

THIS WEEK AT THE MADELEINE

Furthering the Reign of God, Where All Are Welcome • November 15–16, 2025

Sleep in Heavenly Peace Bedding drive

Through Christmas, Sleep in Heavenly Peace is accepting bedding donations at The Madeleine. Please look for the blue bins located in the church vestibule or bring your donations to the Parish Office during business hours.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace has provided more than 1,300 beds to children in the Portland area. Many of those beds were built and delivered by Madeleine parishioners and provided with sheets, blankets and pillows from Madeleine bedding drives.

Bedding needs to be for twin size beds (not extra long, please) sheet sets, blankets and comforters, mattress protectors and pillows. All donations must be new and still in the original packaging. Thank you!

Knights of Columbus + Madeleine School Wool Sock Drive

Please join us in helping our neighbors in need this winter. The Madeleine Knights of Columbus and The Madeleine School are sponsoring their annual Wool Sock Drive.

Blue barrels will be in the church vestibule and the school entrance starting November 8.

NOTE: Please look for socks with a wool blend and no cotton.

Socks will be donated to those in need through Transition Projects and Saint André Bessette.

Don't have time to go sock shopping? Or would you prefer we take your cash and purchase wool socks in bulk? Just scan the QR code at right, or drop off a donation at the Parish Office during business hours.

NOTE: Last weekend, we inadvertently neglected to announce the second collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services...information on Page 6. • In addition, today is the second collection for Catholic Campaign for Human Development...information on Page 5.

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

AS WE APPROACH THE END of the liturgical year, our readings turn toward the end of time. The Church in her wisdom reminds us that this earth is not our final home. We are destined to be with God in heaven. The day is coming when Christ will return to judge the world with justice. If we persevere in faith, we can anticipate this coming with joy.

PARISH LIFE

Remembering our beloved dead

The month of November is traditionally the time in the Catholic Church when we remember those who have passed, both in the previous year and before.

Photos or Memorial Cards

Please bring photos or memorial cards of your deceased family members and friends to place on the Table of Remembrance. Drop them off at the Parish Office, or bring them with you when you attend Mass. Please make sure all photos are clearly marked on the back with name and phone number so they can be returned.

What is the Book of Intentions?

You may have noticed when you attend mass at The Madeleine one of the lectors processes in with a Blue Book which is placed on the stand below the ambo. The is the “Book of Intentions” where people can write down prayer requests for themselves, their families, or their community. The book is kept in the back of the Nave and brought up during Mass as a sign that the congregation is praying for all the listed intentions. You will also hear those intentions as part of the Prayers of the Faithful. You are also invited to write your own personal prayer intentions in the book before or after any Mass.

Madeleine Book Club!

You are invited to join us at our upcoming meeting Tuesday, November 18, 6:30 pm in the Fireside Room where we will be discussing North Woods, by Daniel Mason. This is a sweeping novel about a single house in the woods of New England, told through the lives of those who inhabit it across the centuries—a daring, moving tale. It’s a ghost story, a biblical allegory, a statement on the power of nature and the fact that humans are but passing through this Earth. To sign up for this session, please contact our MBC ministry coordinator: Gretchen Stevenson, gypsyfrau47@yahoo.com or 503-312-6834.

Infant Baptisms and OCIC

Parents seeking baptism for their infant or young child should submit our registration form and sign up for one of our upcoming classes. Registration forms and instructions as well as class sign-ups are available on the Madeleine Parish website. Children older than 7 years and beyond 2nd grade must go through OCIA for children (OCIC). Please email Lauren Craig at lcraig@themadeleine.edu for more information.

You CAN Help Your Marriage

Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue...or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse? Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) helps couples through difficult times in their marriages. Retrouvaille is for any couple who would like to rediscover their marriage and improve communication.

Visit helpourmarriage.org for testimonials, confidential information or to register for the January 30–February 1, 2026 Weekend in Canby, Oregon or email StevenAndSuzanne@helpourmarriage.org or call 503-225-9191.

RMD for 2025?

If you are at least 70½ years of age and are required to take a minimum distribution from your IRA, you can donate part or all of that distribution to The Madeleine, tax free! For information, contact parish Business Manager, My Schoning, 503-281-5777 or mhoang@themadeleine.edu.

Apologies to our school’s Madeleine Parents Association! We overlooked announcing their generous hosting of Coffee & Donuts last weekend.

Thank you for your help!

Mmm...Pancakes!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PANCAKE BREAKFAST

Thank you from the Knights of Columbus

Successful Fall blood drive • Look forward to more in 2026

The Knights of Columbus would like to offer our sincere thanks to the congregation for your support during our restart of Red Cross blood drives at the Madeleine. We held four drives in 2025 and collected 96 usable units of blood for the Red Cross. They calculate that each donation helps save 3 lives. So, our parish helped save almost 300 lives. Not a bad four days' work.

Special thanks go out to the Rectory staff for their unending support in this endeavor. And thanks, as well, to our many repeat donors from the Parish who braved wind and weather and the newfangled iron level test to give the gift of life.

We will have four quarterly drives in 2026 and look forward to seeing you there.

Thanksgiving Day: Mass 9:00 am

Thanksgiving Collection Devoted to St. Vincent de Paul

As is traditional here, the Thanksgiving Day Mass collection goes to support St. Vincent de Paul, helping them help families in need. Our community has always been very generous in supporting this ministry, and we know you will be again this year.

Start your Thanksgiving festivities with a celebration of Mass, and a generous contribution to St. Vincent de Paul.

St. Vincent de Paul

As you know, we rely heavily on your donations of food to fill our pantry. Food insecurity is affecting more and more of your neighbors every day. Recent cuts to food bank funding, coupled with the reduction of our federal SNAP program, are having a profound effect on our ministry. Demand is at an all-time high.

If you are able, please help us fill our pantry shelves. Keep SVdP in mind while shopping for groceries. If you see a sale on any of our 'staples,' pick up a couple extra! Items in high demand are

- ▶ Rice
- ▶ Peanut Butter
- ▶ Green Beans
- ▶ Cereal
- ▶ Jam/Jelly
- ▶ Corn
- ▶ Refried Beans

Look for the SVdP donation barrels in the entry to the church.

The Gospel predicts end times: our challenge though is to live faithfully now. St. Vincent often asked this simple question: "What would Jesus Christ do, if he were in my place now?" Ask yourself "What would Jesus Christ do?" So when you give your gift to Saint Vincent de Paul, those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

Serving those who Serve

★ Triennial National Collection ★
for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,
On behalf of those entrusted to my care, thank you and your parish for participating in the National Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS).

The mission of this Archdiocese is to ensure that service members, Veterans, and their families be able to seek sacramental preparation for baptism, confirmation, first Communion, penance, and marriage; to benefit from consultation with a priest, and to receive the sacrament of penance as they defend our rights of freedom, speech, and face constant transition and uncertainty.

If in a position to do so, I ask you to consider in prayer a donation to help me minister to the 1.8 million faithful throughout the U.S. and around the globe who serve the nation.

The AMS does not receive financial assistance from the government or the U.S. Armed Forces, and without parishes, it cannot receive funds from weekly collections. Its mission is solely supported by the generosity of donors such as you.

With sentiments of unwavering gratitude, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

(The Most Reverend) Timothy P. Broglio, J.C.D.
Archbishop for the Military Services, USA

Did You Know?

- Without the AMS there would be no Catholic chaplains. The AMS is the only Catholic diocese in the United States responsible for endorsing priests to serve as military chaplains and for the Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers.
- AMS faithful are the men and women serving in the United States Armed Forces, enrolled in U.S. Military Academies, undergoing treatment at a Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center, working in civilian jobs for the federal government beyond U.S. borders - and their families.
- Programs and services readily available in other U.S. dioceses, and vital to the men, women, and children served by the AMS, include Evangelization and Catechesis, Sacramental Records, Tribunal, Vocations, and the pastoral care of Veterans.
- The AMS Co-Sponsored Seminarian Program is the only U.S. Vocations Program that provides priests to serve as military chaplains, and also to serve in parishes and dioceses across the country that struggle with their own critical shortage of ministers.
- In 2024, the number of sacraments celebrated for AMS faithful included 1,450 baptisms, 872 confirmations, 1,127 first Holy Communions, and 143 marriages.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

The Catholic Church has always taught us, through the words of Sacred Scripture and the witness of saints like Francis of Assisi, that the natural world is created by God, that it is good, and that humans have a special duty to care for creation so that it benefits not only themselves but also future generations. Today we live in a time where pollution, climate change, and poor agricultural practices harm creation and place us all in danger.

In 2015, Pope Francis responded to this environmental crisis by issuing the encyclical Laudato Si' (On Care for Our Common Home), in which he emphasizes the connection between humanity and nature and calls for “the whole human family together to seek a sustainable and integral development” (no. 13).

This spirit of cooperation, sustainability, and human dignity animates the work of organizations like La Cosecha Community Supported Agriculture, a cooperative farm network in Albuquerque, New Mexico, which makes locally grown, sustainable, and nutritious foods available to low-income people. With support from the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), La Cosecha has expanded its outreach beyond Albuquerque to 11 rural New Mexico counties, increased year-round accessibility to healthy produce and other food products, and obtained a US Department of Agriculture Good Agricultural Practices food-safety certification for its cooperative farm partners.

CCHD-funded organizations show how we can care for the environment, address the needs of the poor, and support responsible and sustainable local businesses at the same time. When you participate in the CCHD collection, you help not only other communities but also your own, because 25% of your contribution remains in your diocese to create local solutions to poverty.

To learn more about the collection for the CCHD and the way CCHD upholds the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church, visit www.usccb.org/cchd.
