Pick up your 2026 Lenten reflection book at Masses, at the Parish Office, or download at themadeleine.edu/lent

First Sunday of Lent

THROUGHOUT THE OLD TESTAMENT, the Scriptures use metaphorical language to speak of Israel as God's son. Yet like us today, the Israelites persist in disobedience, straying from their Father's will. God thus sends Jesus, who is tempted in the desert to disobey God. Jesus' example of obedience reveals what true sonship requires.

Lent is a call to "give alms for the poor." Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect ringing your doorbell. Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the suffering and poor

Lenten Rice Bowls

Each Lent, Catholic families across the country unite to put their faith into action through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Through CRS Rice Bowl, families learn about how our sisters and brothers across the globe overcome hardships like hunger and malnutrition, and how through Lenten alms, we have the power to make the world a better place for all.

Rice Bowls are available in the church. Please be generous during Lent, then return them to the church on Holy Thursday.

TIPS FOR GREEN LIVING

Winter, the perfect time to warm up with a hot drink! What is the most ecological choice? Certainly, buying herbal tea in bulk is less expensive and requires less packaging. Bulk herbal teas are more fragrant as well, because they haven't been stored for as long. Give them a try. To brew, use an infuser spoon, a tea ball or a teapot. They are reusable and easy to find. In addition to the environmental aspect, you get to enjoy a greater variety of drinks by having camomile and vanilla one night, and camomile and linden the next!

ARCHDIOCESE OF PORTLAND IN OREGON

Lenten Fasting & Abstinence—guidelines from the Archdiocese

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59.

When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards. Members of the Eastern Catholic Churches are to observe the particular law of their own sui iuris Church.

If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the “paschal fast” to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection.

In Memoriam

THE MADELEINE FAMILY REMEMBERS

Steve Nava

Funeral Mass Friday, February 27, 11:00 am

A Funeral Mass will be celebrated for Steve Nava on Friday, February 27, 11:00 am, at The Madeleine.

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Stephen Daniel Nava on January 4th at the age of 77.

Steve was raised in Portland Oregon. Born into a continuously expanding large Catholic family. He was the first born of a total of eight children. He was blessed with a Savant like intelligence and excelled in his academic progression. Steve proudly served our Country. Utilizing his unique abilities, he acquired a rare and coveted position as "A Private intelligence officer" for the United States Government. His first major assignment sent him to live in Thailand, an experience that expanded his view of the world forever. After fulfilling his obligations to our government, he transitioned into a successful civilian career in domestic and international business and trade.

He was a man of many adventures who was well traveled around the world with unique experiences. He had many hobbies including cycling, running, swimming, scuba diving, golfing, fishing and most coveted of all playing basketball. A natural athlete and fierce competitor.

He is survived by siblings Ginna Ann, John, Lucy, Matt and Jimmy, his daughter Ann-Marie and her husband Shane, her son Riley and daughter Violet; his son David and Wife Leah; their children Iris, Lily and Hunter; his daughter Lora, her husband Robert and her daughter Madeline.

Steve will be reunited with his parents, Virginia and Steve Nava, his sister Susan and brother Mark, all of whom preceded him in death.

Lenten Day Retreat on March 20 at The Grotto

Join Catholic speaker Dina Marie Hale of Faith Moments for a Lenten Day Retreat at The Grotto, Friday, March 20, from 8:15 am-2:30 pm in the Grotto Conference Center. Our retreat theme, "Companions of Jesus Carrying Our Cross." Together we'll make a pilgrimage of the heart and mind into the Holy Cross that has redeemed the world. To celebrate the Franciscan Jubilee Year we'll encounter Saint Francis of Assisi and explore his love of the Cross.

The day includes conferences, Mass, confession, lunch and time to explore the peaceful Grotto grounds. Registration is required at dinamarie.org. The Grotto is located at 8840 NE Skidmore St., Portland, OR 97220.

“ We need to recognize our sins to convert. This itself is a sign and testimony of the Resurrection, as it means we will not remain among the ashes, but that we will rise up and rebuild. Only then will the Easter Triduum, which we will celebrate as the summit of the Lenten journey, unleash all its beauty and meaning. This will take place if we participate, through penance, in the passage from death to life, from powerlessness to the possibilities of God. ”

—Pope Leo XIV via X @pontifex

Calling all Catholic Singles

The Catholic Friendship Group in the Archdiocese of Portland exists as a place of community and friendship for singles 40-65. We do this through shared adventures, growing and learning about our faith, praying together, and serving others.

You are invited to join us Saturday January 31 @4:00 pm to tour the exhibit Eucharistic Miracles of the World at Resurrection Catholic Church, Tualatin, to be followed by dinner out together.

Oregon's Remarkable Benedictine Women

A significant but little-known part of Oregon history is the topic of a free panel discussion set for 10 a.m., Saturday, April 11, at Queen of Angels Monastery, 840 S Main St. in Mount Angel. Benedictine nuns have been teachers, scholars, caregivers, spiritual leaders and social workers in Oregon since 1882. The panel, set for the chapter room at the historic monastery, will cover the history of the Sisters and the future of their property and the works to be accomplished there. Guests should come to the front entrance of the Hospitality Center/Chapel. Coffee and snacks will be available. Registration begins at 9:30 a.m. The event, organized by the Oregon Catholic Historical Society, is in-person but viewers unable to come can watch on Zoom at this link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/89247406853> Email edwardlanglois1@gmail.com with questions

Legatus

Ambassadors for Christ

Legatus is an international organization of Catholic business leaders and executives committed to study, live and spread the Catholic faith. Legatus provides its members the opportunity to deepen their relationship with God and discover how Catholic truth and values can help them meet the challenges they face on a daily basis. Spouses are full members, providing additional opportunities to enhance marriage and family life. Monthly meetings start with Mass, followed by socializing and fine dining - complemented by dynamic and informative presentations by expert or nationally known speakers.

Chartered in 2001, our Portland Chapter is welcoming new members.
