Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity

THE CHURCH INVITES US to explore humbly the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity and to grapple with the truths of this fundamental insight into the essence of God's being. The three Persons of the Holy Trinity – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – are one, but are distinct from each other. Thus, we can say they are in relationship with one another – an eternal communion of love. Confronted with this mystery, let us contemplate with wonder and awe the beauty of God.

The Madeleine Parish 2025 Jubilee Pilgrimage

Celebrate The Jubilee Year of the Church
at the Shrines of Italy: Assisi | Rome | San Giovanni Rotondo

- ▶ September 18–28, 2025 (Optional 6-day extension to Medjugorje, Bosnia-Herzegovina & Dubrovnik, Croatia)
- ▶ Priest: Fr. Bonaventure Rummell
- ▶ Escorted by: Maria and Michael Kissinger (In cooperation with 206 Pilgrimage Travel)

Deadline to sign up Monday, June 16

Interested in being part of our Jubilee Pilgrimage to Italy in September? Please see Music Director, Maria Manzo after Mass, call the Parish Office, or visit our Madeleine website at www.themadeleine.edu/pilgrimage for more information. The deadline is Monday, June 16.

Highlights of your Itinerary:

- ▶ Assisi—After arriving in Rome, we begin our Pilgrimage in Assisi, Italy—the heart of the Umbria region and the hometown of St. Francis. With its picturesque cobblestone streets and geranium window baskets, Assisi IS Italy! We will spend 3 nights in Assisi, where we will visit the Basilica of St. Francis, pray at the tomb of St. Francis and view the famous Giotto frescoes depicting his life. We will also visit the Basilica of St. Clare where Francis was called to rebuild his church. Finally, we will pray at the Church of St. Mary of the Angels, which houses the original church of St. Francis. There will be free time to enjoy the spirituality and beauty of Assisi and the surrounding area at your leisure. Optional day trip by train to Florence, Italy.
- ▶ San Giovanni Rotondo—Travel from Assisi to San Giovanni Rotondo for an overnight trip to celebrate the Feast of St. Padre Pio. Join thousands of Pilgrims in a candlelight procession and mass at the Sanctuary of St. Pio. As we travel along the beautiful Gargano Peninsula we will stop for mass at the Grotto of St. Michael the Archangel and other holy sites as time allows. Our Pilgrimage continues in Rome, where we will spend the next several days immersed in this majestic city.
- ▶ Rome—While in Rome, we will celebrate the Jubilee Year of the Church (the Year of Hope) with pilgrims from all over the world. This is an opportunity of a lifetime! In addition to our scheduled itinerary we will have an opportunity to join in special activities specifically for the Jubilee Year. Among our scheduled activities, we will attend the Papal Audience at St. Peter's Basilica, with guided tours of the Basilica of St. Peter and the Sistine Chapel. We will also visit and celebrate Mass at the Catacombs of Priscilla, where the early Christians worshipped. Our Pilgrimage will also include guided visits to The Basilicas of St. Paul Outside the Walls, St. John Lateran and the exquisite Church of Santa Maria Maggiore. It is said that Pilgrims who walk through the doors of these Holy churches during a Jubilee Year receive special graces! We will also have an opportunity to see the Pantheon, Colosseum, Piazza Navona, and throw a coin in the Trevi Fountain before traveling back to the USA or to Dubrovnik, Croatia.
- ▶ Optional Extension; Medjugorje & Dubrovnik—We arrive in Dubrovnik and travel to Medjugorje—nestled in the hills of Bosnia- Herzegovina. Medjugorje is a place of peace and prayer like no other on earth. Our time in Medjugorje will include such activities as daily Holy Mass; climbing Cross Mountain and Apparition Hill for those that are able; attending talks with the visionaries (if available); or just spending time with the locals and sharing in the faith journey of others—a true spiritual experience. From there, the final two days of our optional extension will be spent in the beautiful city of Dubrovnik, Croatia.

The Mystery of the

DIVINE TRINITY

Although we Christians share the belief with Jews and Muslims that there is only one God, our belief is not exactly the same as theirs. Theologians call our Christian belief that there is one God who exists as a trinity of persons a mystery. The word mystery points to a reality that is beyond our full explanation, but not beyond our experience. We know God's hidden threefold personal mystery only because God freely reveals it to us through God's words, gathered together in the Bible, and God's loving actions in relationship to us in creation, salvation history and God's divine life of grace within us.

God's Mystery Revealed: One God/Three Experiences

Our belief that our one God is a trinity of persons comes from our Christian experience. The one and only God of the Israelite people, who was revealed in creation and in their sacred scriptures, was more fully revealed in the person of Jesus of Nazareth and in the powerful experience of God's life-giving and sanctifying Spirit—as the early Christian baptismal formula shows (Mt 28:19). But the problem was how these two new divine revelations could be explained and reconciled with the fundamental belief that there was only one God and not three.

Our Trinitarian Explanation: One Divine Nature/Three Persons

But by the fourth century, several unsuccessful attempts had been made to explain how our God could be one God and not three. Finally at the ecumenical Councils of Nicaea (AD 325) and Constantinople (AD 381), a more precise explanation was made that went beyond the biblical language. Using terms based on our human experience of how several different persons all share one and the same human nature, the Council declared that likewise God was one divine nature that was shared by 3 individual beings. Nature pointed to what there was one of in God—divinity—and person identified who there were three of in God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us: “In doing this, the Church did not submit the faith to human wisdom, but gave a new and unprecedented meaning to these terms, which from then on would be used to signify an ineffable mystery, infinitely beyond all that we can humanly understand” (#251).

THE TRINITY IN THE LITURGY

The feast day of the Holy Trinity developed in the early medieval period beginning in the 10th century. It was popularized in England by St. Thomas Becket, who was consecrated Bishop on Trinity Sunday in 1162. The feast was made universal in the Western Church in the 14th century and is celebrated on the first Sunday after Pentecost. But the practice of praying to the Trinity is revealed even more clearly in the structure of our liturgical prayer.

THE TRINITARIAN PRAYER FORMULA

The opening prayer at Mass is called the Collect (Latin collecta meaning a gathering or summing up). Its function is to “collect” all of the individual, private prayers of the community into one single formal prayer that is spoken aloud to God in their name by the priest. The structure of our Collect prayers consists of a direct address to God, a petition or request, and a concluding formula (one longer, one shorter) directing our prayer through Christ in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Although not formally called Collects, the Prayer over the Offerings that concludes the Preparation of the Gifts and the Prayer after Communion that concludes the Communion Rite at Mass also perform this same summing up function.

To God the Almighty Father

Collects usually begin with a direct address to God, which refers to God the Father and Creator rather than the other persons of the Trinity, and then mention the divine attribute, quality, action or characteristic (creates, governs, reveals, teaches, sees how we act, saves, makes holy, forgives, redeems, etc.) that inspires us to ask for what we need or want in the prayer because we are totally dependent on God our loving Creator and Sustainer for our lives and sustenance. And so it is right for us to ask God in our prayer for help with what we need or want.

Through Our Lord Jesus Christ Your Son

The concluding formula in our Mass prayers reminds us of the mediating place of Jesus, who is at once both human and divine and who brings our prayers and offerings to God. As human like us, he is nevertheless our Lord, to whom we give honor and praise, glory and worship just as we do to God. At the same time, he is God’s Son, and thus fully and completely what God is—divine. Thus each time we conclude our prayers this way, we are reminded of the fundamental belief that distinguishes us as Christians—God is fully incarnate in Jesus, who is always and inseparably both divine and human.

In the Unity of the Holy Spirit

God’s Spirit or breath is the animating principle of all life and the outward manifestation of God’s energy at work. Since this Spirit has also been given to us, by sharing the one divine Spirit we also share the one divine life. This is why in our Mass prayers we pray to God the Father through Christ the Son in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Just as speaking words aloud requires breath, so voicing our prayers requires God’s Holy Breath or Spirit. During the Eucharistic Prayer at Mass, we also formally call upon God to send the Holy Spirit to sanctify our gifts (called the epiclesis, Greek, to call down from above). Sanctify means to make holy, that is, suitable for offering to God.
