Help us Welcome Our Candidates With a Note

Please help us give a warm Madeleine welcome to our OCIA candidates—Emily Fellman, Kelsie Storm, and Cash Freitas—by writing a note as they come into full communion with the Catholic Church. A few words letting them know you are praying for them means so much to them. Feel free to share your RCIA/OCIA experience or what you love about the church, or your faith journey. Note cards are available in the back of the church. Please return no later than April 17.

Celebrate Mothers on Mothers Day

Upload mother & child photos to www.themadeleine.edu/mothers

A May tradition at The Madeleine: celebrating the Month of Mary and Mother's Day in a special way!

Mother's Day weekend May 9–10, we will show a slideshow of mothers and children sent in from The Madeleine Community. The photos will show both in the church at all Masses and on our livestream.

We are starting over—all new photos!

This year, again, we're making a fresh start, a blank canvas. So even if you've sent us a photo before, please send a new one this year.

Submissions can be either a photo of mother and child (children), or a photo of mothers and their mothers. Please send us just one photo of a mother/child combo per family grouping, as we want to have time to show all our photos. Send photos by May 5

Upload your photos to our website at www.themadeleine.edu/mothers

Easter Sunday

THE EMPTY TOMB IS A SIGN OF HOPE. Death does not have the final word. If our life with Christ can overcome even the seeming finality of death, God's mercy can also overcome all pain and sorrow. If we bind ourselves to Christ, earthly suffering will be vanquished. We can rejoice and be glad with hearts full of peace

PARISH LIFE

Archbishop's Catholic Appeal 2026

We all experience fear in our lives. We face health scares and job uncertainty. We are frightened by failed relationships. We worry that the life we are living doesn't meet our expectations. When we live in fear, we limit ourselves. Fear constricts. But faith dispels fear and opens our hearts and minds.

Jesus repeatedly tells us throughout his ministry to "be not afraid." He invites us to replace fear with trust – trust in him and in God. This is difficult to do, especially when fear has become a habit. The disciples were fearful after witnessing Jesus' crucifixion. Their friend and teacher was put to death for preaching. They were his followers, so it isn't out of the realm of possibility that they are in danger as well. But first an angel appears to the two Marys, saying, "Do not be afraid" and shares that Christ has risen from the dead.

Then Jesus, himself, appears to the disciples, and the first words out of his mouth are "Do not be afraid." He says that he will be with them always, and he keeps his word. Even death cannot separate them.

Our Lord is with us, too. We can grow in trust that he is always present in our lives by slowing down, retreating into silence, and talking to God through prayer. We can hand over our fears to the Lord because he can handle them! In relinquishing fear's hold, we become open to God working in our lives. And we can share this with others who may be living in fear by supporting such initiatives as the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal. Support the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal today at Appeal.ArchdPDX.org

Women's Coffee Groups

Madeleine Women's Coffee group will reconvene Monday April 13 from 10:00-11:30 am in the St. Catherine Room. This month we welcome a fellow parishioner, Kathy Sheahan, who will share her recent experience with Encounter Ministries, a healing mission trip to Belize. As always, we will share coffee, tea, treats and friendship. Entry doors on 23rd are locked after 10:15 so please arrive before then. All women of the parish are welcome!

Infant Baptisms and OCIC

Parents seeking baptism for their infant or young child should submit our registration form and sign up for one of our upcoming classes. Registration forms and instructions are available at www.themadeleine.edu/sacraments. Children older than 7 years and beyond 2nd grade must go through OCIA for children (OCIC). Through April, please reach out to Kristen Kill at kristenkill@gmail.com to sign up for classes and learn more.

Madeleine Book Club!

We have a wonderful group of readers who come together monthly to share thoughts about books our MBC members have selected for us to read. In fact, we will be meeting mid-April to discuss Pope Francis' autobiography, Hope. We cordially invite you to join us for review of this excellent book. You are most welcome to come for a one-time visit, however we would love to have you become a member of our group! For details, please contact: Gretchen Stevenson, MBC Ministry Coordinator, gypsyfrau47@yahoo.com or 503-312-6834.

WorldWide Marriage Encounter

Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." Bring the peace of Christ into your marriage by taking part in a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience on May 1 - 3, 2026, in Beaverton, Oregon. To apply for your WWME Experience or search other dates go to rediscoverthespark.org. For information about WWME call 503-704-0836 or by email at reservations@rediscoverthespark.org

Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter, we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice. It is then that we are truly Easter people! As you place your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them Easter hope and joy. Thank you.

Easter Giving: Can You Help?

Donate online at www.themadeleine.edu/easter-giving

In this time of Lent—as we anticipate the renewal and rebirth of spring—we anticipate the rebirth and renewal of ourselves as we approach Easter and the Resurrection of Christ. It's a truly uplifting time we experience together.

And it's together that we support our spiritual home...The Madeleine. Together we support the staff that keeps our church running. Together we maintain the buildings in which we worship and celebrate. Together we keep our grounds beautiful. Together we work to expand the reign of God. And together we build on the 114 year tradition of The Madeleine Parish. Our Madeleine Parish.

One of our biggest collections of the year is typically Easter Sunday. Each year we budget for an Easter collection that is in addition to the Sunday collection. Some parishioners account for Easter collections in regular online or automated giving. But if you are not among those who do, we'd very much appreciate if you would consider an additional Easter gift.

Several easy ways for you to help:

- ▶ Envelope—If you have an Easter envelope, mail to the parish office or drop it off, or bring it to Mass.
- ▶ Scan at Mass—We have giving placards on the back of all of our pews. Just scan the QR code and make a convenient donation.

- ▶ Online—Visit our online giving page at www.themadeleine.edu/easter-giving where you can make a secure, convenient online donation.
- ▶ Electronic Transfer—If you are making stewardship donations via electronic transfer, contact My Schoning in our business office to arrange an additional payment.
Thank you for your loyal support.

Next Laudato Si Circle Gathering is May 3

Please consider joining one or more of our monthly Laudato Si Gatherings by Zoom for prayer, fellowship, to share good news and practical action plans.

We plan to meet this year after Sunday 10 am Mass at 11:45 pacific on: 5/3, 5/24, 6/28, 7/26, 8/30, 9/27, 10/25, 11/29.

For Zoom links, questions, comments or info contact Bill Hunter, williamjhunterjr@gmail.com or text to (502) 419-5705.

Excerpt From Pope Leo's Message for the Tenth World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation:

“Environmental justice – implicitly proclaimed by the prophets – can no longer be regarded as an abstract concept or a distant goal. It is an urgent need that involves much more than simply protecting the environment. For it is a matter of justice – social, economic and human. For believers it is also a duty born of faith, since the universe reflects the face of Jesus Christ, in whom all things were created and redeemed. In a world where the most vulnerable of our brothers and sisters are the first to suffer the devastating effects of climate change, deforestation and pollution, care for creation becomes an expression of our faith and humanity.

Now is the time to follow words with deeds. “Living our vocation to be protectors of God's handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience” (Laudato Si', 217). By working with love and perseverance, we can sow many seeds of justice and thus contribute to the growth of peace and the renewal of hope. It may well take years for this plant to bear its first fruits, years that, for their part, involve an entire ecosystem made up of continuity, fidelity, cooperation and love, especially if that love mirrors the Lord's own self-sacrificing Love.”

EASTER

THE SEASON OF NEW LIFE IN CHRIST

In the Catholic Church Year, the two major cycles of seasons, Christmas and Easter, are far more than a single day of observance. Like Christmas, Easter itself is a period of time rather than just a day. It is actually a seven-week season of the Church year called Eastertide, the fifty days that begins at sundown the evening before Easter Sunday (the Easter Vigil) and lasts for six more Sundays until Pentecost Sunday. For the newly baptized, this is a period of mystagogy (being “led into mystery”), a time for prayerful reflection on the experience of their sacramental journey. The symbols and rites of the Easter season are channels of this grace.

THE PASCHAL CANDLE

The new Paschal candle towers over the Easter assembly, a majestic symbol of the joy and glory radiated by the risen Lord. Its stature is both inspiring and pragmatic, for it will burn at every Easter season Mass and every funeral rite during the year. This pillar of Christ is lowered into the baptismal font three times at the Easter Vigil in a symbolic relationship that gives birth to the baptized so they may “rise to the life of newborn children through water and the Holy Spirit.”

THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

The recitation of the Creed on Easter is typically replaced by a renewal of baptismal vows. Easter joy and glory are diminished if the faithful do not pledge to renounce sin and follow Christ. This renewal rite challenges both the newly baptized and the whole assembly to a more faithful witness to Jesus’ message and a more Christ-like way of life. The faithful attest to their spoken vows by holding taper candles lighted from the Paschal flame as they are sprinkled with the waters of baptism.

THE RETURN OF “ALLELUIA”

The Easter season is marked by the return of “Alleluia” to the liturgical celebration. Its Lenten absence represented a kind of spiritual fast, but with Christ arisen we once again feast on exuberant songs of “alleluia” or “Praise God!” For Easter Sunday, the gospel procession is often extended in length and musically embellished. The dismissal rite is also enhanced with alleluias, sealing our call to go forth in the peace of the risen Christ.

CUSTOMS OF THE EASTER SEASON

The Easter Season, which follows the celebration of Easter Sunday, is a time of joy and renewal in the liturgical calendar. It lasts for 50 days, culminating on Pentecost. During this season, various customs and traditions are observed:

Easter Octave: The Catholic Church observes the eight-day period known as the Easter Octave, beginning on Easter Sunday and ending on the following Sunday, often referred to as Divine Mercy Sunday. The entire octave is celebrated as a single solemnity, and each day is considered a continuation of the Easter celebration.

Veneration of the Crucifix: During the Easter Octave, there is a particular focus on the veneration of the Cross, continuing the reflection on Christ's sacrifice and resurrection. This devotion is often seen during the Good Friday liturgy but extends into the Easter season.

Easter Water: The Easter Vigil features the blessing of water, which is then used for baptisms and for the blessing of people, homes, and other objects throughout the Easter season. Holy Water fonts are often replenished with the newly blessed water.

Easter Candle: The Paschal Candle, which is lit during the Easter Vigil, remains in the sanctuary throughout the Easter season as a symbol of the risen Christ's presence and is typically used in liturgical processions and ceremonies.

Renewal of Baptismal Promises: Catholics often renew their baptismal promises during Mass on Easter Sunday and other occasions throughout the Easter season, emphasizing their commitment to the faith.

White and Gold Liturgical Vestments: Clergy wear white and gold liturgical vestments during the Easter season to symbolize the purity, joy, and glory of Christ's Resurrection.

Easter Sunday Processions: In some parishes, especially in certain European countries, there are processions on Easter Sunday, often led by clergy, with the faithful following behind. These processions can be elaborate and may include the display of religious statues or icons.

Easter Hymns and Liturgical Music: Special Easter hymns and liturgical music are sung during Mass throughout the Easter season, reflecting the joy and celebration of Christ's Resurrection.

These customs and traditions enhance the celebration of Easter and the Easter Season, emphasizing the central importance of Christ's Resurrection in the Catholic faith.

JESUS' RESURRECTION

What happened on Easter was a complete surprise to the disciples. The Jesus that they had known and who had died was suddenly experienced as alive again. This new life, described as resurrection, was not just a restoration of one's former life—a resuscitation from the dead. The prophets Elijah and Elisha had brought people back to this life, as had Jesus for the daughter of Jairus, the son of the widow of Nain, and Jesus' beloved friend Lazarus. Although their return from the dead left them temporarily alive, they would die again. But Jesus' resurrection was a new life that would not be subject to death again. It was eternal life, permanent and undying existence in the presence of God forever.

THE RESURRECTION MYSTERY

“O truly blessed Night,” sings the Exsultet of the Easter Vigil, “which alone deserved to know the time and the hour when Christ rose from the realm of the dead!” But no one was an eyewitness to Christ's Resurrection and no evangelist describes it. No one can say how it came about physically. Still less was its innermost essence, his passing over to another life, perceptible to the senses. Although the Resurrection was an historical event that could be verified by the sign of the empty tomb and by the reality of the apostles' encounters with the risen Christ, still it remains at the very heart of the mystery of faith as something that transcends and surpasses history.
