COVID-19 VACCINE CLINIC AT THE MADELEINE, NOVEMBER 10

Parish Hall • 3:00–7:00 pm • First, second, booster doses • Pfizer, Moderna, J & J

The Madeleine Parish is pleased to announce a COVID Vaccine Clinic in partnership with Providence Health on Wednesday, November 10, from 3:00–7:00 pm in The Madeleine Parish Hall.

At the clinic, Providence will offer Pfizer, Moderna, and Johnson & Johnson vaccines, and will be able to provide first and second doses, along with booster doses for those eligible (www.bit.ly/tmp-boost).

They also hope to be able to provide Pfizer vaccines for children 5-11 if they are able to receive inventory in time for the clinic.

No appointment is necessary, but in order for Providence to be prepared, please complete a brief survey (www.bit.ly/tmp-vaxx) by Monday, November 8. The survey asks which vaccine dose and which vaccine manufacturer you would like to receive. Please complete the survey ONCE for each person in your family who will be attending the clinic.

If you have received any vaccine doses, be sure to bring your original vaccine card to the clinic, so it can be updated with additional notations.

We are so pleased to be able to make this available to our community. Many thanks to Providence and to Camille Snyder for providing this service to The Madeleine!

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

NO MATTER HOW MANY TIMES we say we trust in the Lord, we often live as if we are in charge of our own lives and dependent only on our own talents. We are reminded today that not only are we called to live in utter surrender and dependence on our Lord, but we are to give from our very poverty to those who are in need. We must trust God will provide for us as we empty ourselves to care for the poor and the oppressed. It is a risky way to live but it is the life of faith and trust to which we are called.

MASS INTENTIONS DURING NOVEMBER

Mass intentions are a wonderful way of honoring our beloved deceased and for the living who face challenges for which they receive special graces from the offering of the Mass.

Mass Intentions Explained

Mass intentions refer to the particular purpose for which a specific Mass is offered. A Mass intention means that the sacrifice is being offered for someone living or dead. An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons such as in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (i.e. on a birthday), or most commonly, for the repose of a soul of someone who has died. By doing so, the priest applies special graces from God upon that person or intention. The tradition of offering Masses for others, particularly the dead, originates in the very early Church.

A Mass is the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross, brought forward in time to the present. At the Mass, the Holy Spirit turns the bread and wine into the actual Body and Blood of Christ. This act is not merely a symbolic gesture. Jesus died on the cross while also giving us the gift of the Eucharist for bringing the sacrifice forward in time. A Mass intention, then, allows for inclusion of a particular purpose close to our hearts. When receiving communion, an individual's participation in the Eucharistic sacrifice is complete and their intention becomes open to the fullness of the power of the Eucharist.

When faced with the death of someone close to us (even a person who is not Catholic), offering our prayers and requesting a Mass intention for the repose of their soul are more beneficial and comforting than any sympathy card or bouquet of flowers. At the time of requesting a Mass intention, the requester is asked to make a recommended donation of $10 (often referred to as a stipend). The donation does not pay for the graces from God (they are of infinite value and cannot be paid for). Rather, a stipend for a Mass intention is meant to cover expenses of providing not just that particular Mass, but the entire infrastructure related to celebrating the Eucharist. Likewise, the person requesting a Mass intention made a sacrificial offering of their own.

Requesting a Mass Intention

Mass intentions at The Madeleine may be requested through the Parish Office. At the time of requesting a Mass intention, you may select a card for memorializing the requested Mass intention.

Annual St. Vincent de Paul Christmas Food Drive

The Madeleine Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be conducting its annual Christmas Food Box Drive starting November 7, 2021, through December 17, 2021.

We expect to serve 50 families with Food Boxes, and gift items for families with young children. There will be lists available for needed items. Donations can be returned to the St. Vincent de Paul collection barrel in the back of the Church. As always, our parishioners have generously supported this event and we are grateful for your participation in this ministry. Thank you so much.

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us: "I want you to observe that this poor widow contributed more than all the others who donated to the treasury. They gave from their surplus wealth, but she gave from her want, all that she had to live on." Ask yourself "Am I only giving from my surplus wealth?" and then give your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that those who are suffering will be able to know God's love and care.

PRAYER & THE ART OF IMPROVISATION

In our home, we have a painting of the great jazz trumpeter, Miles Davis. Etched in the painting is one of his most famous quotes, “Don’t play what’s there—play what’s not there!” This quote sums up the forward-thinking Davis, whose musical innovations, in spite of his personal struggles, arguably changed the course of jazz music for almost 50 years. Looking at this painting, I am reminded that music—and prayer—is often much more than what is on the printed page.

To the untrained ear, some people perceive jazz to be just a random collection of notes played by the soloist. Don’t get me wrong. While there are some who do play that way, a good jazz musician plays within a framework of well-thought out jazz chord progressions—creating a musical picture as they improvise. Think of the standard 12-bar blues chord progression. Master this in every key and you are well on your way to understanding jazz improvisation.

Although jazz is a distinctly American genre, improvisation can be found throughout the history of Western music. Cantors in the early Church developed highly complex improvised chants based upon a framework of acceptable musical intervals (ie: never more than an interval of a fourth). When more voices were added, this melodic practice eventually led to polyphony (two or more independent lines sung simultaneously). Polyphonic music was firmly grounded in a cantus firmus (fixed chant) as the basis for its melody, although it retained an improvisatory flavor—a type of Renaissance vocal jazz. Later, composers in the Baroque period experimented with a figured bass—a kind of musical shorthand for keyboards—where a bass line was written out with accompanying numbers (representing musical intervals) written below the note. Similar to today’s pop lead sheets, this kind of notation allowed for improvisation by the performer and paved the way to structured, yet virtuosic personal expression.

If you think about it (and I have), it is not just music that reflects the art of improvisation—it is also prayer. In this week’s gospel, Jesus warns to beware of the scribes who, “as a pretext, recite lengthy prayers,” in a vain attempt to demonstrate their spiritual superiority and false generosity. In the end, their hyperbole resembles more a random collection of notes rather than substantive prayer.

So just as in Mark’s gospel Jesus illustrates to the disciples how NOT to pray, we also look to scripture for instructions on HOW to pray. Saint Pope John Paul II recognized, “We have to learn to pray: as if we were learning this art ever anew from the lips of the Divine Master himself, like the first disciples: ‘Lord, teach us to pray!’” (Lk 11:1), The prayer that Jesus taught was, of course, the Our Father. Much the same as a 12-bar blues or a figured bass, the Our Father (a prayer of adoration, repentance, thanksgiving, and intercession) can provide the spiritual framework for creating your own improvisatory prayer. And while there is no wrong way to pray (unless you behave like the aforementioned scribes in Mark’s gospel), consider adding some meaningful improvisation to your prayers this week. In other words... “Don’t pray what is there—but pray what is not there.”

Refresh the Dream. Replace the Turf!

Even though the auction event has ended for 2021, you can still help by funding our paddle raise for new turf on the Field of Dreams!

The Madeleine Field of Dreams needs a refresh! After 15 years of kids running, kicking, sliding, dodging, and wrestling, the original turf has been completely worn down and is far beyond its intended lifespan. Just as a previous generation of parents, parishioners and friends invested years ago, we need to maintain what has been entrusted to us.

A Brief History of the Field

Back in the 1960s, the entire field was paved in asphalt. Then in the early 2000s a group of devoted Madeleine parents and parishioners had an ambitious, seemingly unattainable dream: replace the cracked, slippery, crumbling, knee-skinning, clothes-tearing, bruise-inducing asphalt playground and create a multi-use field our community could be proud of.

The entire community gathered together...parents, grandparents, parishioners, alumni and friends. They raised money, they donated professional services, they got grants and foundation donations... and they turned that broken-down asphalt patch into a green, fun, beautiful oasis: the Field of Dreams. Their investment of time, talent and treasure made possible the many activities our kids enjoy on the field today: recess, gym class, CYO practices, Jogathons, school field days, epic kickball tournaments, and so much more.

The Field of Dreams is the backyard of our community, where kids drift in to burn off energy before homework and parents chat along the sidelines. Many teens who graduated from The Madeleine return to the field on weekends just to hang out or for extra practice time.

And now, in a time when our children must be physically distanced from one another, the Field of Dreams is where they get a "brain break" to run and reset so they have the capacity to learn.

Our Team Goal

Whether this is your child's last year at The Madeleine or their first, it is time to come together. Regardless of whether you're paying it forward or investing in your future, here are the stats you need to know so we can reach our goal together:

- ❖ Thanks to steady field rental fees through the years, we're starting with a nest egg of $60,000.
- ❖ The Field of Dreams Replacement Project is estimated to cost $170,000 (including complete turf replacement and maintenance for the first few years).
- ❖ Our goal is to raise at least $90,000 during the paddle raise, with the remaining balance being raised through generous donations from the larger community.

Fifteen years ago, The Madeleine community dreamt big and built the field that our children and the entire community enjoy today.

Refresh the dream. Replace the turf!

If you're attending the auction, raise your paddle high. If you are not, donate today at www.themadeleine.edu/turf

The Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

National Vocations Awareness Week

The Catholic Church in the United States will celebrate the 45th annual National Vocation Awareness Week from November 7-13, 2021. During this week, dioceses across the United States will hold events to foster an appreciation for vocations and pray specifically for those discerning a call to ordained ministry and consecrated life.

In his message for the 58th annual World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis offered St. Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model for vocational discernment. "Amid all these upheavals, [St. Joseph] found the courage to follow God's will. So too in a vocation: God's call always urges us to take a first step, to give ourselves, to press forward. There can be no faith without risk. Only by abandoning ourselves confidently to grace, setting aside our own programmes and comforts, can we truly say "yes" to God," he said, and exhorted the Church to look to St. Joseph as an "outstanding example of acceptance of God's plans."

Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
