

THIS WEEK AT THE MADELEINE

Furthering the Reign of God, Where All Are Welcome • May 31–June 1, 2025

The Madeleine Pastoral Council is Looking for New Members

Much like the resurgence of new leaves on the trees, Spring is the season for members of The Madeleine Pastoral Council to cycle through their terms of service. Even as we express our gratitude for those members who have completed their service, The Madeleine Council wishes to welcome parishioners interested in serving as new members to fill the three vacant membership positions. The Council welcomes couples to share a single membership, to enrich discussion and allow for individual calendars to adjust to scheduled meetings.

The purpose of the Pastoral Council is to engage in conversations with one another and with the pastor to propose and evaluate a plan to improve the health and effectiveness of the parish. All parishioners, including Madeleine School parents, who are fully initiated Catholics and are not employed by the parish or directly related to a parish employee are eligible as members of the Pastoral Council, serving staggered three-year terms. A retreat for orienting new members will be scheduled in August to kick off the 2025-26 meeting season.

Want to know more? Come to Coffee and Donuts scheduled after the 8 am and 10 am Masses on Sunday, May 25 to talk with current Madeleine Council members. You can also reach out to Dan O'Brien, Madeleine Council Chair, at 503-206-2843 or pxdan27@gmail.com. We look forward to meeting you!

The Ascension of the Lord

ON THIS SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION, we recall with praise what Jesus has done for us by his suffering, death, and resurrection. We are called to not simply meditate on these events, but to bring the fruits of our prayer into the world as his witnesses. This is the task of the Church – to preach the Gospel to all nations – and we participate in this individually by living and proclaiming our faith within our own spheres of influence.

PARISH LIFE

Liturgy Committee—Openings

Do you have a love of liturgy? Are You Interested in Learning More?

The liturgy committee is looking for individuals interested in serving a 3-year term with the committee. Like the Parish Council, we are looking for representatives from all parts of our parish and school community; men, women, young, old, new parishioner or long-time parishioner, parent, retired! Every voice is important.

What does the liturgy committee do? We plan and prepare liturgies, evaluate liturgies, coordinate with the sacramental prep ministries, and ensure liturgy ministers are prepared to serve. The committee consists of Fr. B., Maria, and several parishioners. We meet once a month on Thursday after school.

Our mission statement: Our purpose is to serve our parish through the ministry of liturgy. We hope to build the faith of our community through an understanding of our church's rituals and traditions, and through the art of finding the most helpful expression of those traditions for our parish and its people.

If this sounds like you, please contact us at ministries@themadeleine.edu by June 10. Thank you!

ASCENSION

JESUS CHRIST, ASCENDED INTO HEAVEN

Jesus' ascension, or return to God, is best understood as a continuation of the resurrection event—God's action to reward Jesus' faithfulness to death by continuing their relationship in a new way. Although the ascension is only described in Luke's Gospel some 50 years after Jesus' death, the belief in Christ's heavenly presence with God and glorification in the place of honor at God's right hand, is already widespread in early Christianity and attested in several New Testament letters.

In Paul's letters, which precede the written Gospels by at least 10-20 years, he mentions without having to explain the already common belief that "Christ Jesus who died, yes, who was raised, who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us" (Rom 8:34). This is a result of "God's great power, which God worked in Christ, raising him from the dead and seating him at his right hand in the heavens" (Eph 1:19-20). The letter to the Hebrews also stresses that Christ the high priest now sits forever in glory at God's right hand (Heb 1:3, 13; 8:1; 10:12). The first Letter of Peter claims that Christ "has gone into heaven and is at God's right hand, with angels, authorities, and powers subject to him" (1 Pet 3:22).

In the Gospels, only Luke describes the ascension, and he provides two accounts, as if to stress that Jesus' presence with the disciples in his visible resurrected body now comes to a definitive end. A briefer account comes at the end of his Gospel on Easter evening (24:50-53). The more familiar version in Acts (1:6-12) occurs 40 days after Easter, during which time Jesus has been instructing the disciples about the kingdom of God.

Jesus' ascension has several consequences for the Church. First, it assures us that God's commitment to Jesus did not cease when Jesus died but God continues their relationship with the gift of new life. Second, his enthronement at God's right hand invites Christians to worship Christ as they do God. Third, it reminds us that Christ eternally intercedes and advocates for us with God.

NOT GONE BUT STILL WITH US

All the early Christians believed that Jesus was risen to new life and appeared to his followers. They believed that though absent in his risen body, the risen Christ continued to dwell with them and allowed himself to be discovered under forms that we can experience and thus recognize him.

The New Testament authors stressed Christ's abiding presence in various ways. Matthew described Jesus as "Emmanuel, God with us" (1:23) and reminded us that Christ is present whenever we gather in his name (18:20) and will be with us always (28:20). Luke illustrated the hidden presence of the risen Christ as a mysterious stranger who explained scripture and shared bread (24:13-36). John described the abiding presence of Christ through the Holy Spirit or Advocate (Paraclete) (14:26) who continues in us the presence of the absent Jesus. Paul described the Christian community as those incorporated into the body of Christ (Rom 12:5; 1 Cor 10:17, 12:12-27) here on earth who continue his ministry and mission.

This hidden presence of Christ in us, in our community and in the world is also the foundation of our sacramental approach to reality. What we can perceive with our senses is not all there is to the mysterious reality we live in. So we seek this always present but hidden Jesus in prayer, in word and sacrament and in the others in our community. Like the disciples, we are not called to stand gazing into heaven to detect his return (Acts 1:10-11), which will surely come, but to go back to our households and jobs and neighborhoods to show forth the power of the Spirit that has been given to us by the ascended Jesus. By our attitudes, our words and our deeds, we display to the world around us the importance of Jesus' ascension.

Christ's Presence in the Eucharist

Pope St. Leo I, the Great, reminded us that "Our Redeemer's visible presence has passed into the sacraments. What was presented to the disciples' bodily eyes no longer hindered them from turning all their attention to the realization that he had not left his Father when he came down to earth, nor had he abandoned his disciples when he ascended into heaven."

In his book Sacramental Theology, Franciscan Fr. Kenan Osborne summarizes our belief in the many forms of Christ's eucharistic presence. "Jesus is present in the gathering of the community, in the proclamation of the word, and in the banquet of bread and wine. Beyond this we must find the Lord not only in the table of the Eucharist, but in the table of the world around us. If we do not see Jesus in this table of the world, we will really not find Jesus in the table of the Eucharist; and if we do indeed find Jesus in the table of the Eucharist, we should leave the Eucharistic celebration with eyes of faith that allows us to find Jesus throughout the table of the world."

Jesus, Alive in Our Midst

"The Ascension does not point to Jesus' absence, but tells us he is alive in our midst in a new way. He is no longer in a specific place in the world as he was before. He is now in the lordship of God, present in every space and time, close to each one of us. In our life we are never alone: the crucified and risen Lord guides us. We have with us a multitude of brothers and sisters who, in silence and concealment, in their family life and at work, in their problems and hardships, in their joys and hopes, live faith daily and together with us bring the world the lordship of God's love, in the risen Jesus Christ, ascended into heaven."

ASCENSION THURSDAY

Why Many Celebrate on a Sunday

Many countries including the U.S. that do not observe the Ascension as a public holiday have obtained permission from the Vatican to move the feast to the following Sunday to encourage more Catholics to celebrate this important event. In the U.S., all dioceses transferred this feast to Sunday except those in Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Nebraska which still celebrate it on Thursday.
