Christmas Eve Masses: Notes & Requests

Mass During the Night at 11:00 pm

Again this year, in an effort to encourage more attendance and to make it a bit easier on our clergy and lay ministers, our Mass During the Night will be at 11:00 pm.

Respect our honored citizens

Several pews will be reserved for honored citizens for whom getting around is not as easy as it once was.

Also, look around! If you are fit and able, and see someone who is in greater need of the seat than yourself, please offer them a place to sit.

Speaking of seats, please don't save

It's a dubious tradition here—people using coats, papers, ribbons, prone bodies, etc., to save vast swaths of seats for late-arriving friends and family.

Please, on this night, let's not do that. Bring your entire family early, and enjoy the prelude Christmas Carols together.

Thank you!

Out of the Darkness...Advent Receptions Dec. 20-21

Wine & Cheese on Saturday • Homemade Cinnamon rolls on Sunday

Join us for receptions after Masses on December 20 and 21 to celebrate our journey "Out of Darkness" together. Wine and cheese (and juice) will be served after the 5 pm Saturday Mass, and homemade cinnamon rolls and coffee (and juice) after the 8 am and 10 am Sunday Masses. Please note, in support of family time, we will not be having receptions after our Christmas Masses.

Everyone is welcome!

Fourth Sunday of Advent

THE COMING OF JESUS CHRIST is the sign of our salvation. He is "God with us" and has invited us to turn our lives over to him. Are we ready to accept this sign? Will we, like Joseph, put aside our fears and enter into a completely new reality, a new way of life?

Parish Stewardship and End-of-Year Giving

Christmas donations: www.themadeleine.edu/christmasgiving

This year, as you're considering your Christmas gifts and your end-of-year giving in time for tax deductions, we'd appreciate if you'd consider one more gift: Please consider a Christmas Offertory Gift to The Madeleine.

As you know, your donations are what keep our parish working...and this year, we've had a decrease in donations, so we really need your help.

If you are able, please take a moment to consider a gift...or an additional gift...to The Madeleine this holiday season.

The backbone of our parish budget

Your regular donations are the backbone of our parish budget, offering us the financial stability and means to keep our parish running smoothly and carrying out our ministries to the community.

Matching Gifts

Many employers will match tax-deductible contributions. If you work for such a company, please consider checking to see if either The Madeleine or The Madeleine School is eligible.

Many ways to give

In addition to regular stewardship via Sunday donations, there are many ways to support The Madeleine:

- One-time gifts
- Appreciated securities
- Estate planning or bequests
- Real estate and personal property.
- Life Insurance

If you wish to consider an additional gift to The Madeleine, please contact My Schoning, Business Manager at 503-281-5777 or mhoang@themadeleine.edu

Madeleine Book Club!

Cool winter days are the perfect time to curl up with a good book. We are currently reading Confessions: A Biography, by Garry

Wills to be reviewed at our January meeting. We would love to have you join us for discussion of this excellent book. For further information or to be added to our email list, please contact our MBC coordinator: Gretchen Stevenson, gypsyfrau47@yahoo.com or 503-312-6834!

Sleep in Heavenly Peace Bedding Drive

Through Christmas, Sleep in Heavenly Peace is accepting bedding donations at The Madeleine. Please look for the blue bins located in the church vestibule or bring your donations to the Parish Office during business hours.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace has provided 1,300 beds to children in the Portland area. Many of those beds were built and delivered by Madeleine parishioners and provided with sheets, blankets and pillows from Madeleine bedding drives.

Bedding needs to be for twin size beds (not extra long, please) sheet sets, blankets and comforters, mattress protectors and pillows. All donations must be new and still in the original packaging.

Thank you Madeleine Community for the continued support!

In today's Gospel, we hear that Jesus will be named Emmanuel, which means "God is with us." The mystery of the birth of Jesus is supremely a mystery of love. May each Christmas find us more and more like him: more humble, more holy, more happy and more full of God. Your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul help those who are poor and suffering to find Emmanuel and they also came to know that "God is with us."

ADVENT

THREE COMPANIONS FOR OUR JOURNEY

The Season of Advent makes our journey toward Christmas more meaningful by revealing our deepest longings and greatest hopes, and teaching us to focus all our desires on Jesus Christ. Advent celebrates three dimensions of Christ's coming—first into the world some two thousand years ago, second into our hearts right now, and finally in his coming at the end of time.

As you journey through Advent, you will begin to understand Jesus more fully and recognize that his birth began our redemption and that his return in glory will complete it. Advent draws together the joy of his arrival as a helpless babe with the hope of his return when evil will finally be eradicated from our world.

Advent also presents us with three companions for our journey who speak to us about matters of the heart—about longing, fulfillment and hope.

Isaiah

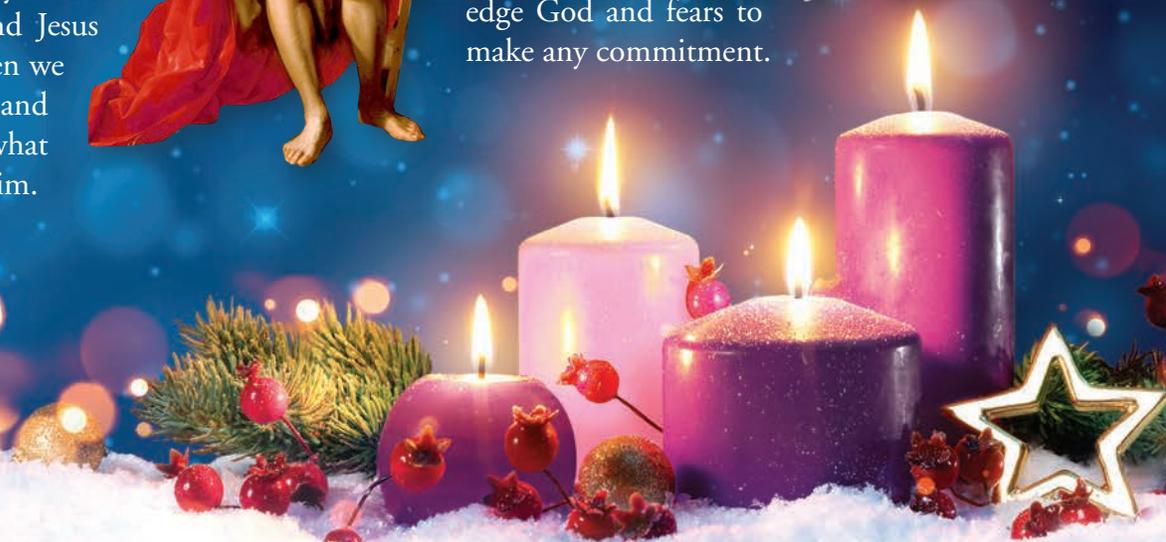

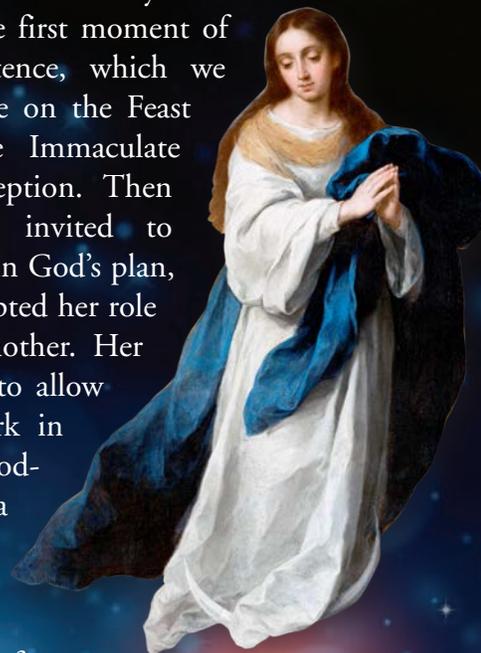

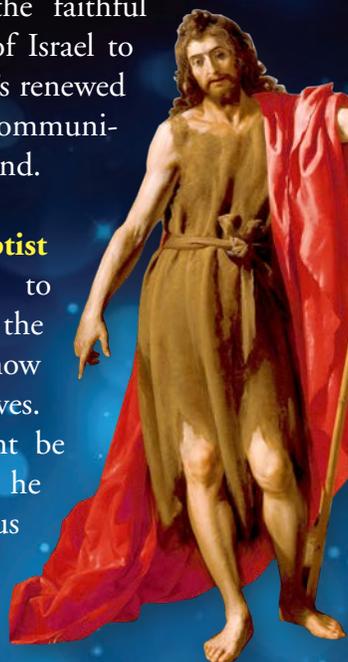

The great prophet foretold the coming of the promised Messiah and his kingdom. Isaiah's words are remembered especially during Advent because of his confident hope that God would restore the faithful remnant of Israel to live as God's renewed covenant community in their land.

John the Baptist

John announced to the people that Jesus, the Messiah, had finally come and now was the time to change their lives. While some thought John might be the Messiah, he knew clearly that he was only the messenger and Jesus was the promised one. When we look carefully at our lives and those of others, we learn what we must change to follow him.

Mary

Mary was transformed by God's grace from the first moment of her existence, which we celebrate on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. Then when invited to share in God's plan, Mary accepted her role as Jesus' mother. Her willingness to allow God to work in her life is a model for us in a culture that often refuses to acknowledge God and fears to make any commitment.

Origins of Advent

Advent began sometime after the 4th century as a time of preparation for Epiphany—not in anticipation of Christmas. Epiphany celebrates the manifestation of Christ by remembering the visit of the Magi and the baptism of Jesus. At this time new Christians were baptized and received into the faith, and so the early Church instituted a 40-day period of fasting and repentance.

Later, in the 6th century, Pope St. Gregory the Great was the first to associate this season of Advent with the coming of Christ. Originally it was not the coming of the Christ-child that was anticipated, but rather, the second coming of Christ.

By the Middle Ages the Church had extended the celebration of Advent to the familiar format we know today. The early weeks are rich with the prophecies of Isaiah, reminding us to wait and prepare for the coming Messiah. Later, the pace quickens and we focus more directly on the events leading up to Jesus' birth.

The Three Arrivals of Christ

Jesus Comes in Human History

Our celebration of Christmas focuses on the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem. The Christmas crèche at home or in the church, Christmas pageants and liturgies all help us recall the moment Jesus was born as a human being to live his destiny as the Son of God and our redeemer.

Jesus Comes in Our Hearts

Alive and among us through the Holy Spirit, Jesus continually reaches out to us. Advent renews our desire for the daily coming of Jesus as we recall the story of our salvation and look forward to the coming of the kingdom. We “wait in joyful hope,” as the eucharistic liturgy says, for the coming of that kingdom.

Jesus Comes in Glory

The haunting melody and refrains of O Come, O Come, Emmanuel serve to remind us of our longing for the completion of Christ's reign at the end of time. This season gives special meaning to the phrase from the Lord's Prayer, “thy kingdom come.”

ADVENT F • A • Q

What is the origin of the Advent Wreath?

The origin dates to pre-Christian Germany and Scandinavia where the people gathered to celebrate the return of the sun after the winter solstice. For us, the lighting of the Advent candles represents the promise of the coming of Jesus, the light of the world.

Why is the rose-colored candle lit on the third Sunday of Advent?

The third Sunday of Advent is known as Gaudete Sunday because in Latin, the first words of the opening antiphon for that day's Mass are Gaudete in Domino semper (Rejoice in the Lord always) from Philippians 4:4-5. On this Sunday a rose-colored candle is lit as a reminder that we are called to rejoice.

Was St. Nicholas Real?

Yes, St. Nicholas (270-343) was the Bishop of Myra (now Demre in southwest Turkey). He was imprisoned during Emperor Diocletian's persecution (303-5) and attended the first ecumenical council at Nicaea (325). Famous for his pastoral care, the many legendary stories of his charitable deeds became the basis for the figure of Santa Claus.

What is a Jesse Tree?

An ancient tradition revived in the mid-20th century as an Advent practice, the Jesse Tree represents the family of Jesse, father of King David. Each day of Advent a home-made ornament is added to the Jesse Tree, a small tree made of evergreen branches. These symbolic ornaments each represent a prophecy foretelling of Christ.
