

THIS WEEK AT THE MADELEINE

Furthering the Reign of God, Where All Are Welcome • November 2–3, 2024

Remembering our beloved dead

The month of November is traditionally the time in the Catholic Church when we remember those who have passed, both in the previous year and before.

All Souls Service of Light & Vespers

Sunday, November 3, 6:30 pm • Main Church

Our beautiful Service of Light is an opportunity to reflect and pray for deceased loved ones. Join us in the Main Church for a contemplative service of music and scripture—and a special candlelight Vespers service. Those attending are encouraged to bring a picture of their deceased for our Table of Remembrance.

Photos or Memorial Cards

Please bring photos or memorial cards of your deceased family members and friends to place on the Table of Remembrance. Drop them off at the Parish Office, or bring them with you when you attend Mass. Please make sure all photos are clearly marked on the back with name and phone number so they can be returned.

Send us your Veterans' photos for Veterans Day

Upload to www.themadeleine.edu/veterans by November 6

Help us honor our military veterans on November 9 & 10 at The Madeleine. Please send us your photos of those in your family who are Military Veterans...living, deceased, retired, active...preferably in uniform. We will have a special slide presentation on our screen during all the Masses that weekend.

We are starting over, so even if you sent one in last year, please re-send this year.

Please upload your photos no later than Wednesday, November 6 to www.themadeleine.edu/veterans

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE TWO GREATEST COMMANDMENTS of which Jesus speaks are rooted in love: The first is to love God; the second is to love others. Both stem from the outpouring of God's pure goodness. If we love God fully and faithfully, and love others as he loves, we cooperate in our own well-being, and come closer to his kingdom.

PARISH LIFE

A note from Fr. Bonaventure about the upcoming election

Dear Madeleine Family,

I'm actually loath to speak about politics at Mass. I prefer the Church to be a safe place where the hyperbolic anxieties of the election season do not hold sway. With the grace of God, we as a Church can rise above the fray, but I would like to share with you some of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, to inform your political decisions, and, if I may, I would encourage you to make a simple decision and be at peace with it. I've bolded some sections for emphasis:

▶ Paragraph 2240: Submission to authority and co-responsibility for the common good make it morally obligatory to pay taxes, to exercise the right to vote, and to defend one's country:

Pay to all of them their dues, taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due.

[Christians] reside in their own nations, but as resident aliens. They participate in all things as citizens and endure all things as foreigners.... They obey the established laws and their way of life surpasses the laws.... So noble is the position to which God has assigned them that they are not allowed to desert it.

The Apostle exhorts us to offer prayers and thanksgiving for kings and all who exercise authority, "that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life, godly and respectful in every way."

▶ Paragraph 2241: The more prosperous nations are obliged, to the extent they are able, to welcome the foreigner in search of the security and the means of livelihood which he cannot find in his country of origin. Public authorities should see to it that the natural right is respected that places a guest under the protection of those who receive him.

As Catholics, our homeland is not this country of the United States. We live here, but we long for our true homeland in heaven. While we are not too tied to this place, we try to make it better. The Catechism continues:

▶ Paragraph 2245: The Church, because of her commission and competence, is not to be confused in any way with the political community. She is both the sign and the safeguard of the transcendent character of the human person. "The Church respects and encourages the political freedom and responsibility of the citizen."

▶ Paragraph 2246: It is a part of the Church's mission "to pass moral judgments even in matters related to politics, whenever the fundamental rights of man or the salvation of souls requires it. The means, the only means, she may use are those which are in accord with the Gospel and the welfare of all men according to the diversity of times and circumstances."

I wish you all a peace-filled, honest, and fruitful election season!

Fr. Bonaventure

PS. For further reading, check out the teaching document of the Bishops of the United States on democratic elections: www.bit.ly/tms-20241027a

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells us: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength...and you shall love your neighbor as yourself." Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you can show your love for our Lord and your love of your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.

FAITH FORMATION

Baptism Preparation Classes

Preparing for your child or godchild's Baptism? Please visit our website at www.themadeleine.edu/faithformation for newly updated information about Baptism registration and classes for parents and godparents. Three to four dates for classes are offered each month at a variety of times to accommodate parishioners and their schedules.

A full list of class options through

December is available on the website.

In November we have three classes:

- ▶ Saturday, 11/2, 2:00–3:00 pm
- ▶ Wednesday, 11/13, 3:00–4:00 pm
- ▶ Wednesday, 11/20 7:00–8:00 pm

To register for a class, please email Lauren Craig, lcraig@themadeleine.edu or submit a registration form to the Parish Office no later than 48 hours before the class you would like to attend.

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is now OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) as determined by the US Conference of Bishops. But the message is the same, ALL are welcome to join our faith community. If you know someone who might be interested in joining the Catholic Church or if you would like to explore joining the Catholic Church, please let us know. Classes to explore Catholicism are underway. Registration forms are available at www.themadeleine.edu/faithformation or in the back of the church. For more information contact Donna Mason at ocia@themadeleine.edu

New Altar Server Training

You are invited to join the Madeleine Book Club!

We enjoy a wide range of books of various genres...something for everyone! We are currently reading Chasing Hope, by Nicholas Kristof, which we will be reviewing in mid-November. Our membership consists of readers from different backgrounds, ages, and literary persuasions. Parishioners and friends are joyfully invited to join us for interesting reads and lively discussions throughout the year. Please direct inquiries to our Ministry Coordinator Gretchen Stevenson: gypsyfrau47@yahoo.com (503-312-6834).

Madeleine Buildings & Grounds looking for new members

Seeking professionals in the planning, design, construction industries

The Madeleine Building and Grounds, started back in 2005 is now back in session! We are looking for professionals in the planning, design and construction industry who are willing to advise our business manager, My Schoning, and Father B on current and future projects, operations and management of our beautiful and expansive campus, grounds and facilities.

We plan on meeting once a quarter, starting in 2025. Please consider this service if you have the skills as listed above, and are a current Madeleine parishioner and/or parent.

Please contact me if you have questions or are interested in joining—and thank you in advance!

In Memoriam

THE MADELEINE FAMILY REMEMBERS

Mary Clare O'Brien

Funeral Mass • Saturday, November 9 • 11:00 am

A Funeral Mass will be held for Madeleine parishioner Mary Clare O'Brien on Saturday, November 9, 11:00 am at The Madeleine.

Mary Clare was the second of the 5 O'Briens born to Patricia Murphy O'Brien and Jerry O'Brien. She arrived on December 5th, 1946 in San Jose, California, joining her older brother Patrick. In 1949, after Kathleen arrived, the growing family moved to their beloved home on Old Orchard Road in nearby Campbell. In time, Michael Murphy (Murph) and Timothy joined the family.

Mary Clare and her siblings and neighborhood friends spent many hours playing, exploring, riding bikes and roller-skating. Mary was active in the Girl Scouts, swam on the swim team and cut apricots in the summer. Mary Clare attended St. Lucy's Grammar School and then went on to Mother Butler High School. After graduating from High School she moved to Portland, home to many of our mother's relatives and friends. She began her studies at the University of Portland. All along the way, Mary Clare made life-long friendships. She returned to the San Francisco Bay Area to continue her studies at West Valley College.

Mary's love of travel took her on many adventures, cross-country road trips with friends, flights to Hawaii, solo sojourns to Europe and Central America. In time, Mary Clare took a position with the Georgia-Pacific Company at their office in Portland, renewing connections with family and friends in this City that she loved so dearly. When the company closed its offices in Portland, she made the move to Atlanta, Georgia. Once on the East Coast, she renewed connection with cousins and spent many holidays in Manhattan and on Long Island.

As Mary pursued and developed her professional career, she was happy to welcome her nieces and nephews—Bridget, Patrick K., Shannon, Michaela, Rebecca, Molly, Meghan and Jerry. Mary Clare's love of her family and friends and her desire to stay connected was a driving force in her life. As her nieces and nephews grew into adulthood, the next generation began to arrive expanding her role as "Aunt Mary" to many grand-nieces and grand-nephews.

Her parents retired to Lake Almanor in the early 1970's and their home became a gathering place for Mary Clare and her family, celebrating holidays and birthdays over the years. This tradition continues and Mary Clare's final resting place will be in the small Mountain cemetery near Lake Almanor.

In 2003, Mary Clare made the move back to Portland to live with her Mom and tend to her needs during her final years. At this time, Mary Clare became an active member of The Madeleine Parish, helping to establish the Senior Soup Program and becoming involved with the St Vincent de Paul's work to assist the marginalized members of the community. Mary Clare's life was enhanced by her dear friends and family and her desire to be of service. Her good humor brought laughter and levity to her many relationships and encounters along the way.

Mary Clare's years in Portland were enhanced by cousins on both sides of the family—the Dalys and the Knoflers.

Mary Clare passed on June 16th, with her sister Kate, brother Tim and sister-in-law, Susan at her side.

Donations can be made in her name to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, PO Box 42157, Portland Oregon 97242.

Please pray for Mary Clare, his family, and all the faithfully departed from The Madeleine

Celebrate the 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope! The Madeleine Pilgrimage to Italy

Spiritual Director: Fr. Bonaventure

• Group Leaders: Maria Manzo & Michael Kissinger

Tentative dates:

September 18–28, 2025

Celebrate the Catholic Church's 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope with a Madeleine Pilgrimage to Italy! Join pilgrims from all over the world in this special year of graces and prayer as we experience the rich tapestry of faith and culture that Italy has to offer. Immerse yourself in prayer and reflection in the beautiful medieval town of Assisi, birthplace of Saint Francis and Saint Claire. Travel along the Adriatic to San Giovanni Rotondo for a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to celebrate the Feast of St. Padre Pio at his Holy Shrine. From there, see the sights and sounds of the Eternal City—Rome—the heart of the Jubilee year Pilgrimage. Attend a Papal Audience at the Vatican and visit the holy sites and historical monuments that are the spiritual center of our faith and the foundation of Western civilization. Throw a coin in the Trevi Fountain before bidding "Arrivederci, Roma."

Optional Extension to Medjugorje and Dubrovnik

Tentative dates: September 28–October 4, 2025

We are also planning an extension for pilgrims to the village of Medjugorje, in Bosnia-Herzegovina. Since 1981, thousands of pilgrims each year have flocked to the site of the alleged ongoing apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary. On September 19, 2024, the Vatican granted an official "nihil obstat" (no objection) to the spiritual experiences at Medjugorje. Travel from Medjugorje to the beautiful medieval port city of Dubrovnik, Croatia. Called the "Pearl of the Adriatic" for its immense beauty, the predominantly Catholic city of Dubrovnik is dedicated to St. Blaise, its Patron Saint.

More details, including pricing, to come soon.
