FAMILY MASS REQUEST FROM THERESE FENZL

A note from Therese Fenzl regarding Family Mass on February 18, First Sunday of Lent. Please contact Therese by February 6.

Our liturgical season of Lent is fast approaching. At The Madeleine we are celebrating a Family Mass on the First Sunday of Lent, February 18.

Rather than identifying a particular class to assist in special ways in these liturgies, I am asking families to let me know of your willingness to help make these Sunday liturgies special for you and your children. Please contact me by February 6 if your family would be able to participate. We will be using the readings from the Children’s Lectionary:

Genesis 9: 8-15, 1 Peter 3: 18-22, Mark 1: 12-15, and focusing on the themes of the readings which are: attention to God’s words and commandments, fidelity to prayer, deepening our covenant relationship with God and others.

I invite you to also consider helping with the preparation for this liturgy and ways of engaging families. I would like to work towards creating a Family Liturgy Committee which would assist with me in the creation and planning of these liturgies.

Peace and blessings to you,

Therese Fenzl
Director of Spiritual Ministries tfenzl@themadeleine.edu, 510-918-1805

DEEPEN YOUR LENTEN EXPERIENCE BY JOINING A FAITH SHARING GROUP!

Sign up by February 7 • Zoom or in-person groups available

Once again we are forming small faith sharing prayer groups. Using guided materials and questions, prayer groups usually meet weekly in homes, in the parish or on Zoom during the Lenten season. They provide an outstanding opportunity to get to know and share with other parishioners, and to deepen your Lenten experience in Christ. Sign-up sheets are available in the back of the church. Please sign up by February 7!

If you have questions, please contact Dave Albertine: davea51@gmail.com

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

TO THOSE WHO SUFFER, words (and actions flowing from them) really do matter. In today’s readings, God hears suffering and heals the brokenhearted. That is what Jesus was about in his ministry. That is what the disciples and all his followers have always been about. That is what we, too, are called to be doing. Hearing, preaching and living the Gospel are ultimately about life, love and healing. There are as many ways to do this as there are committed Christians.

PARISH LIFE

CELL PHONES & CHILDREN, BEST PRACTICES

February 8, 7:00-8:30 pm presented by Liberty House Prevention Team.

This training combines factual information of the risks to our children's mental health, and usable tools that you can implement to safely navigate the digital world with your family. Participants will learn through child-focused activities how our self-worth can be influenced by devices and how external factors can affect what we do online. Other Best Practice items discussed in this training include: boundaries and why we need to set them, modeling healthy behaviors early on, apps to be aware of, creating your own family digital media contract, and the 5 questions to ask your child when they go online.

About the facilitator:

Liberty House is the Child Abuse Assessment Center serving Marion and Polk counties, in Oregon. The Prevention Department provides trainings and education to the community to keep children safe.

School Families: 1.5 school service hours will be granted for attending the training. The training will be held in the Parish Hall. This training is for adults who are parents or other caretakers of children. Please register for the training at: www.bit.ly/4a0l0Bo

MADELEINE BOOK CLUB

Are you a book-worm? Would you enjoy opportunities to meet with other parishioners and friends to share your thoughts about the contents of some very excellent books? If so, we invite you to join us at future discussion sessions. The book we have selected for February is The Postcard, by Anne Berest. For details and/or to be added to our email list, please contact our MBC ministry coordinator: Gretchen Stevenson, gypsyfrau47@yahoo.com or 503-312-6834.

ADORATION: JESUS' FAVORITE PLACE TO BE

In her poem "I Will Remain with You", St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein) portrays God's boundless, never-ending, never-failing love for each soul He creates. The saintly poet rejoices in her belief that "The innermost chamber of the human soul/ Is the Trinity's favorite place to be." There, she tells her Savior, "Full of love, you sink your gaze into mine/ And bend your ear to my quiet words/ And deeply fill my heart with peace." Listening with the same love, Jesus awaits us at Mass and in Adoration.

Tuesday Adoration begins after the 8 am Mass, ends at 2 pm.

THE MADELEINE IS HIRING: EVENT COORDINATORS

Part-time opportunity • Flexible hours

The parish is looking to hire Event Coordinators to assist with use of event rental spaces. Responsibilities include set up and take down of event spaces, maintaining relationships and professionalism with clients, and overseeing the responsibilities of dishwashers and bussers. We are looking for someone who is personable and can maintain a high attention to detail in a fast-paced environment. Hours are flexible and are on an "as needed" basis. Apply or information: My Schoning, mhoang@themadeleine.edu

In the Gospel today, we find that Jesus would rise very early before dawn and go to a deserted place to pray and then he went out to preach and to heal. Please pray for the poor and suffering, knowing that you are bringing the love and peace of Jesus to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

TIPS FOR GREEN LIVING

Beauty product manufacturers have managed to brainwash us with the tag line “Because you’re worth it,” but are all these synthetic skin care products really good for us? They can build up and cause damage over time. Avoid BHT and BTA, p-phenylenediamine, dibutyl phthalate, phthalates and others.

Shea butter is a natural skin moisturizer. If you find organic and fair trade products too expensive, just remember that you apply less, so the jar will last longer.

STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH AT HOME

Jesus calls his followers to love others as he loves them. Inspired by this call, Christians have shown his love through works of mercy such as visiting the sick and imprisoned, educating young people, and praying endlessly for others. Not only are these works of mercy directed to meet material or spiritual needs, but they are ways in which Christ draws people closer to himself.

In the Diocese of Amarillo, the diocesan criminal justice ministry answers Christ's call to visit and serve prisoners and patients confined to hospitals. Since 2004, this ministry has expanded to bring the Eucharist, Sacred Scripture, and prayer to inmates of the seven prisons and two large hospitals in the diocese. This ministry of mercy includes retreats during which inmates can encounter the love of Jesus, heal from past failures and wounds, and develop new hope for the future. Many inmates have experienced spiritual conversions that have inspired them to join formation programs and enter the Catholic Church.

The criminal justice ministry is one of many innovative outreach efforts made by dioceses supported by Catholic Home Missions. Home mission dioceses have small or widely dispersed Catholic populations, large or rugged areas of land that make it difficult to minister to the needs of the people, or economic challenges caused by poverty, unemployment, or natural disasters. Your participation in the annual Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports dioceses throughout the United States and its territories that need financial help to sustain core pastoral services and missions of mercy to those they serve.

For more information about the Catholic home missions, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

What Is a Home Mission Diocese?

Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople. Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions.
