

THIS WEEK AT THE MADELEINE

Furthering the Reign of God, Where All Are Welcome • January 12–14, 2024

GUEST PRIEST, JANUARY 20–21

Next weekend, we will welcome Fr. Jerry Hackenmueller from Unbound, an international development organization founded by lay Catholics and grounded in the Gospel call to put the needs of the marginalized and vulnerable first.

About Fr. Hackenmueller—“I love the opportunity to help people on a one-to-one basis in all aspects of ministry.”

As a priest of the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis, Father Hackenmueller not only served as a pastor in his home diocese but also in Venezuela. Spending 11 years in Venezuela, he came to treasure the culture of Latin America. He applied his work to the Spanish-speaking communities of St. Paul-Minneapolis.

INTERESTED IN LEADING OR JOINING A LENTEN FAITH SHARING GROUP?

The Season of Lent will soon be upon us. Once again we are forming small faith sharing prayer groups.

Using guided materials and questions, prayer groups usually meet weekly during the Lenten season in homes, on The Madeleine campus or on Zoom. They provide an outstanding opportunity to get to know and share with other parishioners, and to deepen your Lenten experience in Christ. If you are willing to lead or participate in a small faith sharing group this year or have questions, please contact Dave Albertine via email: davea51@gmail.com

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE CALLED, and how should we respond? Today we hear two powerful stories about God’s call and those who heard it. In both stories, the call comes without warning, offers no explanation, and requires openness and risk from the ones called. It is safe to assume that we, too, will be called over and over again. When, where, how and why remain unknown. But we can also assume that God is behind it. The rest is up to us.

ADORATION: CHILDREN LEAD US TO JESUS

In a January 6 blog for the National Catholic Register, Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle writes about her 3-year-old daughter suddenly slipping mom's hand after Mass, and racing back to the church. Mom quickly caught her girl, so desperate to receive Holy Communion. The child grew calm only after mother said she would receive Jesus when she was older. O'Boyle then tells the story of St. Peter Julian Eymard disappearing when he was 5. His frantic sisters found him in the church, up on a stool near the tabernacle, saying, "I am here listening to Jesus." As he told us, the childlike lead us to God.

Tuesday Adoration begins after the 8 am Mass, ends at 2 pm.

Wine Tasting Rescheduled

New Date: Saturday, September 7

As you may remember, we postponed our annual summer Wine Tasting to this winter. And as we get closer to the date, we're hearing from folks that they'd really prefer a traditional Wine Tasting, outdoors in the parish courtyard.

So, that's what we'll do. We've chosen a new date: Saturday, September 7.

If you purchased a ticket for the original August 2023 date, we'll contact you and ask your preference, whether to carry your ticket to the new date, request a refund, or donate the ticket price to the parish.

More information to come, in the bulletin and at www.themadeleine.edu/wine

In the Gospel today, Jesus asks "What are you looking for?" Often, we are looking for happiness in very selfish ways, but we find that when we look for ways to make others happy, it is then that we truly become happy. As you give your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

In Memoriam

THE MADELEINE FAMILY REMEMBERS

BERNIE FAGAN

Funeral Mass Friday, January 19, 1:00 pm

A Funeral Mass will be held for parishioner Bernie Fagan on Friday, January 19, 1:00 pm at The Madeleine.

“People may forget what you said, or what you did, but not how you made them feel.” Bernie Fagan had an amazing talent for making people feel good, feel loved, and feel the joy that he oozed every day of his life. He could walk into any room or onto any pitch and instantly the mood lifted, and smiles came across every face. Bernie’s infectious nature to always be positive and on the lookout for something fun to do made everyone want to be his buddy.

Bernie was born to play soccer - and to coach soccer. Starting out on the Youth Team for his beloved Sunderland (England), it was evident that Bernie was meant to be a professional footballer. Eventually, Bernie made the decision to leave England and head to the United States to play in the NASL. Bernie played for several teams before landing in Portland to join the Timbers. He told numerous stories of those years and the great fun he had as a professional athlete in America.

Bernie coached college soccer at Warner Pacific for 26 years and started summer soccer camps. Being the International Director for Special Olympic Soccer gave Bernie the opportunity to travel and impress upon folks the value of having quality soccer programs for everyone. The Bernie Fagan Soccer camps also included this gift of having some of his friends from Special Olympics coach at the camps; a true highlight for everyone each summer.

Along the way, Bernie accrued many awards and achievements. From being part of the FA Youth Cup team that won at Wembley Stadium or ranking Nationally while coaching Warner Pacific, nothing compared to the pride he felt when thinking about how many of his players found the joy of playing and are now either coaching or continue to play in adult leagues. Through these players, Bernie’s legacy will continue.

One of Bernie’s biggest achievements was starting Oregon Soccer Academy and bringing in many of his former college players to coach. The OSA atmosphere was amazing: Coaches, players, and parents all relishing in the environment of having an ultimately positive experience. Bernie wanted players to learn something every day, not to worry about the score at the end of the game, but to take home lessons that will last a lifetime. Hearing from so many of the players and parents of this era confirm that Bernie’s goals were accomplished.

On Bernie’s personal side, he and his wife, Susie, were simply in love with each other. Bernie and Susie were together just shy of 31 years and, yes, it was indeed filled with fun, friendships, laughter, and a loving commitment that was strong enough to outlast the toughest of years.

Bernie’s final days were quick in coming as his condition changed daily if not hourly. The family would like to extend their utmost gratitude and respect to Providence Hospice who provided such compassionate leadership in caring for Bernie in his final days. Bernie was able to pass peacefully in the home he loved with the care of his wife. “Fagan Manor” went from a place hosting fellowship and good times with friends to a place for Bernie to peacefully rest. Bernie was surrounded in love with Susie, son Ross and his wife Stacy comforting him as he transitioned to heaven.

Please pray for Bernie, his family, and all the faithfully departed from The Madeleine.
