Fifth Sunday of Lent

This Lenten season invites us to explore the meaning of life — our lives here and now and life after death. In a world where many have so little while a few have so much, we are called to embrace life as well as to ensure that precious resources are available for the most vulnerable. Mindful of the fragile balance in our earthly life, we place our faith in Christ's resurrection and the promise of life everlasting upon death.

EASTER GIVING: CAN YOU HELP?

One of our biggest collections of the year is typically Easter Sunday. Each year we budget for an Easter collection that is in addition to the Sunday collection. Some parishioners account for Easter collections in regular online or automated giving. But if you are not among those who do, we'd very much appreciate if you would consider an additional Easter gift.

We have three easy ways for you to help:
▶ Envelope—If you have an Easter envelope, mail to the parish office or drop it off, or bring it to any Mass you may be attending.

▶ Online—Visit our online giving page at www.themadeleine.edu/easter-giving, where you can click to our secure online payment site.

▶ Electronic Transfer—If you are making stewardship donations via electronic transfer, contact My Schoning in our business office to arrange an additional payment.

Thank you for your loyal support.

DISCERNING CATHOLIC: FAITH WILL SUPPLEMENT OUR LACK OF SENSES

We sang the Tantum Ergo in benediction of the Sacred Host standing in Adoration upon the altar. I've always loved this hymn, even in Latin. Yet despite the time-bending rise and fall of this lovely chant, as I stumbled through the "ooms" and "too-ees" of a language described by linguists as being "dead," I couldn't help but ask myself, "what am I singing, really?"

As it turns out, if you plug the lyrics into Google Translate as individual words, the Tantum Ergo quickly falls apart: only/therefore/sacrament/we will worship/falling forward... and so on to hymn's end. The lack of homogeneity isn't surprising, given the mechanics of the software. Instead of melody, we arrive with single elements of the hymn, sturdy bricks hinting of something beautiful if only we can properly assemble them. I entered the lyrics again, typing them line by line, to see if the translation software would contextualize meaning from words placed in relation with one another. The clarity of the result astonished me. I give it to you here with only minimal grammatical changes to ease the mechanics of the translation software:

So the only mystery/we will worship, bowing/the ancient lessons/giving way to a new ritual/Faith providing supplement/to the lack of senses.

Reader: forgive me if you think me dense, but to my eyes it's as if the robes were stripped from the Missal's English translation, laying bare the essence of the hymn. Resurrection begins with endings: Christ is the journey. Everything we presume to know gives way, must give way, if we're committed to the constant search for understanding, faith feeding us, compelling us to a deeper love in Christ, who comforts us as pilgrims struggling on the road.

The Discerning Catholic Ministry urges you to join us in this pilgrimage on Monday evening, March 27, from 6:30 to 8:00 pm in the St. Catherine Room in the Old Madeleine Church. If you'd like more information, or would like to join us via Zoom, contact Dan O'Brien at discerningcatholic@themadeleine.edu or by phone at 503-206-2843.

BOOK CLUB EVENING WITH FR. MIKE

Our group is currently reading With God in Russia, by Walter Ciszek, SJ. Fr. Mike will be leading our discussion the 28th of this month, and you are invited to join us as we review this great book. “Chosen and loved by God, we are called to live “as is fitting among the saints” (Eph 5:3), to clothe ourselves with sentiments of goodness, humility, magnanimity, bearing the fruits of the Spirit.”

The Gospel today challenges us to see and believe the signs of grace in our lives: joy, peace, forgiveness, mercy and kindness. Last month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was assisted 20 families, providing food plus $330 in gift cards for produce and dairy, $1,000 for utilities and $872 in rental assistance.

RCIA NOTES OF WELCOME— LAST DAY FOR NOTES IS HOLY THURSDAY

Help us deliver a warm Madeleine welcome to our RCIA Candidates—Teresa, Kristen, John, and Claire—by writing a short Note of Welcome to each of them. A few words to let them know you are praying for them means so much. You can also share your RCIA experience or why you chose to become Catholic (or stay Catholic). Please return your notes and cards to the basket located on the Information Table at the back of the church.

LENTEN RICE BOWLS

Each Lent, Catholic families across the country unite to put their faith into action through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Through CRS Rice Bowl, families learn about how our sisters and brothers across the globe overcome hardships like hunger and malnutrition, and how through Lenten alms, we have the power to make the world a better place for all.

Rice Bowls are available in the church beginning Ash Wednesday. Please be generous during Lent, then return them to the church on Holy Thursday.

LENTEN FASTING & ABSTINENCE

From the Archdiocese: Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition,

ARCHDIOCESE OF PORTLAND IN OREGON

Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

Members of the Eastern Catholic Churches are to observe the particular law of their own sui iuris Church. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection. Archbishop Sample has granted a dispensation from the obligation of abstinence on Friday 17th March, 2023, the optional memorial of St. Patrick.

Palm SUNDAY

JESUS' TRIUMPH & TRAGEDY IN JERUSALEM

Lent concludes with Holy Week when, like the early Christians, we prepare for Easter by an intense recollection of the final events of Jesus' life: his triumphal entry into Jerusalem (Passion or Palm Sunday), his Last Supper (Holy Thursday), his crucifixion and death (Good Friday) and the discovery of his empty tomb and the experience of his resurrection (Easter).

Holy Week begins with the Palm Sunday commemoration of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem that climaxed with a great public demonstration of acclaim. In a prophetic sign mocking the triumphant victory procession of a military messiah on horseback, the humble messiah Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey while people joyfully strewed palm fronds on his path (Mt 21:1-9; Mk 11:1-10; Lk 19:28-40).

OUR PALM SUNDAY LITURGY

Some of the Church's earliest Holy Week practices date back to ancient celebrations in Jerusalem. Around the year 388, Christians processed with the bishop from the Mount of Olives to Jerusalem bearing palm and olive branches.

Our Palm Sunday celebration continues this practice as palm fronds are blessed and the Gospel account of Christ's entry into Jerusalem is proclaimed. Then follows a joyous procession into the Church sanctuary for the eucharistic liturgy.

The main Gospel for Palm Sunday is the account of the passion or suffering and death of Jesus taken in a three year cycle from Matthew, Mark and Luke (John's Gospel is read on Good Friday).

This juxtaposition of joyful palm waving and the stark reality of Jesus' crucifixion sets the tone for the roller coaster of emotions that the drama of Holy Week evokes in us. As we wave palms and recall the triumph of Jesus' final entry into Jerusalem, and then hear the Gospel stories and confront the tragedy of his passion and death, we are invited to enter more deeply into our own connection to Jesus and God's salvation struggle of good over evil, of life over death.

PALM SUNDAY HISTORY & TRADITION

Palm Sunday (first known as Pasha) originated in the Jerusalem Church around the late third or early fourth century. Ceremonies consisted of prayers, hymns, and sermons as people moved through the numerous holy sites within the city. At the last site, the place of Jesus' ascension into heaven, the clergy would read the biblical account of Jesus' Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem. Then as evening approached, the people would return to the city reciting: "Blessed is He that comes in the name of the Lord" (Matthew 21:9). By the fifth century, the celebration had spread as far as Constantinople. It wasn't until the sixth and seventh centuries that the ritual blessing of the palms was added. A morning procession replaced the evening one and by the eighth century, the Western Church was celebrating Dominica in Palmis or "Palm Sunday."

Palm Sunday is also known as Passion Sunday in recognition of the beginning of Holy Week and Jesus' final journey to his crucifixion. Falling on the sixth Sunday in Lent and the Sunday before Easter, Palm Sunday is celebrated in all major Christian churches—Roman Catholic, Protestant, and Orthodox.

Today, many Palm Sunday traditions remain much the same as those celebrated in the tenth century. In the Catholic tradition the faithful may receive palms during the liturgy. These palms will be blessed by the priest making them "sacramentals." For this reason, palm leaves taken home must be treated reverently with some making a small palm cross for family members to wear or display during Holy Week. The proper disposal of these palms must be carried out respectfully. Customarily, they will be returned to the Church before the following year's Ash Wednesday, burned and used for ashes. The other way to properly dispose of the palms would be to either burn them or bury them. Palm leaves are not to be discarded with the trash.

HOLY WEEK WITH MATTHEW

A Journey to the Heart of our Faith

During Holy Week each year, we enter most deeply into the foundation of our faith—the Christian mystery of the death and resurrection of Jesus. As we revisit the events of that final tumultuous week in his life, we are plunged by memory and ritual into the mystery that not only revealed and defined the meaning of his existence, but also reveals and defines the meaning of our own. His story is our story, and what happened to him is the pattern for what is happening and will happen to us.

There are four different Gospel versions of that final week. This year, we concentrate on Matthew's formulation of the meaning of the Christian mystery of Jesus' death and resurrection. In chapters 21-28 of his Gospel, Matthew reveals that the path of Jesus' life moves from his public ministry of preaching, teaching and healing in service to God's kingdom through his death on the cross at the hands of his hostile opponents to his resurrection to new life by God's power. This mystery is the formative pattern that identifies the meaning of his life and ours.

COULD YOU NOT WATCH ONE HOUR WITH ME?

A Reading Plan for Holy Week

This Holy Week, set aside one hour each day to be with Matthew as he reveals his understanding of the mystery of Jesus' life, death and resurrection to you. Each day, find a quiet place and time to use your Bible to read the following passages from the Gospel according to Matthew:

Palm Sunday	Chapter 21	Triumphant Entry to Jerusalem & the Temple
Monday	Chapter 22	Final Questions from Opponents
Tuesday	Chapter 23	Final "Woes" & Warnings
Wednesday	Chapter 24-5	Jesus' Final Teaching Discourse to Disciples
Holy Thursday	Chapter 26	The Last Supper & Night trial
Good Friday	Chapter 27	The Roman Trial & Crucifixion
Easter Vigil	Chapter 28	Jesus' Resurrection & Final Commission

Here is your King

What kind of a King are you, Jesus? You do not enter the Holy City to receive the honors reserved to earthly kings, to the powerful, to rulers. You enter to be scourged, insulted and abused, to receive a crown of thorns, a staff, a purple robe: your kingship becomes an object of derision. Help me follow your example.
