of this song have become as individual as the singer or the listener. Gospel singer Marion Williams summed it up by saying, "it is a song that gets to everybody."

A few years ago, Michael and I brought our good friend jazz vocalist Diane Schuur (Deedles, as she is known) to our Jazz Festival in Dubrovnik, Croatia—truly one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Now, there is a certain point as you travel the windy road from the airport to the city, that you see a view of the Old City for the first time—with its iconic red tile roofs, stone walls against a backdrop of the crystal clear Adriatic—it is truly breathtaking! And so, without thinking I said to her, "wait until we go around this corner and you see the view of the Old City"! Well, Deedles is blind and I was immediately mortified at what I said—and sad that she couldn't see the physical beauty of this city. As the week went on, I decided that the perfect gift for Deedles would be a medal of St. Blaise.

After all, St. Blaise is not only the Patron Saint of Dubrovnik (the larger than life statue is said to have protected them during the Homeland War), but even more important to a singer—the Patron Saint of Throats! I proceeded to look in every store in the city to find one with a raised outline of the Saint—closing my eyes to see what it might feel like to her. At least she would be able to remember her time in Dubrovnik—and be protected by St. Blaise! To my surprise, a couple of days later she said to me, "you are right; this really is a beautiful city—I love it here." And it was then I knew the beauty she saw was far beyond what I saw. It was in the warmth of the people, the smell of Civapcici cooking on the grill, the afternoon breeze fresh from the Adriatic, and maybe even in that little medal of St. Blaise she wore. And on that starlit night, in the open air theatre at Fort Revelin, Deedles sang—you guessed it—Amazing Grace.

Finally, one of the common themes in our liturgies the last few weeks is taken from Pope Francis' encyclical, Laudato Si'. It reminds us that we are connected to all of creation. Accordingly, we should not turn a blind eye to the destruction of our planet. Rather, like Bartimaeus, we are called to come forth with courage, to see with eyes of faith, and to work together to make positive change in our world.

—Maria Manzo

THE MADELEINE FAMILY REMEMBERS

PATRICK EDMOND SWEENEY

A Funeral Mass was held for Patrick Sweeney on Saturday, October 23, 11:00 am at The Madeleine.

Patrick fought a six year battle with congestive heart failure, chronic pneumonia and vascular dementia before his passing. We miss him terribly, but our family celebrates the fact that he is now at peace and free of pain.

Born in Portland, Oregon, he was the third child of Edmond and Florence Sweeney. He was a proud native Oregonian. Raised in a strong Irish Catholic home in N.E. Portland, he attended Madeleine and Irvington Grade Schools and graduated from Grant High School. He was honorably discharged from the Navy after six years of service and then went on to attend PSU where he earned a Masters in Speech.

In the late 1960s he married Leslie Harbert, and they were soon joined by a wonderful son, Jason.

He met Christee Johnson in 1972 and they were married at The Madeleine Church on September, 22, 1973, almost one year to the day after their first date. They resided in the Alameda District in Portland for more than 38 years and also had the joy of owning a mountain cabin and sharing a home in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico where they entertained numerous family and friends. In 2012, they decided that "one level living" would be a better option, so they purchased a condo and moved to Vancouver, Washington.

Patrick loved people and animals, spending time with friends and family, everything Irish, the color green, Ducks football and Gonzaga basketball, skiing, tennis and an occasional round of golf or horseshoes. He was proud to have served as an administrative manager in the non-profit industry for more than 45 years. Along the way, he also became involved in the "Landman" business where his favorite song became "On the Road Again." He was a proud member of the Schnee Vogeli Ski Club for more than 30 years. He also had fond memories of being a "Viking Vet" while at PSU.

He was preceded in death by both of his parents, his sister, Judy Jenny (Duncan, Patrick and Paul), his brother Mike Sweeney (Vera, Steven and Lisa) and his in-laws, Milt and Terry Johnson. He is survived by his wife Christee, son Jason Ulven (Jill, Riley and Zackary), his sister-in-law Lisa Cregan (Tom, Dermot and Niall), his brother-in-law Steve Johnson (Julie and Greer) and his "special Guy", Sean Dorsey, along with more friends and relatives than there is space to name.

For the last 8 months of his life he resided at Parkside Adult Family Home, where he was given exceptional care... he thought the staff was wonderful and the food terrific.

In his memory, the family asks that you make a contribution to Parkside ADF, 6101 Texas Dr., Vancouver, WA 98661 or Peace Health Hospice of Vancouver who provided special care to both Patrick and Christee in his final days.

Please pray for Patrick, his family, and all the faithfully departed from The Madeleine

ONE SUNDAY FOR THE WHOLE WORLD

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday this year reflects on the theme: “We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard” (Acts 4:20) He reminds us that, “as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves,” as we “recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel.

UN DOMINGO PARA TODO EL MUNDO

El mensaje de Papa Francisco para el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones de esta año reflexiona sobre el tema: “No podemos dejar de hablar de lo que hemos visto y oído” (Hechos 4:20). Nos recuerda que “como Cristianos, no podemos guardarnos al Señor para nosotros,” como “recordamos con gratitud a todos aquellos hombres y mujeres que con su testimonio de vida nos ayudan a renovar nuestro compromiso bautismal de ser apóstoles generosos y gozosos del Evangelio.
