Fourth Sunday of Lent

THIS SEASON IS GIVEN TO US for our spiritual growth and ongoing conversion. Today's readings remind us that God has shown mercy throughout history. An understanding of Israel's painful exile and God's ongoing fidelity are important for us and our own review of how God's mercy has been reflected in our personal lives. Today, we have another chance to make this story our own.

PARISH LIFE

MADELEINE BOOK CLUB

Parishioners are invited to join our members to discuss Brideshead Revisited, by Evelyn Waugh, the book Fr. Bonaventure has chosen for us to read this month. He tells us it is one of his favorites:

“I’ve revisited Evelyn Waugh’s Brideshead many times—six or more—and each time I do I have more to learn from the journey of Charles Rider, Waugh’s protagonist, as he encounters, is enamored of, and becomes part of this Catholic family. Perhaps in the telling and reading of this story, one can build for themselves a more mature ecclesiology and even find a space for themselves in the story.”

Father will be leading the discussion the evening of March 19 in the Fireside Room. For further event details, to become a member of our group, and/or to be added to our email list, please contact our ministry coordinator: Gretchen Stevenson, gypsyfrau47@yahoo.com or 503-312-6834

ADORATION: BUILD LENT’S THREE PILLARS

Adoration can help us focus on Lent’s three “pillars” of sacrifice – prayer, fasting and almsgiving – to prepare for a worthwhile Easter celebration. To improve our prayer life, Bishop Robert Barron recommends Adoration, daily Mass, reading Lenten reflections, or simply taking “five minutes of the day to pray in a conscious way.” Fasting helps us fight excesses that go far beyond our appetites: The bishop encourages us to “find that particular thing that preoccupies you too much—like screen time—and let go of it. The idea is not so much to fast for the sake of fasting, but to sense your deeper hunger for God.” Almsgiving brings us closer to the Lord’s heart through acts of generosity, kindness, and love. Bishop Barron suggests increasing tips at restaurants, or “giving away your time to someone who needs it.” Adoration can help us build all three Lenten pillars of sacrifice.

Tuesday Adoration begins after the 8 am Mass, ends at 2 pm.

MADELEINE WOMEN’S COFFEE CLUB

Purpose: To nurture friendships and foster community among the women of the Madeleine Parish.

Calling all women of the Madeleine community!

- ▶ Would you like the opportunity to get to know more women in our parish?
- ▶ Or reconnect with women you haven’t seen in a while?

Then the “Women’s Coffee Club” may be just what you’re looking for.

You are invited to join this new group for their first gathering on Monday, April 8, from 10:00–11:30 am in the Fireside Room (enter through the courtyard door). Going forward, we plan to meet on the first Monday of each month at the same time.

Come and enjoy a cup of coffee, tea and treats in an informal, casual atmosphere, as you meet with friends, both old and new.

No reservations required. We hope to see you there. All are welcome!

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES COLLECTION

This weekend is the Catholic Relief Services second collection. See insert in this week’s bulletin, envelopes in the church, or visit www.themadeleine.edu/secondcollections to support this important cause.

CATHOLIC FRIENDSHIP GROUP

Calling single Catholics ages 40 to 60 throughout the Archdiocese of Portland who are looking to grow in faith and fellowship. We meet every other week from 7:00-8:30 pm at St. Birgitta’s, 11820 NW St. Helens Rd. See our 2024 slate of topics at www.catholicfriendshipgroup.com

Join us in March! On 3/15, Fr. Clifton will present on Vatican II.

In today’s Gospel, God demonstrates great love for us by sending his Son so that we may believe in him. We demonstrate our great love for God by doing good works; reaching out to others, acting in justice and charity. Through your almsgiving you are performing a good work; far greater than you think. Know that your nickel, dime, quarter or dollar is multiplied by coins given by others to St. Vincent de Paul.

Experiencing Lent at The Madeleine

FAMILY ACTIVITIES FROM THERESE FENZL

This coming Sunday is the 4th Sunday of Lent. It used to be called Laetare Sunday. We are halfway through Lent and moving into the final 3 weeks. Laetare means “Rejoice” and we are invited to rejoice and connect with the hope which we know Easter will bring us.

“Laetare Sunday is the Church’s way of giving us a ‘shot in the arm’ as we approach the darkness and horror of the days through Good Friday and Holy Saturday. It’s an opportunity to savor and keep in the back of our minds what awaits us on Easter Sunday—the reality that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead, and that our hearts will always be filled with joy!”—Simply Catholic

How could you as a family do something, share something to add some joy to this coming Sunday?

The entrance antiphon reminds us “Rejoice . . . be joyful!”

May your family life be filled in some way with sharing in the joy our God desires for us.

Please save the date: On Saturday, March 23, at 9:00am, we are inviting you to attend a Communal Family Celebration of Reconciliation. I will be sharing more about that next week.

ARCHDIOCESE OF PORTLAND IN OREGON

LENTEN FASTING & ABSTINENCE

From the Archdiocese: Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59.

When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards. Members of the Eastern Catholic Churches are to observe the particular law of their own sui iuris Church.

If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the “paschal fast” to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection.

REPENT: A LAUDATO SI’ LENTEN EXAMEN FOR DAILY USE

As Lent begins, unfolds, and concludes, view prayer not as an abstract exercise but as a call to action.

Prayer is action that grounds our lives spiritually. Let the Creator Spirit guide you as you seek to live this Lenten season more intentionally in the light of Laudato Si.’

Each week of Lent we will publish a different passage from Laudato Si’ and a prompt for reflection.

Fourth Sunday of Lent (March 10)

“If ‘the universe unfolds in God, who fills it completely ... there is a mystical meaning to be found in a leaf, in a mountain trail, in a dewdrop, in a poor person’s face.’ The world sings of an infinite Love: how can we fail to care for it?” (Laudate Deum 65)

Reflect: God’s love for Creation is so immense that he gave his only Son so that we could have eternal life. How can you better recognize the infinite Love in the Earth and the poor? How does this help you discern your role in addressing the urgent environmental challenges of the climate crisis?

REVEAL Crist's LOVE

After years of tension between Ukraine and the Russian Federation, Russian forces began a devastating war in February 2022 by invading Ukraine. In addition to killing and wounding many, the conflict has forced millions of Ukrainians to flee the country. Many refugees went to neighboring countries in Europe, but many others came to the United States. For decades, the Migration and Refugee Services (MRS) department of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has assisted refugees fleeing wars and persecution, and in 2022 it responded to the Ukrainian refugee crisis with two initiatives to help local communities welcome refugees.

The first initiative, Welcome Circles, is a community-led program that helps local groups work together to provide financial support and connect refugees to services such as health care and education. Although Welcome Circles are locally led, they are certified, vetted, and given ongoing guidance by MRS staff or local affiliate experts. MRS's support and guidance help each Welcome Circle accompany refugees effectively during the resettlement process. As of early 2023, the Welcome Circles program already had 25 circles engaging more than 200 volunteers and had expanded to welcome refugees from Haiti, Cuba, Nicaragua, and Venezuela in addition to Ukraine.

Since 2010, MRS has led the second initiative, Parishes Organized to Welcome Immigrants and Refugees (POWIR), a program that works with select diocesan resettlement programs to empower parishes and local Catholic institutions so they can welcome and assist immigrants and refugees at the diocesan level. From May 2021 to January 2023, this diocesan support helped nearly 10,000 local volunteers, working in Catholic communities in 23 active POWIR programs nationwide, to spend more than 100,000 volunteer hours working with and on behalf of about 24,000 clients.

Funds received through The Catholic Relief Services Collection allow MRS to help victims of war and oppression begin new lives in welcoming, supportive communities through innovative initiatives like Welcome Circles and POWIR. In addition to MRS, the collection supports other Catholic organizations that aid victims of persecution and natural disasters, provide legal services to poor immigrants, and advocate for the powerless.
