Congratulations Candidates!

Please welcome and pray for OCIA candidates Emily Fellman and Kelsie Storm who will be confirmed and join us in full communion with the Catholic Church at the 5 pm Mass this week-end April 18. It is not too late to write a note to them and leave it in the basket at the back of the church. (Cash Freitas will be confirmed by the Archbishop at the Cathedral May 6.)

Archbishop's Catholic Appeal 2026

We can relate to what the disciples are feeling at the beginning of today's Gospel. They are feeling lost and defeated. They gave up everything to follow Jesus, and what did this get them? A long and dusty walk back to their old lives. Feelings of dejection and hopelessness are part of the human condition. But so are feelings of joy and promise. When the disciples first meet Jesus on the road, they do not recognize him. Then their eyes are opened when Jesus joins them for dinner, breaking and blessing the bread as he did during the Last Supper. Despair gives way to hope, their faith is renewed, and, with it, the strength to return to Jerusalem.

Just as Jesus walked alongside the disciples, he accompanies us as well – through Scripture reading and prayer that calms our fears, through friends who bring us meals when our parents die, through our spouses who hug us at the end of a difficult day, even through the quiet of a sunrise that fills us with optimism. When we recognize him, our lives are transformed. And like those disciples, we are called to return with joy and witness to his presence among us.

As a Church, we are invited to be companions for others on their journeys – to walk with them, to listen, to break bread, and to reveal Christ through our love and action. One way we do this is through our support of the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal, which strengthens ministries that open hearts and bring Christ's presence to those in need. Please prayerfully consider making your gift to the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal today at Appeal.ArchdPDX.org.

Third Sunday of Easter

PERHAPS WE CAN IDENTIFY with the two disciples who were on the road to Emmaus. They most likely felt despair and discouragement, but when Jesus revealed himself to them that despair was turned into joy and they rushed to tell the other disciples. If we today continue to open ourselves to God's movement in our lives, we can feel that same joy and be energized to share the Good News with others.

PARISH LIFE

Say Hi to your Pastoral Council

Meet your current members of the Madeleine Pastoral Council: front row: Susan Lavin, Catherine Glavin, Diane Holmes, Janet Brown, Jill Soltero. Back row: Dan O'Brien, Tim Resch, Kaz Oishi, Ken Brown

The Pastoral Council supports Father B. in his work as pastor and parish administrator, serving as advisors and helpers. They discern pastoral needs with guidance of the Holy Spirit and in dialogue with the parish and each other. Feel free to say hi and share any thoughts you have whenever you see them.

Sign-up to become a Liturgical Minister – Coming Soon!

Interested in becoming a liturgical minister? Sign-ups will be available the weekend of May 16 and 17 after Mass. Sign-ups for these liturgical ministries will be included: Sacristan, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Usher, Music Ministry (including Choir and Cantor), Environment, and A/V. See the Liturgical Ministries Flyer in the Vestibule (near the weekend bulletin) for more information about each ministry. An individual from the Liturgy Committee will contact those who sign-up to get them started.

100th Birthday Celebration for Sylvia Howes • April 25

After 5 pm Mass

Join our Music Ministry for the 5 pm Mass followed by a cake and champagne reception in the Fireside Room on Saturday, April 25 in celebration of the 100th birthday of longtime Madeleine parishioner Sylvia Howes (Maria Manzo's mother). All are welcome!

Wear a Nametag to Mass

During this year's Easter Season we'd like to make an effort to get to know each other a little better so, let's wear a nametag to Mass!

We all know each other's faces...but not so much the names. To limit waste, if you have a nametag at home from any other use... please bring it to wear. Don't have a nametag at home? We'll have blanks in the back of the church for you to make one.

In this Sunday's Gospel as we hear the story of the disciples on the road to Emmaus, we also come to know that our daily reaching out to our neighbor is our daily walk with the risen Christ; we recognize him in others. In the month of March, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting 23 families; providing 503 lbs. in food from the pantry plus 11 food cards and $200.00 for rent bills.

COMMUNITY

Liturgy & Communion Economy Class

with Simone Weil Catholic Worker

This Easter season we invite you to join us for a free, 5-week class that brings into focus the socially/economically formative dimension of our deep sources, especially Scripture and the liturgy.

- ▶ Dates: April 16 to May 14
- ▶ Estimated weekly commitment: 1 hour live session on Thursday evenings (5-6pm Pacific) + 1/2 to 2 hours reading, depending on desired level of engagement
- ▶ Course Description: The LCE course is about restoring dimension. It is opening our eyes to see liturgy forming the Body of Christ, opening our minds to experience the Body of Christ as a living, social organism, and opening Scripture to understand how its economic dimension has been lived and developed over Judeo-Christian history. For example, by considering the always Jubilee-inflected nature of the Sabbath, the Jesus of some puzzling Gospel passages suddenly feels both more coherent and more challenging for contemporary Christian life. Finally, this course will be a forum for discussion, seeded with a variety of case studies, uncovering possibilities for a social economy of communion in our own parishes and neighborhoods.

We originally developed this class with the McGrath Institute for Church Life at Notre Dame as we were developing the model for parish-based zero interest lending that is now the Living Communion Initiative. Scan QR code for information and to register.
