Furthering the Reign of God, Where All Are Welcome • April 15-16, 2023

EASTER VIGIL CELEBRATION!

During the Easter Vigil last weekend, Teresa, John, and Kristen made their Profession of Faith and became our newest sisters and brother in the Catholic family of believers. Claire joined them as they received the sacrament of Confirmation. Congratulations! Please introduce yourself when you see Teresa, John, Kristen, and Claire.

Thank you to all who wrote Notes of Welcome to our RCIA candidates. Your response was heartwarming. We sorted well over 100 notes and presented them to our new Catholic sisters and brother at the Easter Vigil. Thank you again for taking a moment to welcome our candidates and share a little of your Catholic faith journey.

Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

Believing was a challenge in the early church, just as it is now. The first Christians struggled with how to understand the ongoing presence of Jesus. They came to know that they needed to be signs to others—to witness to and demonstrate peace, forgiveness and mercy. We have not seen him, but we have seen signs of his presence in others. Perhaps more importantly, others must see signs of his presence in us. Presence is mysterious and profound. When we experience it, we are called to pay it forward as we have received it.

PARISH LIFE

CELEBRATE MOTHERS IN MAY!

Upload mother & child photos to www.themadeleine.edu/mothers

A May tradition at The Madeleine: celebrating the Month of Mary and Mother's Day in a special way!

Each weekend beginning May 6-7, we will show a slideshow of mothers and children sent in from The Madeleine Community. The photos will show both in the church at all Masses and on our livestream.

We are starting over—all new photos!

This year, again, we're making a fresh start, a blank canvas. So even if you've sent us a photo before, please send a new one this year.

Submissions can be either a photo of mother and child (children), or a photo of mothers and their mothers. Please send us just one photo of a mother/child combo per family grouping, as we want to have time to show all our photos.

Send photos by May 2

Upload your photos to our website at www.themadeleine.edu/mothers

BISHOP PETER SMITH TO CELEBRATE CONFIRMATION MASS

We are pleased to welcome Bishop Peter Smith on April 30, as we celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation at our 10:00 am Mass. At that Mass, we will welcome 40 Confirmandi from The Madeleine plus 10 from Immaculate Heart.

MILESTONES

Baptism

Congratulations and welcome to Waverly Reese Hall and Berkeley Elise Hall, children of Reed and Brittany Hall, who joined the Church through the sacrament of baptism on Saturday!

“Our wounds can be passages, openings that, in imitating the wounds of the Lord, allow God's mercy to enter. His grace changes our lives and makes us artisans of #peace and reconciliation.”

DIVINE MERCY

OUR GOD, RICH IN MERCY

Mercy is one of God's most characteristic attitudes toward us. "God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ" (Ephesians 2:4-5). So it was most appropriate when Pope St. John Paul II in 2000 renamed the 2nd Sunday after Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday when he canonized the Polish nun and mystic St. Faustina Kowalska, who was particularly devoted to Divine Mercy.

God's Mercy in the Bible

In the Old Testament, mercy identifies a complex Hebrew idea describing God's special covenant love (Hebrew, hesed). God's mercy includes loyalty, dependability, trustworthiness and an eagerness to help when situations turn bad. God's desire to be in a covenant relationship with us keeps God alert to our cries for help and eager to deliver us from whatever separates us from God (sin). Mercy is not just the response felt toward those who are suffering, but even more God's fierce covenant attachment to be with us and save us. Like a loving Father or Patron of a family, God is an especially generous benefactor who lavishes gifts (Greek: charis, Latin: gratia) on the covenant people. These gifts are not distributed because of the people's merits, but strictly out of God's freely-given favor or mercy.

Jesus Reveals God's Mercy

In the New Testament, Jesus is the face of the Father's mercy and reveals God as a Father who never gives up until he has forgiven the wrong and overcome rejection with compassion and mercy. Jesus offered a new vision for life in the covenant community, which he called the kingdom of God. He proclaimed God as king: the heavenly patron or benefactor who has mercy on us and generously gives us what we need. So Jesus stressed that our basic response is giving thanks (Greek, eucharist) for God's gifts and the task of sharing them with others. He reminded us that mercy is not only God's action, but as God's children we are called to show mercy because mercy has first been shown to us.

BEING BEARERS OF MERCY

“As we can see in Sacred Scripture, mercy is a key word that indicates God’s action towards us. God does not limit himself merely to affirming his love, but makes it visible and tangible. Love can never be just an abstraction. By its very nature, it indicates something concrete: intentions, attitudes and behaviors that are shown in daily living. God’s mercy is his loving concern for each one of us. God feels responsible; that is, God desires our wellbeing and wants to see us happy, full of joy and peaceful. This is the path which the merciful love of Christians must also travel. As the Father loves, so do we God’s children. Just as God is merciful, so we are called to be merciful to each other. Mercy expresses God’s way of reaching out to the sinner, offering him a new chance to look at himself, convert and believe. God’s forgiveness knows no bounds.

We need constantly to contemplate the mystery of mercy. It is a wellspring of joy, serenity and peace. Our salvation depends on it. Mercy: the word reveals the very mystery of the Most Holy Trinity. Mercy: the ultimate and supreme act by which God comes to meet us. Mercy: the fundamental law that dwells in the heart of every person who looks sincerely into the eyes of his brothers and sisters on the path of life. Mercy: the bridge that connects God and humanity, opening our hearts to the hope of being loved forever despite our sinfulness.”

— Pope Francis
Misericordiae Vultus (April 11, 2015)

POPE FRANCIS’S PRAYER TO BECOME BEARERS OF MERCY

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees God.

Show us your face and we will be saved.

You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy:
let us be your visible face in the world.

Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so we, with renewed enthusiasm,
may bring good news to the poor,
proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed,
and restore sight to the blind. Amen.

—Pope Francis

St. Faustina Prayer

(Polish born Helena Kowalska (1905–1938), was the third of ten children. When almost twenty, she entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy, became Sr. Maria Faustina and devoted her life to the message of God’s mercy. She traced her spiritual experiences with Christ in her diary, Divine Mercy in My Soul. She was canonized in 2000.)

I want to be completely transformed into your mercy and to be your living reflection, O Lord.
Help me, that my eyes may be merciful, so I may never suspect
or judge from appearances, but look for what is beautiful in my neighbors’ souls
and come to their rescue.
Help me, that my ears may be merciful, so I may heed my neighbors’ needs
and not be indifferent to their pains.
Help me, that my tongue may be merciful, so I should never speak negatively of my neighbor, but have a word
of comfort and forgiveness.
Help me, that my hands may be merciful and filled with good deeds, so I may do only good to my neighbors
by doing the difficult tasks.
Help me, that my heart may be merciful
so I may feel all the sufferings of my neighbor.
Jesus, I trust in you! Amen.

Faustina’s Mission

St. Faustina’s life-long dedication to God’s mercy was the direct result of her mystic encounter with Jesus, who gave her this mission. “Today I am sending you with my mercy to the people of the whole world. Speak to the world about my mercy. Let all mankind recognize my unfathomable mercy. Let them have recourse to the fount of my mercy. Let them profit from the blood and water which gushed forth for them. Before I come as a just judge, I first open wide the doors of my mercy. One who refuses to pass through the doors of my mercy must pass through the doors of my justice. Mankind will not have peace until it turns with trust to my mercy.”
