

THIS WEEK AT THE MADELEINE

Furthering the Reign of God. Where All Are Welcome • July 6–7, 2024

Note From Fr. Bonaventure

NEW HOURS FOR PARISH OFFICE AND WEEKDAY MASSES

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

I'm writing this to you on July 1st, 2024—exactly one year after beginning this journey with you here at The Madeleine. People often ask me how I like serving here at The Madeleine. I consider it a privilege to be here with you. But there's one thing that has become a bit problematic: living where I work, and in a somewhat public place at that. Its the most challenging part about this assignment.

Most of you know that I moved into the Rectory when I arrived. I chose this for a few reasons: partly because of the financial cost to the parish, but also, but also because there are two other priests who live here, Msgr. Murphy and Fr. Nazario. You have gotten to know them because they regularly share in the Mass schedule.

The Archdiocese standard is that the Rectory and Parish Offices are completely separate spaces—at my previous assignment in Medford, they were two miles apart. We don't have that situation here, but one of my goals this past year has been to evaluate what the boundaries between the parish and the priest-residence ought to be. To that end, I'd like to make a couple changes:

Beginning in July, the Parish Office will be closed on Mondays. I know this is a cost to the parish because the office staff will not be available to you on Mondays, but I assure you my humanity needs some time in my home when there are no people working here. Being able to do laundry (in the basement), prepare meals, and pad about the building in my sweat-pants and slippers would be so welcome and enable me to recharge for the upcoming week.

I'm also looking to make some minor changes in the Rectory workflow so as to better separate the working spaces from the living spaces...for instance, at the moment we priests eat our meals in the Rectory Dining Room which for many years has been a public meeting space. A byproduct of that is that people feel free to enter and exit that space at will, and that all our meals are filmed by the security system for the staff and for posterity—its a rather Orwellian feeling.

The second immediate change I want to bring to your attention: Weekday Mass times have changed to 8:30 am Tuesday through Friday (formerly at 8:00 am). We have a faithful core of weekday Mass-goers, and most are good with this change. Also, I'm hoping to engage more school parents in daily Mass, but with the school drop-off time of at 8:15–8:20 am, that made daily Mass very difficult for these folks. I'm not sure how many will avail themselves of this, but at least I would like to provide the option.

Some of you may not agree with these changes. I appreciate that. But with this note, I hope at least you'll understand what motivated these changes.

Sincerely, Fr. Bonaventure

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

IN TODAY'S GOSPEL WE FIND JESUS proclaiming the Good News in his native place. Although his message was not well received by most, there were a few who came to believe. We, too, are called to share our faith near and far. Sometimes our efforts will bear little fruit, but at other times, by God's grace, someone may come to faith and that possibility should encourage us to persevere in this endeavor.

PARISH LIFE

ADORATION: US CHURCH HEEDS POPE'S URGENT PLEAS FOR WORSHIP

Father Raymond J. de Souza, writing in the National Catholic Register June 6, says that despite constant “Vatican reportage” of a serious rift between Pope Francis and Catholics—or at least some bishops, in the United States, there is no rift “regarding the Eucharist, the heart of the Catholic faith.” Father de Souza says our nation’s unique Eucharistic Pilgrimage, on four routes to Indianapolis from north, east, south and west for our July 17-21 Eucharistic Congress, “demonstrates that no other national episcopate has embraced so enthusiastically the urgent calls of the Holy Father to rediscover Eucharistic Adoration.” Father de Souza tells us that a year ago, meeting with the U.S. bishops to learn their 2024 Eucharistic Revival plans, Francis told them: “I believe we have lost the sense of adoration in our day. It is up to the bishops to catechize the faithful about praying through adoration.”

Tuesday Adoration begins after the 8:30 am Mass, ends at 2 pm

In today’s Gospel the people ask: “How is it such miraculous deeds are accomplished by his hands?” Because of your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul many “miraculous deeds” are accomplished for the poor. This week, any gift to help St. Vincent de Paul Society, know that through your kindness someone who is suffering will be touched by God in a miraculous way.
