

THIS WEEK AT THE MADELEINE

Furthering the Reign of God, Where All Are Welcome • July 16-17, 2022

As published in last week's bulletin, The Madeleine's Centennial Rose Garden and Courtyard have been recognized as Saint Kateri Habitat Sites. Thursday morning was the dedication ceremony. The Saint Kateri Habitats Program inspires the restoration and management of homes, yards, gardens, parishes, schools, farms, parks, forests, rivers, and wetlands as healthy habitats for people and wildlife.

FEAST OF ST. MARY MAGDALENE— CONCERT IN THE COURTYARD

Saturday, July 23 • After 5:00 pm Mass • Free of charge, all are welcome

Please join us Saturday, July 23, after 5:00 pm Mass for our first Concert in the Courtyard, as we celebrate the Feast of St. Mary Magdalene. Enjoy a glass of wine and fellowship with some light jazz music followed by light classical favorites. Madeleine musicians Michael Kissinger (clarinet), Terry McGraw (piano) and Maria Manzo will perform, as well as musical colleagues Victoria Racz (oboe) and Rebecca Towers (flute). Round out the evening by hearing (and singing) such standards as "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" and "What a Wonderful World." The concert is free and open to the public. All are Welcome!

THE HAITIAN PROJECT GARAGE SALE DONATION DROP-OFFS BEGIN MONDAY

Scour your garage, closets and attic! Get your shopping shoes on. It's nearly time for The Haitian Project Garage Sale at The Madeleine!

The Garage Sale benefits the Louverture Cleary School in Haiti, which offers a Catholic education to children who otherwise would not be able to afford an education.

The Garage Sale is July 29-31, with collections in the Parish Hall beginning July 18, 9:00 am-3:00 pm.

The sale always needs volunteers, so if you want to help, contact Steve Holmes, steveholmes@shtrucking.com or 503-706-7937. More information, including detailed dates and hours, at www.themadeleine.edu/haitian

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

WHAT SHOULD WE DO when the divine comes into our lives? God may come unexpectedly, in the guise of a stranger, or through a familiar face. Above all else, we are called to be welcoming people. Today's readings reflect ways of welcoming others. How would you describe your way? When you recognize God in your life, how do you respond?

PARISH LIFE

SEEKING RCIA TEAM VOLUNTEERS

RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is the process through which the Catholic Church welcomes newcomers. For those familiar with the process, you are likely aware of the role of Catechist or those who 'Break Open the Word' during our early dismissals. The RCIA Team does so much more, and we are currently looking for individuals with the following gifts:

► Sponsor—A sponsor journeys with one of our seekers through the year, exercising the gift of hospitality, attending our Sunday morning gatherings, and praying for them and supporting them as needed. Whether it has been a few years since you were a sponsor or this is a new ministry for you, we welcome you!

► Supporter—Every year we have two or three individuals who step forward to support our seekers in a unique way. Our supporters attend most of our Sunday morning gatherings, contributing to the conversation and sharing their experiences as a Catholic. No need for a degree in theology, just an open heart and a willingness to participate.

► Companion for an event or ministry—Will you volunteer to invite one of our seekers to a special liturgy, event, or ministry? For instance, would you invite one of our seekers to sit with you and your family for the All Souls Service of Light? Will you invite them to join you at your table for the Crab Feed?

► Intrigued, but not sure? Let's have coffee and talk!

You may be young or not so young, a 'cradle Catholic' or new to Catholicism. Your unique experience, an open heart and mind, and a willingness to serve, are the qualifications you need. Let us know of your interest in being part of this ministry by contacting Christi Bohmbach at rcia@themadeleine.edu

We look forward to hearing from you!

FAMILY PROMISE: HELP HOUSELESS FAMILIES

Family Promise of Metro East helps children and their families experiencing homelessness achieve sustainable independence through a community-based response. Our vision is a community where all families have equitable access to housing and the chance to build a better future.

The Madeleine will be serving as a support congregation for Ascension Parish as they host homeless families at their facility in August. Volunteers are needed as evening hosts, dinner preparers and overnight hosts. Training for this ministry with our Ascension Parish partners will be occurring in mid-July.

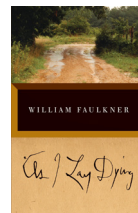

For more information contact Joe or Donna Wujek at 509-520-6729 or josephwujek@gmail.com

Sign up through our ministry at www.themadeleine.edu/familypromise

BOOK CLUB NEWS

MBC cordially invites you to join our group of enthusiastic readers. We will be meeting for our first summer session next week, Tuesday, July 19 @ 6:30 PM in the St. Catherine Room to discuss As I Lay Dying by William Faulkner.

For more information please contact our ministry coordinator Gretchen Stevenson, 503-312-6834 or gypsyfra47@yahoo.com

GUY ALLEN SELECTED AS NEW EVENTS MANAGER

We are pleased to introduce Guy Allen as the new Events Manager at The Madeleine, responsible for booking and overseeing outside events on campus. Guy is from the Pacific Northwest and attended school in Southern California before settling with his family in Portland. Two of his children attend school at The Madeleine and he loves being a part of the community. When not working as the Event Manager, Guy enjoys spending time outside, traveling with his family, and has yet to find a real hobby.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus affirms that to be a disciple we must also sit at his feet and listen to him. St. Vincent de Paul taught that it is only in prayer that we can give selfless loving service to those who are poor. This week, please say a special prayer each day for the poor and forgotten in our parish.

LITURGICAL HOSPITALITY

When Michael and I bought our current home, one of our main goals was to have a place that was suitable for entertaining—one where everyone would feel welcome. The truth is, we love to have people over—whether it is to share a Thanksgiving meal, a glass of wine on the deck, or a large, festive party. Our gatherings invariably include a song or two in the piano room, where our guests are known to belt out a tune or two—as they have spilled over into our foyer, up the staircase, or from the open loft above. It is surround sound at its finest! Add to that a home gallery of artwork filled with color, music and life and it makes for an atmosphere where everyone feels welcome. More often than not, our guests feel comfortable enough to search for an extra glass in the cupboard, open another bottle of wine, play a tune or two on the piano, and generally make themselves at home.

Here at The Madeleine, we go to great lengths to welcome everyone into our liturgical home. How many times have the aesthetics of our beautiful church grounds drawn people into our worship space? And then once inside, an atmosphere of hospitality is apparent in a smile or “hello” from parishioners, the words Fr. Mike speaks, even sharing wine and cheese after Mass—The Madeleine never fails to live up to our theme song, “All are Welcome.”

In our worship, singing is a time when everyone can participate in the act of liturgical hospitality. How so? Singing together invites others to share their voices and actively participate in song—in itself an act of hospitality.

The marriage of sacred music and hospitality were inextricably linked in the reforms of Vatican II. Espousing the language, “full, active and conscious participation,” the liturgies went from the Latin language to the Vernacular, and Sacred Music was geared away from the elaborate motets sung by a highly trained Schola Cantorum, to more congregational singing that everyone could participate in. In 1967, the Second Vatican Ecumenical Council followed with a document that explained more fully the role of Sacred Music in the Church. In the document Musicam Sacram (Instruction on the Music in the Liturgy), the Council exuberantly promotes actively singing the entire liturgy while at the same time laying out a strategy for how to achieve that ambitious task. The bulk of the document discusses varying degrees of singing in the liturgy—a type of musical and liturgical hierarchy outlining what parts of the liturgy to sing—with the ultimate goal of achieving greater participation in singing. In some fashion, this hierarchical approach to congregation singing are the Gospel’s version of Martha—that is, in this document the Church is worried more about the rubrics of what to sing and when then the physical act of just singing. Conversely, as a congregation, we are much more like Mary—the more exuberant one participates in singing, the likelihood those around you will feel welcome—and will likewise do the same.

Like Mary and Martha, in our liturgical hospitality we are called to both pay attention to the rubrics of song as we are to participate. To that end, I would invite you attend our Music Enrichment workshop on August 3 at 6:30 pm. With a brief explanation of Church teachings, combined with a whole lot of singing, we will choose a new set of Mass Parts for our liturgies. Being part of this musical process is just one of the many ways that we at The Madeleine can further our goals of welcome and hospitality in our liturgies.
