MATTHEW 11:28

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

This weekend we celebrate Catechetical Sunday when we commission and bless all catechists in our parish and school. We thank them for their service to our faith community and for modeling true discipleship. This year's theme is "Come to me all you who labor and are burdened." Please join us as we bless and pray for our catechists...including our parish school teachers, catechists for RCIA, First Penance, First Eucharist and Confirmation...and all others who help in formation of faith in our children, youth, adults and community.

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

TODAY'S READINGS address an all-too-familiar piece of advice that is easier to talk about than to do: Forgive. We know from experience how hard it is to forgive and how powerful it is to be forgiven. Forgiveness is not usually our first response to real or perceived hurts or injustices, and it may require our commitment to live as totally new people in Christ. But, boundless forgiveness may be the greatest gift we can ever give one another — and ourselves.

ADORATION: PRAY FOR CARE FOR CREATION

Dear Jesus, your powerful presence in the Blessed Sacrament on an altar of adoration is a window into your creation of every part and person in your dazzling universe.

Your Earth, Lord, is so beautiful, but also filled with misery for so many forced to live in truly wretched poverty in the slums of rich cities. Pope Francis has the world's poorest in mind in his September prayer intention. As Christians worldwide celebrate this Season of Creation, Francis asks us to pray for those "living on the margins of society in inhumane life conditions; may they not be overlooked by institutions and never considered of lesser importance." Lord, as we look at the image of your broken body on the cross while adoring you in the Blessed Sacrament, stir in us not only a desire to help all those broken in body and spirit, but also a willingness to pray and work against decisions by governments and businesses that damage creation, and crush the hope of millions to share the wealth and happiness God made for all to share.

Tuesday Adoration begins after 8 am Mass, ends at 2 pm

The challenge in today's Gospel is to forget how others have behaved toward us and to look to God's way of loving and forgiving. Our focus must be on God. Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul...we want to help!

LET JUSTICE & PEACE FLOW— SEASON OF CREATION 2023

September 1–October 4, 2023

On this third Sunday of the Season of Creation, we are reminded to not let our prophetic call turn into anger or vengeance against others. The call to be patient, non-judgmental, and forgiving extends to all interconnected dimensions of “integral ecological conversion:” environmental, economic, and social.

The season runs through October 4, the Feast of St. Francis, who is the patron saint of ecology in many traditions. On October 1, we will have a Season of Creation Gathering in the parish Courtyard after 10:00 am Mass.

September is filled with special op

As we return to Mass each weekend, we are looking to include some of the “extras” we’ve had in the past...including the weekly use of our video screens for Breaking Bread references, videos and song lyrics. But we need help running them! This is a very important ministry, as the screens help to enhance our worship experience.

TIPS FOR GREEN LIVING

Shea butter is amazing

Beauty product manufacturers have managed to brainwash us with the tagline “Because you’re worth it,” but are all these synthetic skin care products really good for us? They can build up and cause damage over time. Avoid BHT and BTA, p-phenylenediamine, dibutyl phtalate, phtalates and others.

Shea butter is a natural skin moisturizer. If you find organic and fair trade products too expensive, just remember that you apply less, so the jar will last longer.

World Car Free Day, Sept. 22

The first means of transportation for humankind was by foot. Many Biblical characters traveled on foot: Moses, Elijah, Jonah, the Apostles. Down through the centuries, many pilgrims have travelled to Jerusalem and Compostella. Like the disciples on their way to Emmaus, they have met God on their path.

Let us rediscover the value of walking during World Car-free Day (September 22). If you are unable to walk, would you be able to carpool with others?

SEASON OF CREATION—TURNING TO THE BEAUTY AND MYSTERY OF THE EARTH

A series: Part 3 of 4

In Part 1, we were introduced to the Season of Creation (Sept. 1-Oct. 4, 2021), and to the ecological conversions or “turnings” outlined in Creation at the Crossroads. The first “turning” is toward God (Madeleine bulletin September 2-3) and the second “turning” discussed in the Sept. 9-10 bulletin is toward other people. The third “turning” in our ecological conversion is “to the beauty and mystery of the earth around us” (Creation at the Crossroads p. 90). We are invited to slow down and listen to the rhythms of Nature and to embrace the sacred presence of God in the natural world.

Every morning, my cat Sunny goes over to the neighbors’ fishpond. He sits down and looks deeply into the water. Then he puts his paw in the water and dabbles a bit. Pretty soon the neighbors’ biggest goldfish, “Jaws,” swims over to where Sunny is looking at him from above. Sunny doesn’t try to catch the fish. Instead, Sunny and Jaws contemplate each other for a while. Maybe they are wondering what it is like to live in that other elemental realm, or maybe they just enjoy each other’s presence. In any case, Sunny teaches me to practice this third “turning.”

Pope Francis, in Laudato Sí, writes that St. Francis “communed with all creation, even preaching to the flowers” and that to St. Francis,

“each and every creature was a sister united to him by bonds of affection” (Laudato Sí, paragraph 11). This communing with creation begins by paying attention to the divine presence in all creatures (see Laudato Sí Chapter 2, pph 85).

When we meet the other creatures, we are called to remember that they have value in themselves and are not just “resources” to be exploited (Laudato Sí pph 33). Members of other species are subjects in their own right. It is clear that Sunny considers Jaws to be an individual, like himself, and not just prey to be chased. It is in this subject-to-subject communion that we can enter into full conversation with the cosmos.

Practicing this third “turning,” we can pray with Pope Francis, “teach us to contemplate you in the beauty of the universe, for all things speak of you” (“A Christian Prayer” at the end of Laudato Sí).

Pope Francis’ new environmental exhortation to be released on Oct. 4

Pope Francis will release a follow-up document on the environment on Oct. 4, providing an update to his 2015 encyclical Laudato Sí, On Care for Our Common Home — a landmark letter that offered a rallying cry for global action in the fight against climate change.
