

THIS WEEK AT THE MADELEINE

Furthering the Reign of God, Where All Are Welcome • May 25–26, 2024

THE MADELEINE IS HIRING!

Faith Formation and Sacramental Preparation Coordinator • Full Time

The Madeleine is seeking a Catholic who is in love with and committed to the Catholic faith, who lives a sacramental life enriched by a personal life of prayer, and wishes to join the Church's mission to share the faith with others.

Collaborating with the Pastor and other staff members, the Faith Formation and Sacramental Preparation Coordinator will foster relationships with parishioners to equip the faithful to live out their priestly ministry of evangelizing and catechizing.

The successful candidate will be

Catholic, who embraces and is able to represent the teachings of the magisterium without conflict, and who will be willing to continue to learn and grow with the Church. The position will be responsible for a variety of specific duties, from creating Sacramental Preparation programs to coordinating with The Madeleine School to involve school children and parents, and more.

For more information, including specific qualifications and how to apply, visit our website at www.themadeleine.edu/jobs

Hiring: Event Coordinators • Part Time

The parish is looking to hire another Event Coordinator to assist with use of event rental spaces. Responsibilities include set up and take down of event spaces, monitoring during the event, maintaining relationships and professionalism with clients, and overseeing the responsibilities of dishwashers and bussers, and making sure everything is taken care of when the event is over. We are looking for someone who is personable and can maintain a high attention to detail in a fast paced environment. Hours are flexible and are on an 'as needed' basis. Contact My Schoning, Business Manager, 503-281-5777 ext. 114, or mhoang@themadeleine.edu

Hiring: Dishwashers • Part Time

The Madeleine is hiring part-time Dishwashers to help out with events such as auctions, receptions, etc. Average is two or more events per month, usually evenings and weekends with an occasional weekday opportunity. For more information or to apply, contact My Schoning, Business Manager, 503-281-5777 ext. 114, or mhoang@themadeleine.edu

PARISH LIFE

SEND US YOUR CLASS OF 2024 GRADUATES!

High school graduates to www.themadeleine.edu/graduates • Due June 5

We want to recognize all Class of 2024 high school graduates from The Madeleine in our bulletin this June. Whether she or he went to our parish school or not...we want to recognize each and every one!

Visit www.themadeleine.edu/graduates and enter your students' info. If your grad's school is not listed in the menu, enter it in the "other" field.

We need to receive your Graduate's name by June 5 so we can publish in our June 9 bulletin. Thank you!

MOTHER'S DAY BABY BOTTLE DRIVE

This year, the Knights of Columbus are again doing their annual Baby Bottle Drive for Mother and Child. Mother and Child Education Center appreciates the support of The Madeleine community in helping their efforts to assist prospective and new parents with their children. Mother and Child provides no-cost pregnancy tests and connects pregnant moms and dads with resources, diapers, baby clothing, maternity clothes, and support.

Bottles can be returned after the Masses. Or you can use the QR code to make a secure contribution with either your credit card or debit card.

WOMEN'S COFFEE CLUB

Date change: Second Monday of each month

It's official! The Women's Coffee Club will meet on the second Monday of each month in the Fireside Room from 10:00 to 11:30 am. (It will no longer meet on the first Monday.) The Women's Coffee Club's sole purpose is to create a time and a place to nurture and foster friendships among the women of The Madeleine Parish. No registrations, no dues, no obligations! Just coffee (with some treats) and conversation!

Our next gathering will be Monday, June 10, from 10:00-11:30 am in the Fireside Room (enter through the courtyard door). If you would like a ride, contact Jody McDonald 360-870-5470.

ADORATION: GETS BIG U.S. NEWS ATTENTION!

Perhaps it was a Holy Spirit surprise: The apparently impossible seemed to have happened Pentecost Sunday when a major, secular news source, the Associated Press, printed a lengthy story about the start of our National Eucharistic Pilgrimage. AP writer Peter Smith explained that the Catholic pilgrims were "embarking on four routes . . . converging on Indianapolis in two months for a major gathering (our National Eucharistic Congress, July 17-21) focusing on Eucharistic rites and devotions. . . Each procession is being led by a priest holding a monstrance — typically a sunburst-patterned vessel that displays the host, or bread wafer consecrated by a priest at Mass. The Catholic Church teaches the "whole Christ is truly present — body, blood, soul, and divinity — under the appearances of bread and wine," according to the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. "The Eucharist is actually Jesus, so for us to walk with Jesus is actually a witness to our faith in a prayerful action for unity, for peace," said Tim Glemkowski, CEO of the National Eucharistic Congress, the umbrella organization for the events . . . Glemkowski said the pilgrimage is not a march and would avoid politics. "That message of unity and peace and just focus on Christ is paramount," he said."

Tuesday Adoration begins after the 8 am Mass, ends at 2 pm.

Parish office closed
May 27 in observance of Memorial Day

As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this, our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise. Your gift to St. Vincent de Paul will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God's love for them.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: HOG HAVEN

Eagle Scout service project by parishioner Luke Glavan

Volunteers needed June 17-19 • Sign up at www.bit.ly/tmp-20240526

Dear Madeleine Community,

I have been a Boy Scout for over four years, participating in outdoor activities such as campouts and hikes as well as service projects like the St. Vincent De Paul Food drive and park cleanups. One of the requirements to become an Eagle Scout, which is the pinnacle of all scouting ranks, is to organize and conduct a large service project.

Benefit for Blanchet Farm

I chose a project to benefit Blanchet Farm. Thanks to the generosity of this community I was able to raise over $3,000. Blanchet Farm is a program where men who have struggled with addiction rehabilitate by doing farm work. Caring for animals, especially pigs, helps the men rebuild self esteem and relationships outside themselves. The program has helped thousands of men. Blanchet Farm is receiving three new pigs (who flunked out of 4-H) this summer and the Farm needs to expand their pens to make a home for Caramel, Mocha, and Vanilla. Since these pigs need shelter from coyotes, sun, rain, and wind, I will be building an enclosure and a 20 foot by 20 foot shelter for pigs so they can stay safe and comfortable.

Dates, times, tasks, etc

I will need volunteers from Monday June 17 to Wednesday, June 19. Skilled and unskilled workers of all ages are welcome. You are welcome to work just for one day or even part of a day if you specify when you sign up via the Sign-Up Genius. The work will consist of screwing in siding boards, nailing in brackets, digging posts, and installing fencing. Pants and closed toed shoes are required and please bring glasses to stay safe. Lunch will be provided as well as water and a sun shelter for breaks. Work days will start around 8 in the morning and will finish in early afternoon to avoid rush hour traffic and stay out of the heat of the day.

Please sign up online at www.bit.ly/tmp-20240526

FAMILY ACTIVITIES FROM THERESE FENZL

Dear Madeleine Families,
 Summer is a time when we have more opportunities to enjoy the beauty of all creation. In the weeks ahead I'll share some resources which can support you as a family to grow in wonder and awe of the beauty of our natural world. I am hoping these resources will nurture prayers of thanksgiving and inspire new ways of showing appreciation and care for all of God's gifts.

The first is a website filled with resources and ideas. The website is: kidsforsavingtheearth.org. "The mission of Kids for Saving Earth is to educate, inspire, and empower children to protect Earth's environment. [We] provides educational materials, posters, earth music and a highly acclaimed website featuring printable environmental education curriculum and empowering activities."

ADVERTISE IN THE PARISH BULLETIN

It's one of the best kept secrets and biggest bargains in the area...Madeleine Parish Bulletin Advertising. The back page of your weekly bulletin is a great place to get the word out to our parish community of your goods or services. For the first time in a few years, we have some spaces available.

▶ Affordable—Starting at just $145 for the 8 months May through December ($220 per full year). We usually bill 12 months January to December, but will gladly accept your ad May through December this year.

▶ Versatile—Many sizes available...based on our "single" size module, you can stack it two or three high, stretch it two or three wide...whatever size you need to get your brand's message across to our readers.

▶ Relatable—Members of The Madeleine community tend to be very loyal to their fellow parishioners. By advertising in the bulletin, you're demonstrating that you're an integral part of our parish community.

▶ Good Company—On the back of our bulletin are some of the stalwart companies in our parish and community. Several familiar names have been with us for decades...isn't it time you joined them?

ASSISTED LISTENING DEVICES AVAILABLE

Available in the Sacristy at Masses

As lovely and soaring as our beloved church is, sometimes its lively acoustics can make hearing all of Mass a challenge...especially some of our presiders who are easier to hear than others. But we have a solution!

In the Sacristy, we have assisted listening devices for your use during Mass. They're very easy to use and can vastly improve the experience at Mass for those with hearing challenges. Just take a device, plug in a headphone, and adjust the volume to your comfort. We just ask you to sign the check-out list and return them at the end of Mass.

Questions? Ask any Minister of Hospitality.

PARISH STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN IS IN THE MAIL!

Our Parish Stewardship Letters for the 2024-25 have been mailed! This is the campaign that funds our parish for the upcoming fiscal year. If you have not yet received a letter, contact the Parish Office.

The feature most folks are drawn to is the graph in the middle of the page that shows your past 5-years' giving compared to parish averages.

This letter, and the graph, show giving for our Parish Offertory, Second Collections and our Capital Repair Fund.

Upon receiving your letter, if you have questions about the Stewardship Campaign, your past giving, or your upcoming donation, contact our Business Manager, My Schoning, 503-281-5777 or mhoang@themadeleine.edu

By The Numbers

1 Your Giving History. So you don't have to dig through your bank records, these green bars show how much you've given each fiscal year (July 1–June 30), averaged by month for simplicity. Parish Offertory, Second Collections and Capital Repair gifts are used here. These bars do NOT include Old Church Capital Campaign giving.

2 All-Parishioner Average Giving. For context, we've provided the average monthly contribution per contributing parish family over each of the past 5 fiscal years.

3 Contact information. We have included what we have for your current contact information. See an error or a phone or email missing? Just make the correction when you send in your commitment card!

4 Suggested 2024-25 monthly amount. This is an amount for you to consider for your 2024-25 giving. It reflects the greater of your prior year monthly average plus our requested 7% increase for this fiscal year, or the parish average. It's just a suggestion...we are grateful for any amount.

5 Your Commitment. Here is where you enter your commitment for the coming year...intended to cover not only your Parish Offertory, the main fund that our parish runs on, but Second Collections and Capital Repair Fund also.

6 Method of payment: We are really hoping people will experience the convenience of automatic electronic payments this year. Complete instructions are on the back of your commitment card.

Dear John & Jane,

Thank you for your support of The Madeleine! Every family, every person in the parish benefits from your generosity. Your ongoing support is critical to the ministries and mission of The Madeleine.

As you may have noticed monthly in our bulletin, donations are down a little bit for a variety of reasons...inflation taking a bite out of family budgets, folks moving out of our area and, sadly, some of our older parishioners passing on.

We are blessed at The Madeleine with a vibrant staff, beautiful grounds and ample buildings. But all of these cost money to support and maintain. To that end, I am asking all parishioners to consider a 7% or greater increase over your prior giving amounts—or if possible, to increase giving to our parish average of $200 per month, as noted on the form below. I know I can count on your generous support.

If you have any questions, please contact My Schoning, our Business Manager, at the Parish Office, 503-281-5777.

Fr. Bonaventure Rummell

PS. To ease our Business Office's task of processing pledges and gifts, I'd appreciate your reply by June 12, 2024. Thank you so much!

“We are blessed with generous, hard-working volunteers, such as our St. Vincent de Paul ministry, lined up here with food boxes for their annual Christmas food drive.”

“We are blessed with a beautiful church, buildings, and grounds, built on the donations of past generations... and supported and maintained by our current parishioners.”

The Mystery of the DIVINE TRINITY

Although we Christians share the belief with Jews and Muslims that there is only one God, our belief is not exactly the same as theirs. Theologians call our Christian belief that there is one God who exists as a trinity of persons a mystery. The word mystery points to a reality that is beyond our full explanation, but not beyond our experience. We know God's hidden threefold personal mystery only because God freely reveals it to us through God's words, gathered together in the Bible, and God's loving actions in relationship to us in creation, salvation history and God's divine life of grace within us.

God's Mystery Revealed: One God/Three Experiences

Our belief that our one God is a trinity of persons comes from our Christian experience. The one and only God of the Israelite people, who was revealed in creation and in their sacred scriptures, was more fully revealed in the person of Jesus of Nazareth and in the powerful experience of God's life-giving and sanctifying Spirit—as the early Christian baptismal formula shows (Mt 28:19). But the problem was how these two new divine revelations could be explained and reconciled with the fundamental belief that there was only one God and not three.

Our Trinitarian Explanation: One Divine Nature/Three Persons

But by the fourth century, several unsuccessful attempts had been made to explain how our God could be one God and not three. Finally at the ecumenical Councils of Nicaea (AD 325) and Constantinople (AD 381), a more precise explanation was made that went beyond the biblical language. Using terms based on our human experience of how several different persons all share one and the same human nature, the Council declared that likewise God was one divine nature that was shared by 3 individual beings. Nature pointed to what there was one of in God—divinity—and person identified who there were three of in God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us: “In doing this, the Church did not submit the faith to human wisdom, but gave a new and unprecedented meaning to these terms, which from then on would be used to signify an ineffable mystery, infinitely beyond all that we can humanly understand” (#251).

THE TRINITY IN THE LITURGY

The feast day of the Holy Trinity developed in the early medieval period beginning in the 10th century. It was popularized in England by St. Thomas Becket, who was consecrated Bishop on Trinity Sunday in 1162. The feast was made universal in the Western Church in the 14th century and is celebrated on the first Sunday after Pentecost. But the practice of praying to the Trinity is revealed even more clearly in the structure of our liturgical prayer.

THE TRINITARIAN PRAYER FORMULA

The opening prayer at Mass is called the Collect (Latin collecta meaning a gathering or summing up). Its function is to “collect” all of the individual, private prayers of the community into one single formal prayer that is spoken aloud to God in their name by the priest. The structure of our Collect prayers consists of a direct address to God, a petition or request, and a concluding formula (one longer, one shorter) directing our prayer through Christ in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Although not formally called Collects, the Prayer over the Offerings that concludes the Preparation of the Gifts and the Prayer after Communion that concludes the Communion Rite at Mass also perform this same summing up function.

To God the Almighty Father

Collects usually begin with a direct address to God, which refers to God the Father and Creator rather than the other persons of the Trinity, and then mention the divine attribute, quality, action or characteristic (creates, governs, reveals, teaches, sees how we act, saves, makes holy, forgives, redeems, etc.) that inspires us to ask for what we need or want in the prayer because we are totally dependent on God our loving Creator and Sustainer for our lives and sustenance. And so it is right for us to ask God in our prayer for help with what we need or want.

Through Our Lord Jesus Christ Your Son

The concluding formula in our Mass prayers reminds us of the mediating place of Jesus, who is at once both human and divine and who brings our prayers and offerings to God. As human like us, he is nevertheless our Lord, to whom we give honor and praise, glory and worship just as we do to God. At the same time, he is God’s Son, and thus fully and completely what God is—divine. Thus each time we conclude our prayers this way, we are reminded of the fundamental belief that distinguishes us as Christians—God is fully incarnate in Jesus, who is always and inseparably both divine and human.

In the Unity of the Holy Spirit

God’s Spirit or breath is the animating principle of all life and the outward manifestation of God’s energy at work. Since this Spirit has also been given to us, by sharing the one divine Spirit we also share the one divine life. This is why in our Mass prayers we pray to God the Father through Christ the Son in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Just as speaking words aloud requires breath, so voicing our prayers requires God’s Holy Breath or Spirit. During the Eucharistic Prayer at Mass, we also formally call upon God to send the Holy Spirit to sanctify our gifts (called the epiclesis, Greek, to call down from above). Sanctify means to make holy, that is, suitable for offering to God.
