OCIA Candidates and Catechumens—What's the difference?

While you might hear the two terms used interchangeably at times, there is a difference!

Catechumens are those who are not baptized and seeking to become Catholic. They begin their preparation—known as the Pre-Catechumenate—no less than one year before they enter the Catechumenate. They then undergo formation and a series of rites with the parish community before receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil Mass. If you are not baptized and want to know more, reach out to our OCIA team now!

Candidates are those who were baptized Christian but not Catholic and are seeking to come into Full Communion with the Catholic Church. They participate in formation to discern and learn more of the specific teachings of the Catholic faith while also participating in the life of the parish. Candidates can come into the Church as soon as they are ready, during any season. If you're baptized and believe you need to wait until next Easter to come into the Church, you may be mistaken! Reach out to our team to learn more.

Unbaptized? Baptized and want to become Catholic? Baptized Catholic and missing sacraments? Contact Lauren Craig at lcraig@themadeleine.edu for more information.

The Most Holy Trinity

AS CHRISTIANS, WE BELIEVE that God is love. This love is essentially love in relationship. Saint Augustine described the Holy Trinity as God the Lover, God the Beloved, and the Love between them. May we recognize God's triune presence all around us, particularly in the experience of the loving relationships in our own lives.

Women's Coffee Group

Attention women of the Madeleine parish! With the summer months arriving, kids out of school and vacation season getting underway, we thought it would be a good idea to pause our monthly gatherings and give us all time to enjoy a little break. We will begin anew in the Fall, so watch the bulletin later in August for an announcement of the exact date. Thanks to everyone who has faithfully attended and contributed to our discussions. Connecting and growing our friendships in faith is truly a blessing. Happy Summer!

TIPS FOR GREEN LIVING

All summer long, many Christians practice their talents as guardians of creation by kneeling down to work the soil and tend their flowerbeds! Gardens can sometimes be a lot of work. However, there are many native flower species (very well suited to your area's climate) which do not require frequent watering and no major maintenance. Furthermore, native plants attract native wildlife. Milkweed attracts the Monarch butterfly and the Cape Impatiens attracts hummingbirds.

Offertory / Presentation of the Gifts —Changes On the Way

As we begin Ordinary Time in the liturgical church year, you might notice a subtle change in how things are done during the Offertory. All our gifts will be brought forward at the same time. That is, our gifts of Bread and Wine, our monetary gifts (the Collection), and our food gifts for the poor will all be part of the Offertory Procession. As we read in the Roman Missal, “It is a praiseworthy practice for the bread and wine to be presented by the faithful. ... money or other gifts for the poor or for the Church, brought by the faithful”.

What does this mean? If you are one of our many volunteers (Thank you!) bringing the Bread and Wine forward, please continue to come to the back of the church as the Prayers of the Faithful are beginning. After the Ushers take the Collection, they will cue you to begin the Procession. The Bread and Wine are first in the procession followed by our monetary gifts and our food gifts.

THE MYSTERY OF THE HOLY TRINITY

The Trinity Revealed: One God, Three Experiences

We begin thinking about the mystery of God as trinity with our experiences of God as Creator, Savior and Sanctifier. Salvation history—the story of God’s relationship with creation and humanity—reveals the threefold activity of God as Father, the loving creator who brings into existence and cares for everything that exists; as Jesus, the human crucified liberator sent from God to show us how to live as God’s children; and as the Holy Spirit, who is now at work transforming and sanctifying everything in our world.

Many New Testament passages describe how the three persons act and how they relate to each other. But the problem was how these the two new divine revelations of Jesus and the Holy Spirit could be explained and reconciled with the fundamental belief that there was only one God and not three.

The Trinity Explained: One Nature, Three Persons

By the fourth century, several unsuccessful attempts had been made to explain how our Christian God could be one God not three. Finally at the ecumenical Councils of Nicaea (AD 325) and Constantinople (AD 381), to guide believers about how this mystery is to be talked about and understood, a more accurate explanation was formulated that went beyond the biblical descriptive language but formulated its meaning and truth using a more precise terminology.

Using terms based on our human experience of how several different individuals or persons all share one and the same human kind of being or nature, the Council declared that likewise God was one divine nature that was shared by three individual beings. “Nature” pointed to what there was one of in God—divinity—and person identified who there were three of in God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit who all shared this divinity. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us: “In doing this, the Church did not submit the faith to human wisdom, but gave a new and unprecedented meaning to these terms, which from then on would be used to signify an ineffable mystery, infinitely beyond all that we can humanly understand” (#251).

MADE IN THE IMAGE OF THE TRINITY

Theologians call our Christian belief in one God who exists as a trinity of persons a mystery. The word mystery points to a reality that is beyond our full conceptual explanation, but not beyond our experience. We know God's hidden threefold personal mystery only because God freely reveals it to us through Jesus, God's messiah or Christ, through God's words gathered together in the Bible, through God's loving actions toward us in creation and history, and in God's own divine life of grace within us.

Though God freely revealed this mystery in and through Jesus, God also reveals this mystery in each one of us. Our touchstone to the mystery of the Trinity is first of all the mystery of our own self! We have been created in the image of God (Gen 1:27), which for us Christians means that we have been created in the image of the Trinity and our vocation is to be in a relationship with God as three in one. And like that divine trinitarian reality which is a mystery beyond our explanation but not our experience, our human reality has at its core a deep and unfathomable mystery that we call our self, which despite our most persistent efforts to "know ourself," always contains so much more than we can understand or explain.

This interior self experiences, thinks and knows and wills, but these experiences, thoughts, knowledge and urges to action cannot be known unless we freely choose to reveal them by expressing them exteriorly in our words and actions. Just as we would not know the Father unless there is self-revelation in word (God's word made material in creation, Gen 1:1–2:1, Jn 1:1, and made flesh in Jesus of Nazareth, Jn 1:14), so we would not know ourselves or others without our expression of the self-mystery within us. God also created us by breathing into our material bodies the "breath/Spirit of life" (Gen 2:7). So each of us is an image of the trinity, an original mysterious self that expresses itself in Word and Spirit to enter into relationships of with others in imitation of the divine trinity in which we have been made.

OUR TRINITARIAN JOURNEY

Pope Francis reminds us that "The mystery of the Trinity was revealed to us by Jesus himself. He showed us the face of God as merciful Father. He presented himself as the Son of God and Word of the Father, the Savior who gives his life for us. And he spoke of the Holy Spirit who proceeds from the Father and the Son as our Consoler and Advocate.

"The Trinity is the ultimate goal toward which our earthly pilgrimage is directed. The journey of the Christian life is essentially a Trinitarian journey: the Holy Spirit reminds us what Jesus taught us and guides us to full knowledge of Christ's teachings. Jesus, in turn, came into the world to make the Father known to us, to guide us to Him, to reconcile us with Him.

Everything in the Christian life revolves around the mystery of the Trinity and is fulfilled according to this infinite mystery. Therefore, we seek to always live in such a way that we remember what goal, what glory we exist for, work for, struggle for, suffer for, and what immense reward we are called to. This mystery embraces our entire life and our entire Christian being. We remember it, for example, each time we make the sign of the cross: in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

A TRINITY OF LOVE

"Three Persons are one God because the Father is love, the Son is love, the Spirit is love. God does not live in splendid solitude but rather is an inexhaustible source of life that is ceaselessly given and communicated. The image of the Most Holy Trinity is in a certain way impressed upon everything that exists, because everything that exists, down to the least particle, is a being in relationships, and thus creative Love shines forth. All comes from love, tends toward love, and is moved by love, naturally, according to different grades of consciousness and freedom. The strongest proof that we are made in the image of the Trinity is this: only love makes us happy, because we live in relationships, and we live to love and be loved."
