

THIS WEEK AT THE MADELEINE

Furthering the Reign of God, Where All Are Welcome • June 24–25, 2023

THANK YOU CAROL AND FR. MIKE

Before they depart The Madeleine campus, we take one last opportunity to thank Fr. Mike Biewend and Carol Glasgow for their service here.

Carol stepped in and gracefully guided our school through unprecedented difficulties with the pandemic, and led with her conscience these three years.

Fr. Mike for 15 years taught us—both through words, and actions—what “all are welcome” really means.

A few words on a page don't really do justice for everything they've done for our students, parents, parishioners and community. But please accept our sincere gratitude for your inspired, dedicated, faithful leadership. We will miss you both.

FR. CARLOS PIEDRAHITA

TO CELEBRATE MASSES THIS WEEKEND

Please welcome Rev. Fr. Carlos Piedrahita, P.S.S., who will speak at all the Masses on behalf of Cross Catholic Outreach which was founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in America and the priests and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Central and South America. Please be generous in your response to Fr.'s appeal. Brochures will be provided if you wish to support this worthy Catholic ministry.

About Fr. Piedrahita

Father Carlos Piedrahita was ordained in 2013 for the Archdiocese of Hartford, CT. He joined the Diocese of Tyler, Texas. He was born in Medellin, Colombia. Before beginning his seminary studies, Fr. Carlos earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration and a Master's in Strategic Management of Costs and Finances at EAFIT University in Colombia. He studied Philosophy at the University of St. Thomas, Houston, TX and completed a Master's in Divinity at St. John's Seminary in Brighton, MA. He is a candidate for a Sacred Theology License in Spirituality at Boston College, where he is writing his thesis on the Humanity of Christ in the works of St. Ignatius of Loyola and St.

Teresa of Avila. He also received training as a Director of Spiritual Exercises and Spiritual Director at St. Beuno's Jesuit Spirituality Centre in North Wales, United Kingdom. He has served as a parochial vicar at the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Waterbury, St. Paul Church and St. Augustin in Glastonbury, the Torrington Catholic Cluster, and St. Matthew Church in Forestville; as parish administrator of St. Mary Church in Newington; and as an assistant Master of Ceremonies of the Archdiocese. Fr. Piedrahita is currently a member of the faculty of Theological College, The National Seminary at The Catholic University of America in Washington, DC.

Twelfth Sunday of Ordinary Time

SUFFERING IS REAL, even for those who are called by God. The prophets, the disciples, the early Christians often paid a price for responding to the call. We may understand this more readily in times of persecution or political unrest or observe it in other faith traditions. Even choosing to live a Gospel life may overwhelm us. Despite the paralyzing feeling of fear, Jesus often said: “Don't be afraid.”

PARISH LIFE

DISCERNING CATHOLIC: THE STILL, SMALL VOICE

In the village of Egton Bridge, the two of us rested roadside perched on a dry-stone wall, grateful for the lush shade of ash and elm and the chance to take a load off tired feet. We shared the last crumbs of ginger biscuits, sipped from our water bottles, and studied the map. A mile and a bit more and the day was done.

Not long after we stowed our gear, pushed off the wall, shouldered our packs, and stepped onto the lane that would lead us out of the village, the eagerness to push on overcoming the desire to rest. Perhaps driven by the thought that we may never again return, we cast a final glance back over our shoulders. Barely two dozen paces up the road we'd soon leave behind stood a small stone church. Saint Hedda's, the first Catholic Church we had encountered in fifteen days of walking.

Pushing past heavy oak doors, we were enveloped by solitude and stillness. Suspended above the altar, the red sanctuary candle burned steadily and brightly in its lamp, its luminous presence outstripping the sunlight streaming through stain glass windows. Not thunder or fire but a still small voice, I thought, feeling simultaneously embraced and pierced through the heart. We sat for ten or fifteen minutes, the two of us in silent contemplation, then quietly departed, invigorated despite the weariness in our limbs.

In our secular world, it's easy to get distracted, caught up in circumstance, focused on the attributes of the world surrounding us. It's easy to forget, even as apostles, that God is present. Not in the drama of the world but in the quiet that we sometimes must work hard to create, that the presence burning inside us can shine and light the path for others to follow.

If you'd like to be part of this discussion, Discerning Catholics meets on Tuesday, June 27 in the Fireside Room. Please join us as we share and support each other on our apostolic journeys. For more information, reach out to Dan O'Brien at discerningcatholics@themadeleine.edu

LAUDATO SI' GATHERING FOR JUNE

Please join us June 25, 11:30 am, in the St Catherine Room for our monthly Laudato Si' Movement gathering, as we share silence, Lectio Divina and news and discernment for effective action to protect our common home from climate change. For more information visit www.laudatosimovement.org or contact Bill Hunter, wjhunterjr@gmail.com

LOST & FOUND

We have a small collection of items that have been left behind on campus. If you are missing something, please contact us at the office 503-281-5777. Unclaimed items will be donated to The Haitian Project.

PETER'S PENCE

Next week is the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. Envelopes in the church vestibule, or donate online at www.themadeleine.edu/second-collections

BOOK CLUB NEWS

In mid July, we will begin our 2023-24 reading season with Spirit of Fire: The Life and Vision of Teilhard de Chardin, by Ursula King. We cordially invite you to join our group of enthusiastic readers for discussion of this excellent book. For more information about membership, please contact our MBC ministry coordinator Gretchen Stevenson, 503-312-6834 or gypsyfra47@yahoo.com

REDISCOVER YOUR MARRIAGE

Retrouvaille simply means “rediscovery.” The program offers the chance to rediscover yourself, your spouse, and a loving relationship in your marriage. Retrouvaille is not a spiritual retreat, not a sensitivity group, not a seminar, not a social gathering. Retrouvaille is for any couple who would like to rediscover their marriage and improve communication. Visit helpourmarriage.org for testimonials, confidential information or to register for the August 25-27, 2023 in Canby, Oregon or email portland@retrovaille.com or call 503-225-9191.

MADELEINE SAFETY & SECURITY COMMITTEE MEETS ON JUNE 28

The Madeleine Safety & Security Committee's next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, June 28, from 7 to 8 pm, in the Fireside Room. Appropriate COVID precautions will be followed to ensure the health and well-being of everyone in attendance.

The Madeleine Safety & Security Committee serves in an advisory capacity, supporting the efforts of the school and the Pastoral Council to provide a safe and secure faith experience. The Committee is currently developing a series of seminars for parents, offering information and guidance on how to provide for a safe and secure online experience for your child.

If you're interested in taking part in this effort or one of the many other tasks the Committee undertakes, new members from diverse fields and backgrounds are always welcomed. Your knowledge and experience helps to enrich our discussion and broaden our vision in our efforts to provide for the safety of our Madeleine School children, parents, and parishioners. If you're interested or are looking for more information, please contact Dan O'Brien, Safety & Security Committee Chair, at safety@themadeleine.edu or visit our web page, www.themadeleine.edu/safety

ABOUT OUR RECYCLING PROGRAMS

The Madeleine participates in a number of recycling programs through the support of the company, Terracycle. Terracycle embraces the model of manufacturers selecting packaging for their products should bear a greater responsibility for recycling the materials (especially hard-to-recycle materials) rather than placing the burden on the end consumer. Terracycle negotiates with manufacturers to encourage them to voluntarily pay the costs of recycling their packaging materials. Because the programs are voluntary, some participants are periodically added and some are occasionally dropped. That is why you may notice changes in our flyer and also in the recycling center. You can always find the latest list of items we collect for recycling at www.themadeleine.edu/terracycle. The most current flyer can be downloaded at any time and placed in a prominent place in your home.

Thank you for your enthusiastic participation in this year-round recycling opportunity. Collectively, we have recycled 252 pounds of materials with Terracycle! Questions: dmaurer@themadeleine.edu

WANTED: PHOTOS OF YOUR GARDENS

Upload to www.themadeleine.edu/gardens by July 12

Help us celebrate the dual Liturgical Feasts of St. Kateri and St. Mary Magdalene here at The Madeleine by submitting photos of your gardens! These will be shown during the Gathering Hymn at Mass the third and fourth weekends in July.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha (July 14), is known as the patroness saint of Ecology and the Environment, as well as Indigenous People. Because of The Madeleine's commitment to care for God's creation, we are recognized as Oregon's first St. Kateri Habitat Site—embodying the spirit of St. Kateri through the caretaking of our beautiful grounds.

Our "official" patroness is St. Mary Magdalene (July 22) – the patron saint of converts and women, and a legendary example of God's mercy and grace. She was there at the foot of the cross when Jesus died—and said to be the first to encounter the risen Christ in the garden. It is fitting that St. Mary Magdalene first thought Jesus was the "gardener." For Christ is the master gardener—bringing forth the first fruits of the Resurrection and cultivating new life in all who believe.

More information to come on these celebrations, which will culminate on Saturday, July 22, after the 5:00 pm Mass.

Honoring Creation

When the days of creation came to completion, “God looked at everything he had made, and he found it very good,” the Book of Genesis states. The moon, the sun, the earth, the water, the land, everything that moves and lives in the air or on the land, including humankind, was completely fashioned, and in God’s eyes, it was very good!

This ancient story also tells us that humankind has greater responsibility than any other creature when it comes to cherishing and caring for the earth. Made in God’s image, we are not given the earth to exploit but to stand in authority over it on God’s behalf.

When you shop, talk about how things are packaged.

Pope Francis’ encyclical, Laudato Si’ (Praise be to You) invites all of humanity to become conscious and active in caring for our common home. It is from Mother Earth that we receive all we need for life—our food, the water that replenishes us, and the air that we breathe. Distressed that we have neglected care of creation, the Holy Father observed that the earth “is among the most abandoned and maltreated of our poor” and called on us to work together to shape the future of our planet.

In our lives, how can we honor creation? Care begins at home. Start by looking at how you use natural resources. Even young family members can monitor how much they use water, for example. Discuss how leaving lights on and keeping the heat high affects fuel consumption in your home. What could your family do to use less energy? Will using more blankets at night help? Brainstorm!

Cutting back on waste is also kind to Mother Earth. Less refuse means smaller landfills. Be rigorous about recycling what you can, including bottles, cans, and paper. Can you give up prepackaged small water bottles in favor of reusable sippers? When you shop, talk about how things are packaged, and consider buying products that have less cardboard or plastic. Are there items you can borrow or rent rather than buy? Or toys and sporting equipment that you can give to others, so that they will buy less?

Families can discuss and share ideas on ways to care for creation.

Using our voices is one of the most powerful ways we care for creation. We can share ideas for how to reduce, reuse, and recycle in our schools and parishes. We can challenge others to avoid littering or to turn off the water if it’s running nonstop. We can educate others on issues and how to impact them by doing such things as planting milkweed to support rebuilding the monarch migration or hanging bat houses to protect vulnerable bats. God created the sky, and the sky is the limit in how we can become good stewards of the great gifts God has given us!
